The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt

Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-23 This book traces changing perceptions of Egypt's monastic landscape through an analysis of archaeological and documentary evidence from late antiquity.

A Hermit's Cookbook Andrew Jotischky, 2011-06-02 How did medieval hermits survive on their self-denying diet? What did they eat, and how did unethical monks get around the rules? The Egyptian hermit Onuphrios was said to have lived entirely on dates, and perhaps the most famous of all hermits, John the Baptist, on locusts and wild honey. Was it really possible to sustain life on so little food? The history of monasticism is defined by the fierce and passionate abandonment of the ordinary comforts of life, the most striking being food and drink. A Hermit's Cookbook opens with stories and pen portraits of the Desert Fathers of early Christianity and their followers, who were ascetic solitaries, hermits, and pillar dwellers. It proceeds to explore how the ideals of the desert fathers were revived in both the Byzantine and Western traditions, looking at the cultivation of food in monasteries, eating and cooking, and why hunting animals was rejected by any self-respecting hermit. Full of rich anecdotes and including recipes for basic monk's stew and bread soup, and many others, this is a fascinating story of hermits, monks, food, and fasting in the Middle Ages.

Early Christian Lives Carolinne White, 1998

An Archaeology of Egyptian Monasticism Louise

Blanke, 2019-08-30 The White Monastery in Upper Egypt and its two federated communities are among the largest, most prosperous, and longest-lived loci of Coptic Christianity. Founded in the fourth century and best known for its zealous and prolific third abbot, Shenoute of Atripe, these monasteries have survived from their foundation in the golden age of Egyptian Christianity until today. At its peak in the fifth to the eighth centuries, the White Monastery federation was a hive of industry, densely populated, and prosperous. It was a vibrant community that engaged with extra-mural communities by means of intellectual, spiritual, and economic exchange. It was an important landowner and a powerhouse of the regional economy. It was a spiritual beacon imbued with the presence of some of Christendom's most famous saints, and it was home to a number of ordinary and extraordinary men and women who lived, worked, prayed, and died within its walls. This new study is an attempt to write the biography of the White Monastery federation to reconstruct its longue duree through archaeological and textual sources and to assess its place within the world of Late Antiquity.

Chrysostom's Devil Samantha L.

Miller, 2020-03-17 References to demons and the devil permeate the rhetoric of John Chrysostom, the golden-tongued early church preacher and theologian. Samantha Miller examines Chrysostom's theology and world, helping us understand the role of demons in his soteriology and exploring what it means to be human and to follow Christ in a world of temptation

Emotions in Ancient and Medieval Philosophy Simo Knuuttila, 2004 The first part of the book covers the theories of the emotions of Plato and Aristotle and later ancient views from Stoicism to Neoplatonism Ch 1 and their reception and transformation by early Christian thinkers from Clement and Origen to Gregory of Nyssa Cassian and Augustine Ch 2 The basic ancient alternatives were the compositional theories of Plato and Aristotle and their followers and the Stoic judgement theory These were associated with different conceptions of philosophical therapy Ancient theories were employed in early Christian discussions of sin Christian love mystical union and other forms of spiritual experience The most influential theological themes were the monastic idea of supernaturally caused feelings and Augustine's analysis of the relations between the emotions and the will The first part of Ch 3 deals with the twelfth century reception of ancient themes through monastic theological medical and philosophical literature The subject of the second part is the theory of emotions in Avicenna's faculty psychology which to a great extent dominated the philosophical discussion of emotions in early thirteenth century This approach was combined with Aristotelian ideas in later thirteenth century particularly in Thomas Aquinas extensive taxonomical theory The increasing interest in psychological voluntarism led many Franciscan authors to abandon the traditional view that emotions belong only to the lower psychosomatic level John Duns Scotus William Ockham and their followers argued that there are also emotions of the will Chapter 4 is about these new issues introduced in early fourteenth century discussions with some remarks on their influence on early modern thought Creation as Sacrament John

