The Hills That Beckon:

Where Fate Beckons John Dunmore, 2010-01-20 French explorer and naval officer Jean Francois de la Prouse 1741-88 was after James Cook the greatest explorer of the Pacific in the eighteenth century. In 1785 La Prouse was commissioned by Louis XVI to head an expedition into the uncharted regions of the Pacific Ocean. Setting out from France the expedition over the next three years was the first to map the coasts of California, Alaska and Siberia. From there La Prouse continued to Easter Island and Hawaii where La Prouse Bay bears his name. After a stop in Botany Bay, Australia, La Prouse's two ships set out for the Solomon Islands. En route they encountered a storm and were sunk. Despite search efforts over the centuries, no trace of the wreckage of La Prouse's ships has been found. Where Fate Beckons tells the story of La Prouse's life and adventures along the way, providing a lively introduction to the world of French colonialism, the end of the Age of Exploration, and French society in the years leading to the French Revolution.

The Sea Beckons Birdie L. Etchison, 2013-12-01 At fifty, Alice Adams isn't looking for love. Nor is she looking for a new home. She's settled into widowhood and anticipating the arrival of her only daughter's first child. Then she meets Leighton Walker and love turns her world upside down. Giddy like an infatuated teenager, Alice finds herself wanting to spend as much time as possible with the man who shares so many of her interests. But Leighton Walker is settled into his own life on the coast with family and business needs over a hundred and fifty miles from Alice's secure world. Can Leighton overcome distance, his family's skepticism, and the conniving efforts of a long time friend to claim him for her own? Or will the sea beckon him to retain his normal life and refuse a second chance at love?
