Norfarizah Mohd Bakhir, Scientific and Technical Knowledge in Preserving Local Culture explore the subject of local wisdom that focus on the use of technology as a medium for art and heritage conservation It is important to ensure the sustainability of the resources tangible and intangible culture in the future Most local wisdom knowledge is transferred orally from one generation to another and through this process a lot of local cultural heritage have been lost In many cases Malay local wisdom which includes knowledge beliefs values practices and teachings in the past and the present is unique to the culture and society This knowledge should be explored and the research on preserving heritage through technology should focus on the importance and effectiveness of the use of technology and its relationship with the younger generation

A History of Christianity in Indonesia Jan Sihar Aritonang, Karel Adriaan Steenbrink, 2008 Indonesia is the home of the largest single Muslim community of the world Its Christian community about 10% of the population has until now received no overall description in English Through cooperation of 26 Indonesian and European scholars Protestants and Catholics a broad and balanced picture is given of its 24 million Christians This book sketches the growth of Christianity during the Portuguese period 1511 1605 it presents a fair account of developments under the Dutch colonial administration 1605 1942 and is more elaborate for the period of the Indonesian Republic since 1945 It emphasizes the regional differences in this huge country because most Christians live outside the main island of Java Muslim Christian relations as well as the tensions between foreign missionaries and local theology receive special attention

Al-Hind: The Making of the Indo-Islamic World André Wink, 2025-02-27 This book provides a new answer to an old and often asked question why did the bulk of conversion to Islam take place not in the imperial heartlands of the Indo Islamic world but among the indigenous populations of the Indus borderlands and the coastal maritime and insular peripheries of the Indian Ocean and the Malay Indonesian archipelago The answer is found in the conjunction of geographical political and economic factors affecting the Indo Islamic states of the 13th to 17th centuries both in their medieval origins and their interaction with the Portuguese Estado da India and the East India Companies

Islam: Essays on Scripture, Thought and Society Street, Peter Riddell, 2021-09-20 This volume comprises 17 articles on various aspects of Islamic Studies brought together to celebrate the scholarly work of Professor A H Johns which spans Islam of the medieval Middle East and Islam in Southeast Asia The first part of the book contains 9 articles which deal with Islam as a scriptural religion concerned to revere and interpret the Qur n and promote the spread and doctrinal purity of Islam Subjects included are Qur anic exegesis problems of translating the Qur n into Chinese and analyses of the theological reasoning used by Muslim scholars The second part of the book contains 8 articles which deal with Islam in Southeast Asia especially Javanese Islam and modern articulations of Islam inspired by Muhammad Abduh Subjects dealt with include the Islamisation of the Javanese Court and the impact of the journal al Man r on religious discussion in the archipelago

Java and Modern Europe Ann Kumar, 2013-10-11 This book presents a case study of Europe s impact on an old and distinctive non European civilisation Part One deals with the elements in Europe s strength technological political and intellectual It also uses Wallerstein s world systems perspective to give an economic dimension to this picture of the new world of Europe and then looks at the important question of the changing place of the Dutch in the new economic order from the seventeenth to the eighteenth century This is followed by a brief account of the history of the Dutch East India Company in Java and its political effects Part Two deals with the nature of the Javanese ancien regime both in court and in provincial circles with a focus on society and civilisation rather than those staples of Javanese historiography to date political events and economic statistics Part Three deals with the overall pattern set by the VOC s changing economic imperatives and with the impact of the successive tides of capitalism on three regional societies of Java Part Four deals with intellectual shifts that took place in this period and argues that these shifts were less conservative than the socio economic ones described in Part Three and though more fragile and vulnerable were crucial for the future The conclusion attempts to show the significance of these developments for modern Indonesia and the way in which some of the dynamics begun in this period are being played out in the contemporary world

Literature of Java Theodore G.Th. Pigeaud, 2024-12-23 Genesis and Nemesis of the First Dutch Colonial Empire in Asia and South Africa, 1596-1811 Gerrit Knaap, 2022-12-28 Based upon a sweeping command of Dutch East India Company VOC primary sources Knaap s manuscript offers a thought provoking thematic examination and chronological survey of the Dutch Republic s overseas and colonial expansion in Asia and South Africa mainly through the VOC and its successors the Batavian Republic the Kingdom of Holland and Franco Dutch Java over a period of more than two centuries 1596 1811 It elucidates and deals with several conceptual and theoretical issues that are intrinsically important and germane to a polity s definition of and how it chooses to execute the process of expansion overseas in the early modern period One of this work s major arguments and contributions is its advocacy that the Dutch VOC s expansion in Asia was an imperial project and must be seen as an act of empire or at the very minimum the attempt to construct one via the innovative utilization of a highly organized and dynamic commercial institution with significant political and diplomatic power and naval and military resources The Spell of Power H.G.C. Schulte Nordholt, 2010-01-01 Note This title was out of print Re issued in its original form in 2010 The first comprehensive history of Balinese politics from the middle of the 17th century till the end of Dutch colonial rule in 1942 Based on extensive research in colonial archives in the Netherlands and Indonesia a variety of Balinese historical narratives interviews with former colonial officials as well as many Balinese and fieldwork data concerning temples rituals and oral histories Schulte Nordholt traces Balinese history by means of a collective biography of the Mengwi dynasty

describing the rise to power the formation and expansion of a negara the subsequent crises and its fall in 1891 Between 1906 and 1942 Bali became part of the Dutch colonial state and experienced bureaucratic rule and processes that resulted in a traditionalization of Balinese kingship and culture The story of the Mengwi dynasty under colonial rule ended in a conflict between two factions This conflict had an unexpected but devastating outcome Proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Humanities and Social Science (ICHSS 2024) Evania Yafie,Primasa Minerva Nagari,Sri Handayani,Sinta Yuni Susilawati,Andy Prasetyo Wati,Cinde Ririh Windayu,Riskiyana Prihatiningsih,2025-01-20 This is an open access book This conference endeavours to engage with the dynamics of marginalisation processes and their implications for diverse marginalized groups within the complex socio cultural historical and political landscape of Southeast Asia Utilizing a multidisciplinary approach this research encompasses insights from sociology anthropology political science and economics to unravel the layered dynamics of exclusion and the myriad factors contributing to the marginalization of specific communities in the region A critical aspect of this meeting is the exploration of historical legacies examining how the colonial past has influenced contemporary patterns of marginalization The research delves into the socio economic disparities cultural diversity and political structures that underpin the marginalization of certain groups By adopting an intersectional lens the study scrutinizes the interplay of factors such as ethnicity gender religion and socio economic status recognizing the interconnectedness of these dimensions in shaping the experiences of marginalization Furthermore it also examines the repercussions of marginalization on affected communities analyzing the barriers they encounter in accessing fundamental rights such as education healthcare employment and political participation Special attention is given to the resilience and resistance strategies employed by marginalized groups illustrating their agency in navigating and challenging systemic exclusion The conference hopefully incorporates in depth case studies from various countries within Southeast Asia to capture the regional nuances of marginalization processes By adopting a comparative approach the research identifies both commonalities and unique challenges faced by marginalized groups across national borders contributing to a nuanced understanding of regional dynamics This conference not only documents and analyzes the complexities of marginalization within Southeast Asia but also strives to provide actionable insights By shedding light on the challenges faced by marginalized groups the research aims to inform policy interventions and social initiatives that can address and mitigate the adverse effects of systemic exclusion Through this lens the study contributes to ongoing discussions on social justice equity and inclusive development in the Southeast Asian context fostering a deeper understanding of these issues for the benefit of both academic discourse and practical implementation