Chryssavgis, 2019-06-27 John Chryssavgis explores the sacred dimension of the natural environment and the significance of creation in the rich theological history and spiritual classics of the Orthodox Church through the lens of its unique ascetical liturgical and mystical experience The global ecological crisis affecting humanity's air water and land as well as the planet's flora and fauna has resulted in manifest fissures on the image of God in creation Chryssavgis examines from an Orthodox Christian perspective the possibility of restoring that shattered image through the sacramental lenses of cosmic transfiguration cosmic interconnection and cosmic reconciliation The viewpoints of early theologians and contemporary thinkers are extensively explored from a theological and spiritual perspective including countering those who deny that God's creation is in crisis Presenting a worldview advanced and championed by the Orthodox Church in the modern world this book encourages personal and societal transformation in making ethical and economic choices that respect creation as sacrament

The Churchman, 1913 Animal History Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2025-06-12 Traditional history overlooks non human animals But this book reinstates them as proper subjects of historical enquiry Fourteen essays from the Journal of Animal Ethics by accomplished academics offer pioneering insights into what animal history is and how it should be done The book is divided into sections covering the nature of animal history selected intellectual figures and historical controversies concerning meat eating and vivisection Ascetics, Society, and the Desert James E. Goehring, 1999-05-01 Through rigorous examination of papyrological documentary sources archaeology and traditional literary sources James Goehring gradually forces a new direction in understanding the evolution of monasticism He ably transforms these sources into a clear narrative thereby infusing the history of Egyptian monasticism with renewed energy

A Companion to Late Antiquity Philip Rousseau, 2012-02-20 An accessible and authoritative overview capturing the vitality and diversity of scholarship that exists on the transformative time period known as late antiquity Provides an essential overview of current scholarship on late antiquity from between the accession of Diocletian in AD 284 and the end of Roman rule in the Mediterranean Comprises 39 essays from some of the world's foremost scholars of the era Presents this once neglected period as an age of powerful transformation that shaped the modern world Emphasizes the central importance of religion and its connection with economic social and political life Winner of the 2009 Single Volume Reference Humanities Social Sciences PROSE award granted by the Association of American Publishers

Gender and Medieval Mysticism from India to Europe Alexandra Verini, Abir Bazaz, 2023-09-29 This book opens up a dialogue between pre modern women identified as mystics in diverse locations from South Asia to Europe It considers how women from the disparate religious traditions of Hinduism Islam and Christianity expressed devotion in parallel ways The argument is that women's mysticism demands to be compared not because of any essential female experience of the divine but because the parallel positions of marginalization that pre modern women experienced led them to deploy intimate encounters with the divine to speak publicly and claim authority The topics covered range from the Sufi devotional tradition of Sidi Indians of African ancestry to the Bhakti poet Mirabai and the nuns of Barking Abbey Collectively the chapters show how mysticism allowed premodern women to speak and act by unsettling traditional gender roles and expectations for religious behavior At the same time as uncovering connections the juxtaposition of women from different traditions serves to highlight distinctive features The book draws on a range of disciplinary expertise and will be of particular interest to scholars of medieval religion and theology as well as history and literary studies

Early Christian Lives Athanasius, Gregory, Hilarion, Jerome, Sulpicius Severus, 1998-01-29 Written between the mid fourth and late sixth centuries to commemorate and glorify the achievements of early Christian saints these six biographies depict men who devoted themselves to solitude poverty and prayer Athanasius records Antony's extreme seclusion in the Egyptian desert despite temptation by the devil and visits from his followers Jerome also shows those who fled persecution or withdrew from society to pursue lives of chastity and asceticism in his accounts of Paul of Thebes Hilarion and Malchus In his Life of Martin Sulpicius Severus describes the achievements of a man who combined the roles of monk bishop and missionary while Gregory the Great tells of Benedict whose Rule became the template for monastic life Full of vivid incidents and astonishing miracles these Lives have provided inspiration as models for centuries of Christian worship

Walter Farquhar Hook,1867 Christianity in Roman Scythia Ionuț Holubeanu,2024-01-15 At present there is no scholarly consensus on the ecclesiastical organization in the Roman province of Scythia 4th 7th centuries This volume proposes a new interpretation of some of the historical evidence concerning the evolution of the see of Tomi a great metropolis first with suffragan bishoprics outside Roman Scythia and then inside it and later an autocephalous archbishopric Though there are also many unclear aspects regarding the evolution of monastic life in the province this book reveals that in contrast with the development of the monastic infrastructure in Roman Scythia a spiritual decline began in the mid 5th
