On the Road to Michigan's Past Larry B. Massie, 1995 A journey through the history of Michigan Michigan History Magazine, 2004 The WPA Guide to Michigan Federal Writers' Project, 2013-10-31 During the 1930s in the United States the Works Progress Administration developed the Federal Writers Project to support writers and artists while making a national effort to document the country's shared history and culture The American Guide series consists of individual guides to each of the states Little known authors many of whom would later become celebrated literary figures were commissioned to write these important books John Steinbeck Saul Bellow Zora Neale Hurston and Ralph Ellison are among the more than 6 000 writers editors historians and researchers who documented this celebration of local histories Photographs drawings driving tours detailed descriptions of towns and rich cultural details exhibit each state's unique flavor Published in 1941 the WPA Guide to Michigan documents the rich history and economies of the Great Lake State From the Upper Peninsula to the Lower and the Straits of Mackinac between the guide features many photographs of the distinctive geography as well as essays about marine lore architecture and in the essay on Detroit the nation's burgeoning auto industry

The Dutch American Identity Terence Schoone-Jongen, 2008 Each year thousands of communities across the United States celebrate their ethnic heritages values and identities through the medium of festivals Drawing together elements of ethnic pride nostalgia religious values economic motives cultural memory and a spirit of celebration these festivals are performances that promote and preserve a community's unique identity and heritage while at the same time attempting to place the ethnic community within the larger American experience. Although these aims are pervasive across ethnic heritage celebrations, two festivals that appear similar may nevertheless serve radically different social and political aims. Accordingly, The Dutch American Identity examines five Dutch American festivals, three of which are among the oldest ethnic heritage festivals in the United States, in order to determine what such festivals mean and do for the staging communities. Although Dutch Americans were historically among the first ethnic groups to stage ethnic heritage festivals designed to attract outside audiences, and despite the fact that several Dutch American festivals have met with sustained success, little scholarship has focused on this ethnic group's festivals. Moreover, studies that have considered festivals staged by communities of European descent have typically focused on a single festival. The Dutch American Identity thus, on the one hand, seeks to call attention to the historical development and current sociocultural significance of Dutch American heritage festivals. On the other hand, this study aims to elucidate the ties that bind the five communities that stage these festivals together rather than studying one festival in isolation from the others. Creatively combining several methodologies, The Dutch American Identity describes and analyzes how the social, political, and ethical values of the five communities are expressed, performed, acted out, represented, costumed, and displayed in their respective festivals. Rather than relying on familiar, even stereotypical notions of the Midwest, rural America, conservative America, etc., that often appear in contemporary political discourse, Schoone Jongen shows just how complex and contradictory these festivals are in the ways they represent each community. At the same time, by placing these festivals within the context of American history, Schoone Jongen also demonstrates how and why each festival is a microcosm of particular cultural, social, and political developments in modern America. The Dutch American Identity is an important book for sociology, performance studies, folklore, immigration history, anthropology, and cultural history collections.

The Magic Wheel M.G. Elliott, 2011-11-18. Ding How and Ah So hopped on the Magic Wheel and began to run as fast as they could. As they did so, the wheel slowly began to turn, gradually gaining speed with each turn. Faster! Ding How urged. We must run faster! The two little friends strained with all their might to increase their speed. At last, the Magic Wheel was spinning very fast. Hold on tight! Mi Tu, Ding How shouted. Don't let go! By now, the wheel was spinning wildly and everything became a blur. There was a great rushing of air, and suddenly the Magic Wheel disappeared. What just happened? And where were Ding How, Ah So, and Mi Tu? Have you ever wondered what your pets do when you're away at school or hanging out with your friends? You just might be surprised if you knew about their secret lives. In this fantasy, you will discover what a pet hamster, white mouse, and Siamese cat do while their human children are at school. Meet Ding How, a very wise hamster. Ah So, a mischievous little mouse and Mi Tu a most dignified and brave cat Follow their Magic Wheel into adventure danger and discovery Each new adventure challenges them to work together in order to solve their predicament In the process they soon realize how much they depend on each other Laugh at their encounters with a seagull and a giant nutcracker Feel the heat of a volcano and look with them at the awesome dancing lights in the dark northern sky Marvel with Ding How Ah So and Mi Tu as they discover the wonders of the Great Creator who made the heavens and the Earth Join them as they journey to Bethlehem where they learn the true meaning of Christmas Come along Dont delay Travel with them on their wonderful Magic Wheel of adventure and discovery Prairie Farmer ,1913 The Hotel Monthly John Willy,1925 The American Missionary ,1926 Vols 13 62 include abridged annual reports and proceedings of the annual meetings of the American Missionary Association 1869 1908 v 38 62 include abridged annual reports of the Society s Executive Committee 1883 1884 1907 1908 American Lumberman ,1922 Hunger in Holland Cornelia Fuykschot,2010-04-06 What was life like in occupied Holland during World War II What was it like for a nation to find itself overwhelmed by a foreign power How did people survive the repressive Nazi occupation This compelling first person account is an eye opening experience As seen through the eyes of twelve year old Cornelia Hunger In Holland chronicles the steady deterioration of normal everyday life the loss of freedom and security and the role of the law as food and many of life s amenities became scarce Young Cornelia takes on the responsibility of begging for food and helping to hide her father from the Nazis who had shipped every man they could find to the munitions factory to work for the Nazi war effort She captures the day to day struggle for survival and vividly illustrates the strength ingenuity and dogged determination needed to carry on Fuykschot sketches the changing lives of ordinary people their efforts to go to school to work to clean house to find food to maintain some semblance of normalcy against a backdrop of bombing raids and the daily terror of the Nazis Hunger in Holland is a moving description of a horrific period in world history a testament to those who survived and a valuable lesson for those who have never known the terror of war The Home friend, a weekly miscellany of amusement and instruction Society for promoting Christian knowledge,1853 Holland City Directories ,1940
