Entrepreneurial Skills Cecile Nieuwenhuizen,2008 An entrepreneur is different from a manager of a small business in many respects but largely in attitude and approach And the right approach hinges on appropriate entrepreneurial skills Professor Nieuwenhuizen has brought together several experts in the field of entrepreneurship to describe the skills necessary for successful entrepreneurship The entrepreneurial skills covered in this book include achievement orientation creativity and innovation self confidence and a positive attitude goal setting assertiveness time management networking leadership and teamwork creative problem solving and strategies for dealing with conflict and confrontation This is a guide to success factors for students of business as well as entrepreneurs starting up a business and those already running an enterprise

To Govern China Vivienne Shue,Patricia M. Thornton,2017-10-26 How practically speaking is the Chinese polity as immense and fissured as it has now become actually being governed today Some analysts highlight signs of progress in the direction of more liberal open and responsive rule Others dwell instead on the many remaining obstacles to a hoped for democratic transition Drawing together cutting edge research from an international panel of experts this volume argues that both those approaches rest upon too starkly drawn distinctions between democratic and non democratic regime types and concentrate too narrowly on institutions as opposed to practices The prevailing analytical focus on adaptive and resilient authoritarianism a neo institutionalist concept fails to capture what are often cross cutting currents in ongoing processes of political change Illuminating a vibrant repertoire of power practices employed in governing China today these authors advance instead a more fluid open ended conceptual approach that privileges nimbleness mutability and receptivity to institutional and procedural invention and evolution

International Law in Financial Regulation and Monetary Affairs Thomas Cottier, John H. Jackson, Rosa M. Lastra, 2012-10-04 The early twenty first century has seen a conspicuous absence of formal international law concerning money and finance This book argues that this lack of formal international regulation was a significant contributing factor to the global financial crisis that began in 2007 It focuses on this lack of global substantive principles and hard law rules in the field of financial regulation and monetary affairs and analyses the emerging framework within international law that aims to govern financial institutions and markets The global financial crisis has demonstrated the essential need for financial and monetary regulatory reform and for the establishment of appropriate mechanisms for the settlement of financial disputes and for the regulation of cross border financial institutions This book therefore presents the foundations of solutions that could fill these critical gaps in international financial law It addresses cross border issues financial regulation and provides detailed analyses of monetary policies and regulation This book is an updated collection of papers first published in the Special Edition of the Journal of International Economic Law on The Quest for International Law in Financial Regulation and Monetary Affairs Volume 12 Number 3 September 2010 which also show that the regulatory hands off approach was not replicated in other areas of international economic law

International trade regulation witnessed an increased number of international rules and the reinforcement of a rule oriented if not rule based approach Judicial dispute settlement and retaliation exclusively based upon international ruling and authorization was reinforced Given the importance of trade regulation and WTO law which has an established institutional and legal framework the book therefore provides a much needed comparative approach

Making the Moment Matter Muffet Trout, 2012-12-30 Making the Moment Matter is a wonderful contribution to the literature on meaningful teacher education Grounded in Nel Noddings relational ethic of care this finely written book explores both the moral foundations and the lived realities of facilitating teacher development through pedagogical caring Trout s theoretically rich carefully designed and engaging inquiry could not be more timely In an era when reform talk in teaching and teacher education is increasingly characterized by reference to outcomes accountability and value added measures this book reminds us that better teaching is a process centered on caring relationships Her work has a great deal to offer many different readers educational researchers interested in models of well crafted studies of practice teacher educators looking for insights into the complex work of teacher development and others who wish to learn more about the manner of relationships that stand at the heart of education
