The Human Record Sources Of Global History Vol1 To 1700 :

Using The Human Record, Sources of Global History, Fourth Edition, Volumes I and II Alfred J. Andrea, 2001

Teaching World History in the Twenty-first Century: A Resource Book Heidi Roupp, 2015-02-12 This practical handbook is designed to help anyone who is preparing to teach a world history course or wants to teach it better. It includes contributions by experienced teachers who are reshaping world history education and features new approaches to the subject as well as classroom tested practices that have markedly improved world history teaching. The Human Record: To 1700 Alfred J. Andrea, 1993

Maya Deren Sarah Keller, 2014-12-09 Maya Deren 1917-1961 was a Russian born American filmmaker, theorist, poet, and photographer working at the forefront of the American avant-garde in the 1940s and 1950s. Influenced by Jean Cocteau and Marcel Duchamp, she is best known for her seminal film Meshes of the Afternoon (1943), a dream-like experiment with time and symbol, looped narrative, and provocative imagery setting the stage for the twentieth century's groundbreaking aesthetic movements and films. Maya Deren assesses both the filmmaker's completed work and her numerous unfinished projects, arguing that Deren's overarching aesthetic is founded on principles of incompleteness, contingency, and openness. Combining the contrasting approaches of documentary, experimental, and creative film, Deren created a wholly original experience for film audiences that disrupted the subjectivity of cinema, its standards of continuity, and its dubious facility with promoting categories of realism. This critical retrospective reflects on the development of Deren's career and the productive tensions she initiated that continue to energize film.

World History Candice Goucher, Linda Walton, 2013-07-24 World History: Journeys from Past to Present uses common themes to present an integrated and comprehensive survey of human history from its origins to the present day. By weaving together thematic and regional perspectives in coherent chronological narratives, Goucher and Walton transform the overwhelming sweep of the human past into a truly global story that is relevant to the contemporary issues of our time. Revised and updated throughout, the second edition of this innovative textbook combines clear chronological progression with thematically focused chapters. In this volume, chapters are divided into three parts as follows: PART 1: EMERGENCE (Human origins to 500 CE); PART 2: ORDER (1 CE to 1500 CE); PART 3: CONNECTIONS (500-1600 CE). The expanded new edition features an impressive full-color design with a host of illustrations, maps, and primary source excerpts integrated throughout. Chapter opening timelines supply context for the material ahead, while end-of-chapter questions and annotated additional resources provide students with the tools for independent study. Each chapter and part boasts introductory and summary essays that guide the reader in comprehending the relevant theme. In addition, the companion website offers a range of resources, including an interactive historical timeline, an indispensable study skills section for students, tips for teaching and learning thematically, and PowerPoint slides, lecture material, and discussion questions in a password-protected area for instructors. This textbook provides a basic introduction for all students of World History, incorporating thematic perspectives that encourage critical thinking and link to globally relevant
