Fenech, 2014-03 This handbook innovatively combines the ways in which scholars diverse fields including philosophy psychology literary studies history sociology anthropology political science and economics have integrated the study of Sikhism within critical and postcolonial perspectives on the nature of religion Sikh Identity Opinderjit Kaur Takhar, 2016-12-05 It is commonly assumed that all Sikhs are the same but the very existence of different groups who have varying beliefs and practices within the Sikh community shows that a corporate identity for the Sikh community is not possible and serves to alienate a substantial proportion of Sikhs from the overall fold of the Sikh faith Introducing the beliefs and practices of a range of individual Sikh groups this book addresses the issue of Sikh identity across the Sikh community as a whole but from the viewpoint of different types of Sikh Examining the historical development of Sikhism from the period of Guru Nanak to the present day the author takes an in depth look at five groups in the Sikh community the Guru Nanak Nishkam Sewak Jatha the Namdharis the Ravidasis the Valmikis and the Sikh Dharma of the Western hemisphere associated with the Healthy Happy Holy Organization 3HO Their history beliefs and practices are explored as well as their diverse and shared identities Concluding that there is no authoritative yardstick with which to assess the issue of Sikh identity the author highlights Sikhism's links to its Hindu past and suggests a federal Sikh identity with one or two fundamental beliefs at the core and individual groups left to express their own unique beliefs and practices The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis R. Rambo, Charles E. Farhadian, 2014-03-06 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies cultures and individuals throughout the world Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon This volume examines the experiences of individuals and communities who change religions those who experience an intensification of their religion of origin and those who encounter new religions through colonial intrusion missionary work and charismatic and revitalization movements The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Sikhism Islam Christianity Judaism indigenous religions and new religious movements The essays also offer a wide range of disciplinary perspectives psychological sociological anthropological legal political feminist and geographical on methods and theories deployed in understanding conversion and insight into various forms of deconversion
