Supersensible Knowledge Rudolf Steiner, 1987 13 lectures in Berlin and Cologne Oct 11 1906 Apr 26 1907 CW 55 Human life is full of mysteries Why do we suffer What is evil What becomes of us after death What is our origin Without answers to such questions our life can seem to lack purpose and meaning Materialistic science today cannot answer these questions satisfactorily but Spiritual Science does In this collection of thirteen lectures Steiner focuses the light of higher states of consciousness on these pressing concerns of the soul The resulting suprasensory knowledge gives one's soul the surety and confidence that comes with true knowledge This volume is a translation of Die Erkenntnis des übersinnlichen in unserer Zeit und deren Bedeutung für das heutige Leben GA 55 LECTURES The Significance of Supersensible Knowledge Blood Is a Very Special Fluid The Origin of Suffering The Origin of Evil Illness and Death Education in the Light of Spiritual Science Education and Spiritual Science Insanity in the Light of Spiritual Science Wisdom and Health Stages in Man's Development in the Light of Spiritual Science Who are the Rosicrucians Richard Wagner and Mysticism The Bible and Wisdom Theosophy. An Introduction to the Supersensible Knowledge of the World and the Destination of Man Rudolf Steiner, 2025-08-15 Rudolf Steiner 1861 1925 was an Austrian architect philosopher initiate esotericist and clairvoyant He is considered one of the greatest and most influential spiritual masters of the twentieth century Theosophy An Introduction to the Supersensible Knowledge of the World and the Destination of Man published in 1904 is one of Rudolf Steiner's foundational texts In this essay Steiner does not merely present the principles of Theosophy as he had learned them but he also lays the groundwork for what would become his own Anthroposophy The text is structured into four main parts in which Steiner presents his vision of the human being and the cosmos In summary Theosophy is a crucial work for anyone who wants to understand Steiner's thought It is not just a treatise on Theosophy but a manifesto of his spiritual science which seeks to unite the scientific knowledge of the physical world with the spiritual knowledge of the supersensible world The work is a bridge between the traditional esoteric view and a more systematic and rational approach that would characterize Anthroposophy throughout its subsequent evolution Supersensible Knowledge Rudolf Steiner, 1943

Knowledge of the Higher Worlds and Its Attainment Rudolf Joseph Lorenz Steiner,1932-01-01 There slumber in every human being faculties by means of which he can acquire for himself a knowledge of higher worlds Mystics Gnostics

