Superstars Stopped Short:

The Reluctant Superstar Robert L. Boyer, 2010 A young man who went by the name of Jay Cee lived in a small town in Pennsylvania He worked as a carpenter s helper at a job that paid less than a dollar an hour above minimum wage Teaching Sunday school was a passion of his He arrived in Detroit one day to attend a four day religious retreat along with twenty thousand other Christian believers from several midwestern states Due to an incredible set of circumstances he found himself at the Detroit Lions training facility in Allen Park Michigan a nearby suburb of Detroit In an even more bizarre twist of fate he found himself practicing with the Detroit Lions football team at the position of quarterback He dazzled everyone on the field especially the head coach His pinpoint passing his ball handling and his elusiveness in the pocket were nothing short of amazing However he had absolutely no desire to play professional football He was very satisfied living and working in that small town and teaching Sunday school there No amount of money offered to him could make him change his mind One evening Jay Cee attended a class at the retreat during which the instructor told them God wants us to live up to our potential by using the talents He has given us Sometimes we have to step outside of our comfort zones before we can recognize what those talents are That made him realize that perhaps living in a small town and working for minimum wage was not his destiny maybe it was time for him to broaden his horizons

Booklist     The First Superstar Gary K. Weiland, 2008-01-24 The First Superstar tells how John L Sullivan forged the link between media and sports by being such good copy that the papers of the 1880s couldn't help but report his every move What Babe Ruth's homeruns were to baseball Sullivan's knock outs were to boxing and Sullivan came first The heavyweight title was created for him He toured the country at the then fabulous total of 500 per night routinely offering a thousand dollars to anyone who could last just four rounds His country loved gentlemen so he always insisted on gloves which was protection against the law Toasted first in America then around the world he called Teddy Roosevelt and Prince Albert friend The greatest fighting man ever he tried to be the greatest drinker and profligate too After binging all day he'd revive on his way to a fight knock his opponent out as if he were a distraction then head for the nearest bar He'd slam down C notes buy drinks for the house and leave the change Between bars he'd scatter coins to the kids Lines formed on his trains because everyone knew he gave to anyone who asked But it caught up to him Sick and broke he agreed to an illegal bareknuckle fight to be held in New Orleans in July of 1889 against Jake Kilrain It was got up by an editor who wanted to cook the drunk to death He promptly went on a four month bender that left him totally unfit with less than two months to go Only William Muldoon a wrestling champion and the founder of the physical culture movement could rescue him Together they dominated America's front pages with its greatest story The outlawed 72 round fight became legend its popularity leading to the legalization of boxing Muldoon became America's first fitness guru Sullivan returned to drinking and infamously drew the color line against Peter Jackson who might have become the first Black champ Then after touring for three years he lost to Jim Corbett Sullivan drank away a fortune actually going bankrupt but in the end became a temperance lecturer     All For Love: The SuperStar Raynetta Manees, 2016-09-23 2017 Emma Award Finalist Best Contemporary Romance Discover the romance of international superstar Darryl Bridges and beautiful businesswoman Angela Delaney and the romances of their family and friends in The SuperStar Series Book 1 and 2 begin this one of a kind series with the romance of the century as told from each lover's point of view Book 1 is Angela's Story Book 2 is Darryl's story Book 2 All For Love The SuperStar Darryl's Story International pop superstar Darryl Bridges counts his fans not in the millions but in the billions yet he sleeps alone due to the private tragedy that broke his heart Then in one surprise encounter his world is changed inside out But will the very lifestyle that brought him untold fame and fortune cause the destruction of the love he would give his life to save Widowed businesswoman Angela Delaney has suffered tragedy as well and after years of struggle has finally achieved financial stability for herself and the child she was left to raise alone The love she thought she would never find miraculously materializes and from the most incredible source But how much of her present life must she sacrifice to sustain it Two people so different on the surface but such soul mates underneath But can they survive the multitude of forces conspiring to not only tear them apart but to literally destroy them in the process Forces willing to go to any length to demolish their love even if it
