Kentucky cannot be otherwise than interesting if faithfully delineated Organized in the District when there was scarcely a cabin outside of the forts in all its broad domain its standard bearers exposed to privations sufferings and dangers the recital of which seem more like romantic stories selected from the legends of fable than the sober realities of history planted and nourished amid opposition and difficulties that brave hearts only could surmount the extraordinary success that has attended it growing up in eighty years from a single society of only a few members to a membership of nearly fifty thousand with more than five hundred ministers traveling and local church edifices in every community schools and seminaries of learning in different portions of the State its truths proclaimed in every neighborhood and its vital energies and hallowed influence
