The House The Berrys Built Inside The Telegraph 1928 1986:

The House the Berrys Built Duff Hart-Davis,1991 English Media Texts □ Past and Present Friedrich Ungerer,2000-12-04 This book is among the first to combine a historical view of media texts with a critical look at their textual diversity today The thirteen chapters cover corpora of early news papers and pamphlets present day news stories and commentaries TV talk shows and commercials as well as internet presentations The studies focus on the wide range of text types in 18th century newspapers and the interpersonal strategies of pamphlets they pursue the development of the persuasive potential of headlines and advertisements right down to the sophisticated postmodernist and multilingual examples of today Other topics are the definition and structure of news stories and commentaries the interpersonal and multi modal aspects of talkshows and more radically the questioning of the journalist s role in the age of the internet Generally the stress is on the attention getting side of media texts rather than on the manipulative qualities investigated by critical discourse analysis Depictions and Images of War in Edwardian Newspapers, 1899-1914 G. Wilkinson,2002-12-13 Through a detailed examination of newspaper coverage from 1899 1914 this book seeks to understand the vicarious experience of warfare held by Edwardians at the outset of the First World War The attitudes towards and perceptions of war held by those who participated in it or encouraged others to do so are crucial to our understanding of the origins of the First World War Taking into account media history cultural studies and military history Wilkinson argues that the press depicted war as distant and safe beneficial and desirable and even as some kind of sport or game We are cautioned to avoid the same misconceptions of war in our own contemporary discussions of armed conflict Sex, Sects and Society Russell Davies,2018-03-28 This book will provide an educational and entertaining read It will explain the contradictions and complexities of the Welsh national identity This book will reveal the hardships and horrors of some people s lives It will reveal how religion and superstition ebbed and flowed together The British Press and the Greek Crisis, 1943-1949 Gioula Koutsopanagou,2020-02-01 This book provides the first detailed analysis of how interactions between government policy and Fleet Street affected the political coverage of the Greek civil war one of the first major confrontations of the Cold War During this period the exponential growth of media influence was an immensely potent weapon of psychological warfare Throughout the 1940s the press maintained its position as the most powerful medium and its influence remained unchallenged The documentary record shows that a British media consensus was more fabricated than spontaneous and the tools of media persuasion and manipulation were extremely important in building acceptance for British foreign policy Gioula Koutsopanagou examines how this media consensus was influenced and molded by the British government and how Foreign Office channels were key to molding public attitudes to British foreign policy These channels included system of briefings given by the News Department to the diplomatic correspondents and the contacts between embassies and the British foreign correspondents The Palgrave Dictionary of Anglo-Jewish History W. Rubinstein,2011-01-27 This authoritative and comprehensive guide to key people and events in Anglo Jewish history stretches from Cromwell's readmittance of the Jews in 1656 to the present day and contains nearly 3000 entries the vast majority of which are not featured in any other sources
