Survivor's Odyssey Richard Wiener, 2013-05 EXCERPTS FOR WEBSITE Survivor s Odyssey BID 112614 As I sit by my window gazing out over the autumnal park the turning leaves straining in the gusting west wind and a suggestion of morning sun stippling a clump of trees in the near distance my thoughts return to the view from my childhood room on Lutherstrasse a bourgeois cobblestone paved street in Wittenberg lined with neatly spaced lindens How tranquil it all seemed then Like other early childhoods contemplated late in life mine seems idyllic in retrospect A cozy home devoted parents playmates and relatives nearby Who could have predicted then that Wittenberg this ancient town the cradle of the Protestant Reformation would soon like the rest of Germany be swept up in the fanaticism and hysteria of National Socialism When did I first realize that I was not just another German child that I was merely tolerated later reviled and finally cast out How strange it seems now that it took so long for me to comprehend that what was happening to me and my fellow Jews was extraordinary Finally in November 1938 all the accumulated hatred reached critical mass And the dry tinder was ignited by an assassin s bullet The son of Polish Jews enraged by his parents deportation shot an attach at the German Embassy in Paris and this provided a sufficient pretext for what came to be known as Crystal Night Kristallnacht the opening salvo of the Holocaust The official story was that the assassination so outraged the German people that they could not be restrained from seeking revenge The truth is that in a clearly coordinated effort across the entire country synagogues were set afire Jewish shops looted and destroyed and Jewish homes invaded and destroyed A mob mentality nurtured for years had at long last found its focus in action In the late 40s hitchhiking was still a viable option I was now in civilian attire and I knew that drivers even those open to hitchhikers had to decide on a dime whether to stop Most of those who picked me up whizzed past screeched to a halt twenty yards further on and watched me run to catch up Once I got into the car they checked me out and asked a few questions before deciding whether I was a keeper Over the succeeding months I learned a lot about people Because I was a stranger whom they would never see again many shared with me confidences that they could not share with family friends or people in their communities They told me of their addictions their adulteries their sexual proclivities It wasn t because of who I was Out of a deep need they would have shared these confidences with almost anyone And at times it was uncomfortable for me to listen I wanted them to stop talking but I needed the ride and kept my mouth shut Aware that I would have to work part time I answered an ad and landed a job with the Whelan s chain of drugstores as a soda jerker I worked two eight hour shifts one on Wednesdays from four to midnight the other on Saturdays Since I was low man on the totem pole my employers felt free to shift me around from store to store as vacancies occurred Most of my colleagues were unskilled drifters who worked only long enough to save a few bucks few were college students like me But I was soon disabused of any idea that this gave me special status The best I could hope for was the occasional gig at an upscale location but I was just as likely to be sent to a hellhole like the notorious hangout for pimps and drug dealers at the corner of Eighth Avenue and 42nd Street
