Bloomberg-Rissman,2016-12-31 A marathon dance mix consisting of thousands of mashed up text and image samples In the House of the Hangman tries to give a taste of what life is like there where it is impolite to speak of the noose It is the third part of the life project Zeitgeist Spam If you can't afford a copy ask me for a pdf      Poetry and the Anthropocene Sam

Solnick,2016-09-19 This book asks what it means to write poetry in and about the Anthropocene the name given to a geological epoch where humans have a global ecological impact Combining critical approaches such as ecocriticism and posthumanism with close reading and archival research it argues that the Anthropocene requires poetry and the humanities to find new ways of thinking about unfamiliar spatial and temporal scales about how we approach the metaphors and discourses of the sciences and about the role of those processes and materials that confound humans attempts to control or even conceptualise them Poetry and the Anthropocene draws on the work of a series of poets from across the political and poetic spectrum analysing how understandings of technology shape literature about place evolution and the tradition of writing about what still gets called Nature The book explores how writers' understanding of sciences such as climatology or biochemistry might shape their poetry's form and how literature can respond to environmental crises without descending into agitprop self-righteousness or apocalyptic cynicism In the face of the Anthropocene's radical challenges to ethics aesthetics and politics the book shows how poetry offers significant ways of interrogating and rendering the complex relationships between organisms and their environments in a world increasingly marked by technology      The Poetry Life Baron Wormser,2008-04-30 Baron Wormser brings to life the immense force poetry can have in people's lives In stories funny tender sad and edgy the narrators register how poetry has changed how they see themselves how they live and what they care about As it bends genres by adapting aspects of fiction biography essay and monologue The Poetry Life shows how poetry can be lightning in the soul Baron Wormser has pulled off a miraculous feat he has written a collection of stories that reveals the absolute necessity of poetry in our lives His prose style is riveting and his characters are as diverse as a phone book Each voice conjures up a passionate portrait of inner life telling us through episodes both comic and tragic that the world of the deceased poet remains eternally relevant to our own Clint McCown author of The Weatherman A Novel Poetry Baron Wormser writes is about generosity So too are these ten stories you hold in your hands They are about generosity And mystery And loneliness And life They are about how poetry helps us stay in our skins You will fall in love with these stories and with the ten poets who appear in them What Baron Wormser says about William Carlos Williams I say about him here He nailed it Ann Hood author of The Knitting Circle A Novel A book of stories not about poets but driven by the presence of poetry and the shadows of poets' madness undoubtedly But the best kind of madness With this book Baron Wormser invites us to reconsider the connection between poetry and our lives to remember that we really do live hungry for inner vision for small insights that can save us from the slag heap of goofdom and pointlessness It s a wonderful book It s the kind of stuff that makes you want to stay in the world Tim Seibles author of Buffalo Head Solos The American House Poem, 1945-2021 Walt Hunter,2023-09-19 The house is perhaps the most recognizable emblem of the American ideals of self making prosperity stability domesticity and upward mobility Yet over the years from 1945 2021 the American house becomes more famous for the betrayal of those hopes than for their fulfilment first through the segregation of cities and public housing then through the expansion of private credit that lays the ground for the subprime mortgage crisis of the early twenty first century Walt Hunter argues that as access to housing expands to include a greater share of the US population the house emerges as a central metaphor for the poetic imagination From the kitchenette of Gwendolyn Brooks to the duplex of Jericho Brown and from the suburban imagination of Adrienne Rich to the epic constructions of James Merrill the American house poem represents the changing abilities of US poets to imagine new forms of life while also building on the past In The American House Poem 1945 2021 Hunter focuses on poets who register the unevenly distributed pressures of successive housing crises by rewriting older poetic forms Writing about the materials tools and plans for making a house these poets express the tensions between making their lives into art and freeing their lives from inherited constraints and conditions Report from the Select Committee of the House of Lords, Appointed to Inquire Into the Operation of the Act 3 & 4 Will., C. 85, for the Better Government of Her Majesty's Indian Territories Great Britain.
