blurred or distorted Dante himself the first modern critic declared that nothing harmonized by a musical bond can be transmuted from its own speech without losing all its sweetness and harmony and every fresh attempt at translation affords a new proof of the truth of his assertion Each language exhibits its own special genius in its poetic forms Even when they are closely similar in rhythmical method their poetic effect is essentially different their individuality is distinct The hexameter of the Iliad is not the hexameter of the Aeneid And if this be the case in respect to related forms it is even more obvious in respect to forms peculiar to one language like the terza rima of the Italian for which it is impossible to find a satisfactory equivalent in another tongue
