The Historical Jesus Of The Synoptics Jesus Of Nazareth Yesterday And Today Vol II:

Freedom and Existence Matthew Aaron Tennant, 2023-08-07 Is theology a dead corpse or living organism For Uruguayan Jesuit Juan Luis Segundo 1925 1996 theology is dynamic Freedom and existence for central themes Segundo believed that theology should be transformative in human lives For a theology to be transformative there must be a connection to existence That is it must be existential Yet most scholars have overlooked this assumption in critical analyses of liberation theology This prima facie connection to existence is distinguishable from existentialism as a school of philosophy By showing the significant existential dimension to Segundo's theology assessing his work and contribution to twentieth century theology relates to freedom ecumenism the role of faith in society and the relationship between faith and ideologies

Jesus and the Victory of God Nicholas Thomas Wright, 1997-02-07 Shows how the questions posed by Albert Schweitzer a century ago remain central today sketches a profile of Jesus in terms of his prophetic praxis his subversive stories his symbology and the answers he gave to key questions in a debate igniting examination of Jesus aims and beliefs argued on the basis of his actions and their accompanying riddles Reprint A New Handbook of Christian Theologians Donald W. Musser, 1996-09-01 In recent years the flow of Christian theology has been channeled in diverse streams represented by such trends and movements as black theology liberation theology feminist theology and womanist theology To survey this abundance and diversity of current Christian theology this book examines the theologies of representative theologians Particularly to help students navigate the sea of information the editors have identified various routes for reading and have traced several threads or issues common to many of the essays thus demarcating such recurrent concerns as the ways in which the theologians consider the sources and goals for theology their variant assumptions and conclusions about the nature of God their divergent approaches to understanding the person and purpose of the Christ and their distinct expectations for the destiny of history and faith Deconstructing Jesus Robert M. Price, 2009-09-25 After more than a century of New Testament scholarship it has become clear that the Jesus of the gospels is a fictive amalgam reflecting the hopes and beliefs of the early Christian community and revealing very little about the historical Jesus Over the millennia since the beginning of Christianity various congregations from fundamentalist to liberal have tended to produce a Jesus figurehead that functions as a symbolic cloak for their specific theological agendas Through extensive research and fresh textual insights Robert M Price paves the way for a new reconstruction of Christian origins Moving beyond the work of Burton L Mack and John Dominic Crossan on Jesus movements and Christ cults which shows how the various Jesus figures may have amalgamated into the patchwork savior of Christian faith Price takes an innovative approach He links the work of F C Baur Walter Bauer Helmut Koester and James M Robinson with that of early Christ myth theorists two camps of biblical analysis that have never communicated Arguing that perhaps Jesus never existed as a historical figure Price maintains an agnostic stance while putting many puzzles and scholarly debates in a new light He also incorporates neglected parallels from Islam the Baha i Faith and Buddhism Deconstructing Jesus provides a valuable bridge between New Testament scholarship and early freethinkers in a refreshing cross fertilization of perspectives Jesus in Global Contexts Priscilla Pope-Levison, John R. Levison, 1992-01-01 Liberator ancestor cosmic Christ and Black Messiah These are just some of the ways that Jesus is viewed in the world This rare book provides a global tour of the Christologies emerging in Latin America Asia and Africa and those of North American feminist and African American theologies Bibliography Indexes Humanist Christology of Paul Juan L. Segundo, 2007-09-01 Segundo s groundbreaking exegesis focuses chiefly on Paul s treatment of sin faith and the impact of their intersection on human existence In a brilliant concluding chapter Segundo rejects liberation theology s reading of Paul as apolitical and shows how Paul s thought opens up for us a humanizing political realm that no repression can control or render useless This profound and passionately written study will fascinate advanced students and scholars for years to come The New Testament and the People of God Nicholas Thomas Wright, 1992-01-01 Provides a historical theological and literary study of first century Judaism and Christianity offering a preliminary discussion of the meaning of the word god within those cultures and explores the ways in which developing an understanding of those first century cultures are of relevance for the modern world Original Receiving the Bible in Faith David M. Williams, 2004-09 The book should prove helpful to students as an overview of some of the issues involved while more advanced readers will appreciate its analysis of recent scholars as well the attempt to integrate and adapt their insights Remembering Esperanza Mark Lewis Taylor, 2006-09-01 Remembering Esperanza has been acclaimed as this generation s most important synthesis of critical theory and Christian theology Taylor offers North American