Black Artists in Their Own Words Lisa Farrington,2025 The first book to center Black artists voices on Black aesthetics revealing a century of evolving relationships to race identity and art What is Black art No one has thought harder about that question than Black artists yet their perspectives have been largely ignored Instead their stories have been told by intellectuals like W E B Du Bois and Alain Locke who defined a school of Black art in the early twentieth century For the first time Black Artists in Their Own Words offers an insightful corrective Esteemed art historian Lisa Farrington gathers writing spanning a century across the United States the Caribbean and the African continent including from renowned artists Henry Tanner Nancy Elizabeth Prophet Romare Bearden Wifredo Lam Renee Cox and many more that reveals both evolutions and equivocations Many artists especially during the civil rights era have embraced Black aesthetics as a source of empowerment Others prefer to be artists first and Black second while some have rejected racial identification entirely Here Black artists reclaim their work from reductive critical narratives sharing the motivations underlying their struggles to create in a white dominated art world

New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement Lisa Gail Collins,Margo Natalie Crawford,2006-05-16 During the 1960s and 1970s a cadre of poets playwrights visual artists musicians and other visionaries came together to create a renaissance in African American literature and art This charged chapter in the history of African American culture which came to be known as the Black Arts Movement has remained largely neglected by subsequent generations of critics New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement includes essays that reexamine well known figures such as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Gwendolyn Brooks Sonia Sanchez Betye Saar Jeff Donaldson and Haki Madhubuti In addition the anthology expands the scope of the movement by offering essays that explore the racial and sexual politics of the era links with other period cultural movements the arts in prison the role of Black colleges and universities gender politics and the rise of feminism color fetishism photography music and more An invigorating look at a movement that has long begged for reexamination this collection lucidly interprets the complex debates that surround this tumultuous era and demonstrates that the celebration of this movement need not be separated from its critique
