Bierman, 2004 A collection of papers from the sixteenth Giorgio Levi Della Vida conference which honored Andre Raymond and Josef van Ess Texts and Contexts Judith Summerfield, Geoffrey Summerfield, 1986 Context and Text Kevin W. Irwin, 2018-07-12 One of the most influential works in the debate over the concept and definitions of liturgical theology Context and Text by Monsignor Kevin W Irwin is now available in a completely rewritten new edition In light of the historical theological and pastoral mandates of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy Context and Text is both a proposal for and an example of an investigation of the Church s liturgical praxis from a liturgical theological perspective This second edition which includes an expanded introduction covers new liturgical and ecclesial contexts resulting from newly promulgated liturgies further research in method for liturgical studies consideration for changes in the cultural contexts in which people celebrate the liturgy Besides brand new chapters on time and sacramentality and additions to the chapter on the arts this edition also considers the ongoing texts and contexts of the liturgy as always a new event in the life and ongoing discussion of liturgical theology within Christianity Marketing Management: Text and Cases Indian Context Tapan K. Panda, 2009 Text, Context, Concepts Cornelia Zelinsky-Wibbelt, 2011-05-02 The common aim of the contributions to this volume is to shed light on the communication of conceptual structures The papers investigate how speakers rely on the same cognitive dispositions in three different areas of transfer in the lexicalization of metonymies and metaphors in intercultural communication and in expert lay communication ARTIFACT, TEXT, CONTEXT Li Tang, Dietmar W. Winkler, 2020-01-01 This volume is a collection of papers highlighting recent researches on Syriac Christianity in China and

Central Asia The topics range from artifacts to texts and their historical contexts covering the period from the 7th to the 18th century As the studies on Syriac Christianity in China and Central advance focus has shifted from a general historical survey and textual translation to a more micro and meticulous study of specific concepts and terms and particular names of persons and places The International in Security, Security in the International Pinar Bilgin,2016-07-15 International Relations continues to come under fire for its relative absence of international perspectives In this exciting new volume Pinar Bilgin encourages readers to consider both why and how non core geocultural sites allow us to think differently about key aspects of global politics Seeking to further debates surrounding thinking beyond the West non West divide this book analyzes how scholarship on and conceptions of the international outside core contexts are tied up with peripheral actors search for security Accordingly Bilgin looks at core periphery dynamics not only in terms of the production of knowledge in the production of IR scholarship or material threats but also peripheral actors conceptions of the international in terms of standard of civilization and their more contemporary guises which she terms as hierarchy in anarchical society The first three chapters provide a critical overview of the limits of our theorizing about IR and security as well as a discussion on the track record of critical approaches to IR and security in addressing those limits The following three chapters offer one way of addressing the limits of our theorizing about IR and security by inquiring into the international in security security in the international Each of these chapters makes a theoretical point and illustrates this further in a spotlight section that further illustrates the point to aid student learning A genuinely innovative contribution to this rapidly emerging field within IR this book is essential reading for students and scholars of critical security international relations theory and Global IR Text and Context in New Testament Hermeneutics J. N. Kanyua Mugambi,Johannes A. Smit,2004 Autobiographical Memory

David C. Rubin,1988-08-26 Autobiographical memory is a major form of human memory it is the basis of most psychotherapies an important repository of legal historical and literary information and in some views the source of the concept of self When it fails it is the focus of serious complaints in many neurological disorders This timely book brings together and integrates the best contemporary work on the cognitive psychology of autobiographical memory Introductory chapters place the study of autobiographical memory in its historical methodological and theoretical contexts chapters reporting original research probe the recollections people have for substantial portions of their lives Topics include the schematic and temporal organization of autobiographical memory the temporal distribution of autobiographical memories and the failures of autobiographical memory in various forms of amnesia Autobiographical Memory constitutes the first tutorial in this exciting new area of research Cognitive psychologists clinicians researchers in artificial intelligence and their students indeed anyone interested in the processes that preserve and distort autobiography will find it a useful resource Libraries, Literatures, and Archives Sas Mays,2013-11-26 Not only does the library have a long and complex history and politics but it has an ambivalent presence in Western culture both a site of positive knowledge and a site of error confusion and loss Nevertheless in literary studies and in the humanities including book history the figure of the library remains in many senses under researched This collection brings together established and up and coming researchers from a number of practices literary and cultural studies gender studies book history philosophy visual culture and contemporary art with an effective historical sweep ranging from the time of Sumer to the present day In the context of the rise of archive studies this book attends specifically and meta critically to the figure of the library as a particular archival form considering the traits that constitute or fail to constitute the library as institution or idea and questions its relations to other accumulative modes such as the archive in its traditional sense the museum or the filmic or digital archive Across their diversity and in addition to their international standard of research and writing each chapter is unified by commitment to analyzing the complex cultural politics of the library form

Kleine Schriften by Josef van Ess (3 vols) Josef van Ess, 2018-03-12 Kleine Schriften written by the eminent German scholar of Islamic Studies Josef van Ess is a unique collection of Van Ess widely scattered short writings journal articles encyclopaedia entries autobiographical essays reviews and lectures in mainly German English and French some of which are published here for the first time It includes a full bibliography of the author's work in addition to two indexes of classical authors and works which aim to make accessible the remarkable riches that these Kleine Schriften have to offer The three volume collection carefully selected by the author himself offers over 150 texts organized primarily along Van Ess own biography and the history of the discipline It is divided into twelve parts beginning with Tbingen where his career began in 1968 and ending with Retrospects and Postscripts for the future with the thematic complexes Islam and its first options and Mu tazila as centre pieces All parts are introduced by brief accounts of the historical context in which each of the assembled texts was written and which course subsequent scholarship may have taken

Jean Rhys and the Novel As Women's Text Nancy R. Harrison, 2017-10-10 Is a woman's writing different from a man's Many scholars and readers think so even though there has been little examination of the way women's novels enact the theories that women theorists have posited In Jean Rhys and the Novel as Women's Text Nancy Harrison makes an important contribution to the exchange of ideas on the writing practice of women and to the scholarship on Jean Rhys Harrison determines what the form of a well made women's novel discloses about the conditions of women's communication and the literary production that emerges from them Devoting the first part of her book to theory and general commentary on Rhys's approach to writing she then offers perceptive readings of Voyage in the Dark an early Rhys novel and Wide Sargasso Sea Rhys's masterpiece written twenty seven years later She shows how Rhys uses the terms of a man's discourse then introduces a woman's or several women's discourse as a compelling counterpoint that in time becomes prominent and gives each novel its thematic impact In presenting a continuing dialogue with the dominant language and at the same time making explicit the place of a woman's own language Rhys gives us a paradigm for a new and basically moral text Originally published in 1988 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value