models of a new theology that serves an informed critical transformative praxis of resistance to sexism classism racism Taylor s work forges a vital link to an engaged Christianity and the Christ who is its source Von Balthasar & the Option for the Poor Todd Walatka, 2017 Hans Urs von Balthasar s vast corpus of theological philosophical literary and pastoral writings remains one of the most impressive achievements in 20th century thought In light of liberation theology and now the papacy of Francis however a theological affirmation of the option for the poor remains dangerously weak in Balthasar s corpus Von Balthasar and the Option for the Poor offers a sympathetic reforming of Balthasar s account of the drama of salvation what he calls theodramatics in response to this weakness Divino Compañero Sammy Alfaro, 2010-09-01 Divino Companero explores the necessary foundations for constructing a Hispanic Pentecostal Christology Although traditionally Pentecostal Christologies have been anchored in a two nature Chalcedonian model Alfaro proposes that Spirit Christology is a more suitable paradigm for a Hispanic Pentecostal Christology provided it is grounded in the experience faith and worship of its community and oriented toward liberative praxis After reviewing the christological reflection of early Pentecostals and the contemporary turn to Spirit Christology Alfaro lays out the main components needed to construct a christological model born out of the Hispanic Pentecostal reality rooted in the broader Pentecostal christological imagination and informed by the Pentecostal way of doing theology Following this method Alfaro concludes the central metaphor of Hispanic Pentecostal Christology is El Divino Compañero for in their pilgrimage through this world it is Jesus the Divine Companion who through the Spirit guides and nurtures his followers on their way back home Speaking of God in an Inhumane World, Volume 1 Christopher Rowland, 2024-02-28 This two volume collection of essays on the Bible and social justice liberation theology and radical Christianity by Christopher Rowland addresses the question raised by Gustavo Guti rrez about how we can speak of God as a loving parent in a world that continues to be so inhumane These essays by an esteemed New Testament scholar represent intellectual interests of a lifetime as he integrated exegesis of the New Testament texts in their first century contexts and located their interpretations within the quests for meaning and significance that exist within contemporary society These essays represent mostly the latter concern exploring Christian Scripture which has informed the lives of men and women down the centuries as they interpret both contexts and in doing so make a significant contribution to contextual theology that should be heard by the inhabitants of both contexts The first volume of Speaking of God in an Inhumane World includes essays on liberation theology and radical Christianity the second volume focuses primarily on radical Christianity and includes reflections on Gerrard Winstanley William Blake William Stringfellow and others Reconstructing the Common Good Gary J. Dorrien, 2008-05-01 This landmark study in the history and theory of modern Christian socialism examines the work of such major figures as Rauschenbusch Tillich Moltmann Guti rrez and M guez Bonino Dorrien argues that these theologians provide a singular context for addressing questions of freedom and totalitarianism sacralization and democratization individual autonomy and the common good He focuses on the differing conceptions of the common good that these major theorists have propounded and explicates as well their theological arguments on the relationship between the Kingdom of God and projects of historical praxis With a new Preface addressing the tumultuous events in Eastern Europe Reconstructing the Common Good develops and sustains a forceful argument for the continuing relevance of a decentralized pluralistic democratic form of socialism The Theology of Liberation Alberto Rossa, 1986 An Eerdmans Reader in Contemporary Political Theology William T. Cavanaugh, Jeffrey W. Bailey, Craig Hovey, 2011-11-18 An Eerdmans Reader in Contemporary Political Theology gathers some of the most significant and influential writings in political theology from the twentieth and twenty first centuries Given that the locus of Christianity is undeniably shifting to the global South this volume uniquely integrates key voices from Africa Asia and Latin America with central texts from Europe and North America on such major subjects as church and state gender and race and Christendom and postcolonialism Carefully selected thematically arranged and expertly introduced these forty nine essential readings constitute an ideal primary source introduction to contemporary political theology a profoundly relevant resource for globally engaged citizens students and scholars

Donahue, 1988-01-01 Professor Donahue here argues that the parables of Jesus offer a Gospel in miniature while at the same time giving shape direction and meaning to the Gospels in which they appear To study the parables of the Gospels is to study the gospel in parable After surveying recent discussions of parable metaphor and narrative Donahue examines and interprets the parables of Mark Matthew and Luke as texts in the context of the theology of each of these Gospels Finally he outlines what The Gospel in Parable looks like and offers suggestions for the proclamation of parables today
