Metropolitan Pulpit Charles Haddon Spurgeon,1906 Peter`s Prayer C.H. Spurgeon,2018-01-26 The disciples had been fishing all night They had now given up fishing they had left their boats and were mending their nets A stranger appears They had seen Him probably once before and they remembered enough of Him to command respect Besides the tone of voice in which He spoke to them and His manner at once ruled their hearts He borrowed Simon Peter s boat and preached a sermon to the listening crowds After He had finished the discourse as though He would not borrow their vessel without giving them their hire He bade them launch out into the deep and let down their nets again They did so and instead of disappointment they at once took so vast a haul of fish that the boats could not contain all and the net was not strong enough and began to break Surprised at this strange miracle overawed probably by the majestic appearance of that matchless One who had worked it Simon Peter thought himself quite unworthy to be in such company and fell on his knees and cried this strange prayer Depart from me for I am a sinful man O Lord So I desire that first of all we shall hear Spurgeon's Sermons on Great Prayers of the Bible C.