Theosophists all speak of a world of soul and spirit which for them is just as real as the world we see with our physical eyes and touch with our physical hands At every moment the listener may say to himself that of which they speak I too can learn if I develop within myself certain powers which today still slumber within me There remains only one question how to set to work to develop such faculties For this purpose they only can give advice who already possess such powers As long as the human race has existed there has always been a method of training in the course of which individuals possessing these higher faculties gave instruction to others who were in search of them Such a training is called occult esoteric training and the instruction received therefrom is called occult esoteric teaching or spiritual science This designation naturally awakens misunderstanding The one who hears it may very easily be misled into the belief that this training is the concern of a special privileged class withholding its knowledge arbitrarily from its fellow creatures He may even think that nothing of real importance lies behind such knowledge for if it were a true knowledge he is tempted to think there would be no need of making a secret of it it might be publicly imparted and its advantages made accessible to all Those who have been initiated into the nature of this higher knowledge are not in the least surprised that the uninitiated should so think for the secret of initiation can only be understood by those who have to a certain degree experienced this initiation into the higher knowledge of existence The question may be raised how then under these circumstances are the uninitiated to develop any human interest in this so called esoteric knowledge How and why are they to seek for something of whose nature they can form no idea Such a question is based upon an entirely erroneous conception of the real nature of esoteric knowledge There is in truth no difference between esoteric knowledge and all the rest of man's knowledge and proficiency This esoteric knowledge is no more of a secret for the average human being than writing is a secret for those who have never learned it And just as all can learn to write who choose the correct method so too can all who seek the right way become esoteric students and even teachers In one respect only do the conditions here differ from those that apply to external knowledge and proficiency The possibility of acquiring the art of writing may be withheld from someone through poverty or through the conditions of civilization into which he is born but for the attainment of knowledge and proficiency in the higher worlds there is no obstacle for those who earnestly seek them Many believe that they must seek at one place or another the masters of higher knowledge in order to receive enlightenment Now in the first place whoever strives earnestly after higher knowledge will shun no exertion and fear no obstacle in his search for an initiate who can lead him to the higher knowledge of the world On the other hand everyone may be certain that initiation will find him under all circumstances if he gives proof of an earnest and worthy endeavor to attain this knowledge It is a natural law among all initiates to withhold from no man the knowledge that is due him but there is an equally natural law which lays down that no word of esoteric knowledge shall be imparted to anyone not qualified to receive it And the more strictly he observes these laws the more perfect is an initiate The bond of union embracing all initiates is spiritual and not external but the two laws here mentioned form as it were strong clasps by which the component parts of this bond are held together You may live in intimate friendship with an initiate and yet a gap severs you from his essential self so long as you have not become an initiate yourself You may enjoy in the fullest sense the heart the love of an initiate yet he will only confide his knowledge to you when you are ripe for it You may flatter him you may torture him nothing can induce him to betray anything to you as long as you at the present stage of your evolution are not competent to receive it into your soul in the right way The methods by which a student is prepared for the reception of higher knowledge are minutely prescribed The direction he is to take is traced with unfading everlasting letters in the worlds of the spirit where the initiates guard the higher secrets In ancient times anterior to our history the temples of the spirit were also outwardly visible today because our life has become so unspiritual they are not to be found in the world visible to external sight yet they are present spiritually everywhere and all who seek may find them Only within his own soul can a man find the means to unseal the lips of an initiate He must develop within himself certain faculties to a definite degree and then the highest treasures of the spirit can become his own He must begin with a certain fundamental attitude of soul In spiritual science this fundamental attitude is called the path of veneration of devotion to truth and knowledge Without this attitude no one can become a student The disposition shown in their childhood by subsequent students of higher knowledge is well known to the experienced in these matters There are children who look up with religious awe to those whom they venerate For such people they have a respect which forbids them even in the deepest recess of their heart to harbor any thought of criticism or opposition Such children grow up into young men and women who feel happy when they are able to look up to anything that fills them with veneration From the ranks of such children are recruited many students of higher knowledge Have you ever paused outside the door of some venerated person and have you on this your first visit felt a religious awe as you pressed on the handle to enter the room which for you is a holy place If so a feeling has been manifested within you which may be the germ of your future adherence to the path of knowledge It is a blessing for every human being in process of development to have such feelings upon which to build Only it must not be thought that this disposition leads to submissiveness and slavery What was once a childlike veneration for persons becomes later a veneration for truth and knowledge

Occult Science Rudolf Steiner, 2013-05-01 Given his energetic involvement in practical initiatives and extensive lecturing Rudolf Steiner had little time to write books Of those he did write belonging almost entirely to the earlier years of his work four titles form an indispensable introduction to his later teaching Knowledge of the Higher Worlds Theosophy The Philosophy of Freedom and Occult Science The anthroposophy of Rudolf Steiner is not a theoretical system but the results of research based on direct observation As Steiner's research was so vast and conducted over such a long period of time no single book can be said to contain the whole of his spiritual teaching However of all his books Occult Science comes closest Steiner even referred to it as an epitome of anthroposophical spiritual science The book sets out in systematic order the fundamental facts concerning the nature and constitution of the human being and in chronological order the history of the universe and man Whereas the findings of natural science are derived from observations made through the senses the findings of spiritual science or anthroposophy are occult inasmuch as they derive from direct observation of realities which are hidden to everyday perception And yet these elements of humanity and the universe form the foundation of the sense world A substantial part of Occult Science is occupied by a description of the preliminary training which is necessary to make such spiritual observations Although Occult Science is not all inclusive it is indispensable to any serious student seeking to master Rudolf Steiner's extraordinary philosophy

