Squatters And Settlers:

Squatters and the Roots of Mau Mau, 1905-1963 Tabitha Kanogo, 1987-09-30 This is a study of the genesis evolution adaptation and subordination of the Kikuyu squatter labourers who comprised the majority of resident labourers on settler plantations and estates in the Rift Valley Province of the White Highlands The story of the squatter presence in the White Highlands is essentially the story of the conflicts and contradictions that existed between two agrarian systems the settler plantation economy and the squatter peasant option Initially the latter developed into a viable but much resented sub system which operated within and to some extent in competition with settler agriculture This study is largely concerned with the dynamics of the squatter presence in the White Highlands and with the initiative self assertion and resilience with which they faced their subordinate position as labourers In their response to the machinations of the colonial system the squatters were neither passive nor malleable but on the contrary actively resisted coercion and subordination as they struggled to carve out a living for themselves and their families It is a firm conviction of this study that Kikuyu squatters played a crucial role in the initial build up of the events that led to the outbreak of the Mau Mau war from the introduction Squatters and the Roots of Mau Mau, 1905-63 Tabitha Kanogo, 1987 Review of Squatters and Settlers Jillian Oppenheimer, 1979 Squatter's Republic Tamara Venit Shelton, 2013-11-22 Who should have the right to own land and how much of it A Squatter's Republic follows the rise and fall of the land question in the Gilded Age and the rise and fall of a particularly nineteenth century vision of landed independence More specifically the author considers the land question through the anti monopolist reform movements it inspired in late nineteenth century California The Golden State was a squatter's republic a society of white men who claimed no more land than they could use and who promised to uphold agrarian republican ideals and resist monopoly the nemesis of democracy Their opposition to land monopoly became entwined with public discourse on Mexican land rights industrial labor relations immigration from China and the rise of railroad and other corporate monopolies Decolonization And The State In Kenya David F. Gordon, 2019-04-11 In this book the author examines the efforts of the colonial regime to shape the process of decolonization in Kenya from the end of World War II until independence in 1963 focusing on the conflict between the state's two imperatives promoting economic development and establishing and maintaining control Dr Gordon reviews the different political Review of Squatters and Settlers Ray Bass, 1978 Squatter Settlements Charles Abrams, 1966 The Squatter and the Don Marõa Amparo Ruiz de Burton, 1997-01-01 The Squatter and the Don originally published in San Francisco in 1885 is the first fictional narrative written and published in English from the perspective of the conquered Mexican population that despite being granted the full rights of citizenship under the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in 1848 was by 1860 a subordinated and marginalized national minority Past and Present of O'Brien and Osceola Counties, Iowa John Licinius Everett Peck, Otto Hillock Montzheimer, William J. Parliament,1867      Border Confluences Rosemary A. King,2004-02-01 Writers focusing on the U S Mexico border are keen observers of cultural interaction and their work offers a key to understanding the region and its most important issues For more than 150 years novelists from both the United States and Mexico have spun stories about the borderlands in which characters react to cultural differences in the region and this has become a dominant theme in border fiction Authors such as Helen Hunt Jackson Carlos Fuentes Cormac McCarthy and Leslie Marmon Silko have not only created important literature in so doing they have also helped define the border Writers who are drawn to the borderlands owe the narrative power of their work to compelling relationships between literary constructions of space and artistic expressions of cultural encounter Rosemary King now offers a new way of understanding the conflicts these writers portray by analyzing their representations of geography and genre Border Confluences examines how the theme of cultural difference influences the ways that writers construct narrative space and the ways their characters negotiate those spaces from domestic sphere to national territory public school to utopia King shows how fictional characters various responses to cultural encounters adapting resisting challenging sympathizing depend on the artistic rendering of spaces and places around them and she examines the connection between writers evocation of place and the presence of cultural interaction along the border as expressed in novels written since the mid nineteenth century Drawing on historical romances Hispanic coming of age novels travel narratives and utopian literature King offers plot summaries of such key works as Ramona All the Pretty Horses and Almanac of the Dead as she analyzes representations of both the spaces in which characters function and the places they inhabit relative to the border Border Confluences is a provocative study that offers insight into the ways words and space combine and recombine over time to create representations of the borderlands as a site where places and cultures continue to generate powerful narrative Through it scholars and students in such disciplines as ethnic studies sociology and women s studies will find that novels centered on the border are not merely works of literature but also keys to understanding the region and its most important issues      Sustainability in South Asian Cities Subhash Anand,Rituparna

Bhattacharyya,Madhushree Das,Tulshi Kumar Das,Pushkar K. Pradhan,2025-03-03 This book explores some of the common socio economic and environmental challenges faced by the cities of South Asia which remain highly under researched South Asia comprises eight nations India Bangladesh Nepal Sri Lanka Bhutan Maldives Pakistan and Afghanistan consisting of a total population of 1.92 billion in 2022 The majority of the cities in these countries are characterized by haphazard urbanization and multi dimensional poverty alongside its associated ingredients floods water scarcity food crises poor sanitation slums and squatter settlements and pollution among others This comprehensive book is contributed by interdisciplinary scholars and includes 25 case studies The volume brings these socio economic and environmental challenges to the fore for a better and more nuanced understanding The book help policymakers to mitigate the challenges and build sustainable cities South Asia is perhaps one of the most populous areas on the planet with nearly one third of its population with over ten cities larger than 10 million and maybe home to four of the largest cities of the world's largest ten. The rights to the city and the right to breathe bread and work are as significant to South Asians. The current volume is a timely addition to perhaps aiming for sustainable cities with many case studies on initiatives towards that end. The canvas is vast and the coverage is daunting. However, the editors have a challenging task to balance out keeping the integrity of the theme in focus. Professor Avaya Mohapatra, Former Head and Professor now retired, North Eastern Hill University, Meghalaya. It would be fair to say that while the fascinating scientific works inquired into by the authors through several chapters, the very book is useful as a reference for readers and researchers regarding urban sustainability in South Asian developing countries including Nepal. Keep up the good work. Professor Vidhya Bir Singh Kansakar, a veteran geographer of Nepal. This book should become a companion reader for scholars and students studying sustainability. It looks comprehensive, admirably clear in its objectives and intellectually lively. Professor Suman Singh, Department of Geography, Banaras Hindu University.

