and eighties in Britain is a particularly arresting phenomenon at a time when historians are openly questioning the validity of the traditional concept of history understood as a scientific search for knowledge This apparent contradiction justifies the attempt made by the contributors of this volume to analyze the relationship between history and literature in English The reader will find four preliminary essays on The End of the Classical Period establishing the characteristics of the appropriation of history since the appearance of Sir Walter Scott's historical romances with special emphasis on the Victorian novel Dickens Eliot Mrs Humphry Ward the Irish ballad and Post Independence Indian historical fiction as a necessary preface to the main group of essays on The Postmodernist Era devoted to establishing the common as well as the individually distinctive traits in the writings of some of the most accomplished contemporary writers in English the more centered British novelists Margaret Drabble Julian Barnes and William Golding as well as the more ex centric Angela Carter Salman Rushdie and Jeanette Winterson plus the playwright Caryl Churchill and the black American novelist David Bradley

Politics and History in William Golding Paul Crawford, 2002 Politics and History in William Golding provides a much needed politicized and historicized reading of William Golding's novels as a counter to previous universalizing criticism Paul Crawford argues that an understanding of fantastic and carnivalesque modes in Golding's work is vital if we are to appreciate fully his interrogation of twentieth century life The fantastic and carnivalesque are foundational to both the satirical and nonsatirical approaches that mark Golding's early and late fiction No previous study has analyzed this structure that is so central to his work Politics and History in William Golding examines this writer's work more fully than it has been studied within the convoluted context of the last half of the twentieth century Crawford directly links Golding's various deployments of the fantastic and carnivalesque to historical political and social change