Knowledge of the Higher Worlds Rudolf Steiner, 2013-04-16 Rudolf Steiner's fundamental handbook for spiritual and personal development has grown more modern as time has passed although his methods remain clearly distinguishable from the many others now in circulation For one thing Steiner's path of spiritual growth is based on the clarity of thought normally associated with scientific research Rather than denying clear thinking his aim is to extend it beyond its present limitations Secondly Steiner recognizes as all genuine disciplines always have that the path to spiritual experience is an arduous and dangerous one calling for self control in thought word and deed Human beings comprise a unity and we cannot develop knowledge without a corresponding development in feeling and will Rudolf Steiner foretold that humanity would begin to experience a longing for forms of experience that transcended intellectual materialistic thinking More than one hundred years after the first publication of this book in 1904 there are countless means to achieve such experience such as eastern meditation channelling remote viewing and astral projection In addition there has been a huge growth in people reporting extrasensory perceptions of various kinds such as near death experiences and meetings with angels In this context Steiner's key spiritual workbook reproduced here in the classic Osmond Davy translation is needed more than ever given its unique precise instructions for inner training its protective exercises and its indications for grounding and centring Knowledge of the Higher Worlds begins with the conditions required for personal development and guides us through the stages of initiation its practical aspects and its effects

The Aims of Anthroposophy Rudolf Steiner, 2020-06-04 In his final lectures to the general public Rudolf Steiner speaks with great clarity and purpose about the inner and outer necessity of the anthroposophical impulse in modern times Following the fire that destroyed the first Goetheanum building in Dornach Switzerland Steiner had focused his efforts on rebuilding and reorganizing the Anthroposophical Society But he also continued to travel and speak to the public in Prague Vienna and Basel to explain the purpose of the Goetheanum and to elucidate the broader aims of his spiritual work These lectures including a semi public series in Dornach are gathered here and published in English for the first time together with an introduction notes and index The volume features the following lectures The Purpose of the Goetheanum and the Aims of Anthroposophy Enhancing Human Powers of Perception to Develop Imagination Inspiration and Intuition Human Soul Life and the Development of Imagination Inspiration and Intuition Experience and Perception of the Activities of Thinking and Speech The Physical World and Moral Spiritual Impulses Four Stages of Inner Experience Perceiving the Etheric World Soul s Eternity in the Light of Anthroposophy Human Development and Education in the Light of Anthroposophy Supersensible Perception Anthroposophy as a Contemporary Need Anthroposophy and the Ethical and Religious Life How Do We Gain Knowledge of the Supersensible World Intuition

Rudolf Steiner,2019-04-25 Rudolf Steiner draws a clear distinction between the spiritual meaning of the word Intuition and its ordinary definition As the highest form of spiritual perception Intuition has an existential significance for our process of knowledge Through systematic schooling thinking can be developed into an intuitive organ by means of which the spiritual can consciously be understood and penetrated Intuition can reveal the essence of the spirit the processes through which human beings and the world came into existence and the events in our life after death In his later works Steiner spoke of Intuition as a form of supersensible knowledge that could provide direct insight into practical life as exemplified here in his commentary on geometry architecture education medicine eurythmy painting and the social organism The concept of Intuition is fundamental to Rudolf Steiner s spiritual philosophy It denotes a clear pure mode of comprehension akin to a mathematical concept We meet it in his earliest writings on Goethe in the development of his philosophical ideas and in his many lectures and addresses Ably compiled and introduced by Edward de Boer this volume clarifies a concept that evolved in Steiner s thinking By following the idea of Intuition in its gradual transformation and amplification throughout Steiner s writing and lecturing career the book offers not only inspiring paths to spiritual knowledge but also insights into how anthroposophy developed Chapters include The Perceptive Power of Judgement Goethe s Intuition Moral Intuition Experiencing Thinking The Human Being Intuition as a Bridge to the Spirit The Schooling Path Spiritual Development and the Power of Intuition Intuition Exercises Three Stages of Consciousness Intuition in Relation to Imagination and Inspiration Knowledge of Destiny Intuition and Repeated Earth Lives Intuition in Practice Examples from Various Specialist Fields

The Festivals and Their Meaning Rudolf Steiner, 2013-09-10 In this selection of thirty of Rudolf Steiner's most important lectures on the Festivals he identifies and illumines the true meaning behind Christmas Easter Ascension and Pentecost and Michaelmas emphasizing both their inner spiritual and outer cosmic aspects He shows that the Festivals are not merely the commemoration of mighty historical events or truths within the Christian tradition but are in themselves each year spiritual events manifesting in seasonal and natural rhythms which carry a significance that grows and deepens with the developing of human evolution *The Classic Collection of Rudolf Steiner.