California Exposures: Envisioning Myth and History Richard White, 2020-03-17. Winner of the 2021 California Book Award, Californiana category. A brilliant California history in word and image from an award-winning historian and a documentary photographer. This is the West, sir. When the legend becomes fact, print the legend. This indelible quote from The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance applies especially well to California, where legend has so thoroughly become fact that it is visible in everyday landscapes. Our foremost historian of the West, Richard White, never content to print the legend, collaborates here with his son, a talented photographer, in excavating the layers of legend built into California's landscapes. Together they expose the bedrock of the past and the history they uncover is astonishing. Jesse White's evocative photographs illustrate the sites of Richard's historical investigations. A vista of Drake's Estero conjures the darkly amusing story of the Drake Navigators Guild and its dubious efforts to establish an Anglo-Saxon heritage for California. The restored Spanish missions of Los Angeles frame another origin story in which California's native inhabitants civilized through contact with friars gift their territories to white settlers. But the history is not so placid. A quiet riverside park in the Tulare Lake Basin belies scenes of horror from when settlers in the 1850s transformed native homelands into American property. Near the lake bed stands a small marker commemorating the Mussel Slough massacre, the culmination of a violent struggle over land titles between local farmers and the Southern Pacific Railroad in the 1870s. Tulare is today a fertile agricultural county, but its population is poor and unhealthy. The California Dream lives elsewhere. The lake itself disappeared when tributary rivers were rerouted to deliver government subsidized water to big agriculture and cities. But climate change ensures that it will be back. The only question is when. Indian Communities in Southeast Asia (First Reprint 2006) K S Sandhu, A Mani, 2006. In Indian Communities in Southeast Asia, thirty-one scholars provide an analytical commentary on the contemporary position of ethnic Indians in Southeast Asia. The book is the outcome of a ten-year project undertaken by the editors at the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore. It is multi-disciplinary in focus and multi-faceted in approach, providing a comprehensive account of the way people originating from the Indian subcontinent have integrated themselves in the various Southeast Asian countries. The study provides insights into understanding how Indians, an intra ethnically diverse immigrant group, have intermingled in Southeast Asia, a region that itself is ethnically diverse. Recollections of a Newspaperman Frank Aleamon Leach, 1917. Frank Aleamon Leach b. 1846 published the Vallejo Evening Chronicle 1867-1886 and the Oakland Enquirer 1886-1898. He retired from journalism to become superintendent of the San Francisco Mint 1897-1907. Recollections of a newspaperman 1917 begins as Leach and his mother leave Cayuga County, New York, to rejoin the boy's father in California where the elder Leach had set up a bottling plant in Sacramento. Leach recalls his boyhood there and in Napa where the family moved in 1857. He tells of experiences as a printer and newspaper publisher in Napa, Vallejo, and Oakland. Other topics are a rail trip east in 1875, mining speculations, a term in the state legislature, Republican Party politics, ranching, railroad strikes, and his campaign against Oakland bosses and the rail interests. Highlights of his years after journalism are his work at the mint and the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906. The Squatter and the Don María Amparo Ruiz de Burton, 1885. Problems of the land squatter and railroad interests in Alameda County, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego. Baird Greenwood. The Elusive Eden Richard B. Rice, William A. Bullough, Richard J. Orsi, Mary Ann Irwin, Michael F. Magliari, Cecilia M. Tsu, 2019-09-13. California is a region of rich geographic and human diversity. The Elusive Eden charts the historical development of California beginning with landscape and climate and the development of Native cultures and continues through the election of Governor Gavin Newsom. It portrays a land of remarkable richness and complexity settled by waves of people with diverse cultures from around the world. Now in its fifth edition, this up-to-date text provides an authoritative, original, and balanced survey of California history incorporating the latest scholarship. Coverage includes new material on political upheavals, the global banking crisis, changes in education and the economy, and California's shifting demographic profile. This edition of The Elusive Eden features expanded coverage of gender, class, race, and ethnicity, giving voice to the diverse individuals and groups who have shaped California. With its continued emphasis on geography and environment, the text also gives attention to regional issues, moving from the metropolitan areas to the state's rural and desert areas. Lively and readable, The Elusive Eden is organized in ten parts. Each chronological section begins with an in-depth narrative chapter that spotlights an individual or group at a critical moment of historical change, bringing California history to life. The Farmer's Age Paul W. Gates, 2017-07-28. Part of a series of detailed reference manuals on American economic history, this volume examines the aspects and problems of land policies and the growth in farming during the mid-1800s. Victorian Settler Narratives Tamara S. Wagner, 2015-10-06. This edited collection from a distinguished group of contributors explores a range of topics including literature as imperialist propaganda, the representation of the colonies in British literature, the emergence of literary culture in the colonies, and the creation of new gender roles such as girl Crusoes in works of fiction. Readings in Indiana History Indiana State Teachers Association. History Section, 1914.
