~The Golden Threads Hannah Josephson, 1967 Lowell Offering Benita Eisler, 1998 Gathers letters stories and essays written by the female employees of the textile mills of Lowell Massachusetts Young and Restless Mattie Kahn, 2023-06-13 NPR's Books We Love 2023 Glamour's The 15 Best Nonfiction Books of 2023 So Far Vogue's Best Books of 2023 So Far Town & Country's The Best Books of 2023 A heartening inspiration The New York Times the untold story of the people who have helped spark America's most transformative social movements throughout history teenage girls Nine months before Rosa Parks kicked off the bus boycotts Claudette Colvin was arrested for refusing to give up her seat on a segregated bus in Montgomery Alabama She was fifteen In 1912 women's rights activists organized a massive march in support of women's suffrage Leading them up Fifth Avenue in Manhattan was not one of the mothers of the movement but a teenage Chinese immigrant named Mabel Ping Hua Lee Half a century before the better known movements for workers rights began over 1 500 girls some as young as ten walked out of factories in Lowell Massachusetts demanding safer working conditions and higher wages in one of the nation's first ever labor strikes Young women have been disenfranchised and discounted but the true retelling of major social movements in America reveals their might they have ignited almost every single one Young and Restless recounts one of the most foundational and underappreciated forces in moments of American revolution teenage girls From the American Revolution itself to the Civil Rights Movement to nuclear disarmament protests and the women's liberation movement through Black Lives Matter and school strikes for climate Mattie Kahn uncovers how girls have leveraged their unique strengths from fandom to intimate friendships to organize and lay serious political groundwork for movements that often sidelined them Their stories illuminate how much we owe to girls throughout the generations what skills young women use to mobilize and find their voices and crucially what we can all stand to learn from them Aspirations and Anxieties David A. Zonderman, 1992-01-02 Aspirations and Anxieties is a working class intellectual history of early factory operatives in antebellum New England The book focuses on the operatives perceptions of technological and socio economic changes in the mechanized workplace The study uncovers a complex debate over many facets of the factory system the machines and factory buildings wages and hours relations between managers and workers and the content and character of protest Finally the book argues that the roots of this debate lie in the struggle to define the meaning of work itself in a period of profound social change Converting the Missionaries Nancy Bunge, 2024-04-03 This book tells the uncommon story of a missionary family in the Midwestern United States and their interactions with the indigenous Ojibwe When Leonard and Harriet Wheeler arrived at La Pointe Wisconsin in July of 1841 hoping to help the Ojibwe understand and accept the value of Christian civility they did not expect such a profound transformation of their own lives The Wheelers empathy for the Ojibwe not only grew during their twenty five years of mission work in Northern Wisconsin much of it spent trying to protect the Ojibwe from predatory whites it also influenced the lives of their children

Behemoth Joshua B. Freeman, 2018-02-27 Freeman's rich and ambitious Behemoth depicts a world in retreat that still looms large in the national imagination More than an economic history or a chronicle of architectural feats and labor movements Jennifer Szalai New York Times In an accessible and timely work of scholarship celebrated historian Joshua B. Freeman tells the story of the factory and examines how it has reflected both our dreams and our nightmares of industrialization and social change He whisks readers from the early textile mills that powered the Industrial Revolution to the factory towns of New England to today's behemoths making sneakers toys and cellphones in China and Vietnam Behemoth offers a piercing perspective on how factories have shaped our societies and the challenges we face now The Consequences of Cotton in Antebellum America William J. Phalen, 2014-04-04 In 1846 political economist Karl Marx wrote that without cotton you have no modern industry Indeed before the American Civil War cotton brought wealth power and prosperity to both America and Europe Giant industries in the northern U.S. extensive shipping networks up and down the Atlantic Coast and to Europe new inventions and revised applications of old machines all sprang from the success of King Cotton This thoughtful study traces the impact of southern cotton on most of the important facets of life in antebellum America including employment international relations agriculture shipping the U.S. economy Native American relations and the subjugation of humans This one plant fashioned the way of life of the South and profoundly affected the destiny of the entire American people Our Own Time David R. Roediger, Philip S. Foner, 1989-11-17 Our Own Time retells the story of American labor by focusing on the politics of time and the movements for a shorter working day It argues that the length of the working day has been the central issue for the American labor movement during its most vigorous periods of activity uniting workers along lines of craft gender and ethnicity The authors hold that the workweek is likely again to take on increased significance as workers face the choice between a society based on free time and one based on alienated work and unemployment The Factory Girls Philip Sheldon Foner, 1977 History of Women in the United States Nancy F. Cott, 1992 Working-class America Michael H. Frisch, Daniel J. Walkowitz, 1983 Beginnings of Sisterhood Keith E. Melder, 1977 The United States Quarterly Book List, 1950 The United States Quarterly Book Review, 1950 The United States Quarterly Book Review Joseph Patrick Blichsederfer, 1950 Cotton Mills, Labor, and the Southern Mind: 1880-1930 John Garrett Van Osdel, 1966 Immigration of French-Canadians to New England, 1840-1900 Ralph Dominic Vicero, 1968 American Studies, 1991 Business and Economic History Business History Conference, 1997 Labor Conflict in the United States Ronald L.
