Narcissistic Parenting in an Insecure World Harry Hendrick,2016-07-06 In this provocative history of parenting Harry Hendrick analyses the social and economic reasons behind parenting trends He shows how broader social changes including neoliberalism feminism the collapse of the social democratic ideal and the new behaviourism have led to the rise of the anxious and narcissistic parent The book charts the shift from the liberal and progressive parenting styles of the 1940s 70s to the more behavioural punitive and managerial methods of childrearing today made popular by experts such as Gina Ford and Supernanny Jo Frost and by New Labour's parent education programmes This trend Hendrick argues is symptomatic of the sour mean spirited and vindictive social norms found throughout society today It undermines the better instincts of parents and therefore damages parent child relations Instead he proposes parents should focus on understanding and helping their children as they work at growing up
