The Honorable Shirley Chisholm Congresswoman From Brooklyn:

The Honorable Shirley Chisholm, Congresswoman from Brooklyn Nancy Hicks, 1971 A biography of the schoolteacher who became the first black woman elected to the United States Congress Unbought and Unbossed Shirley Chisholm, 2024-05-21 The first Black Congresswoman to serve in US history traces her political struggle and examines the problems that have long plagued American government Shirley Chisholm created a path for me and for so many others Today I m thinking about her inspirational words I am and always will be a catalyst for change Kamala Harris I want to be remembered as a woman who dared to be a catalyst of change Political pioneer Shirley Chisholm activist member of the House of Representatives and former presidential candidate was a woman who consistently broke barriers and inspired generations of American women and especially women of color Unbought and Unbossed is her story told in her own words a thoughtful and informed look at her rise from the streets of Brooklyn to the halls of Congress Chisholm speaks out on her life in politics while illuminating the events personalities and issues of her time including the schism in the Democratic party in the 1960s and 70s all of which speak to us today In this frank assessment Fighting Shirley recalls how she took on an entrenched system gave a public voice to millions and embarked on a trailblazing bid to be the first woman and first African American President of the United States By daring to be herself Shirley Chisholm shows how one person forever changed the status quo A tremendously impressive book The Washington Post What Chisholm did was so pioneering She embraced what made her different and used it as her superpower Regina King Her motto and title of her autobiography Unbought and Unbossed illustrates her outspoken advocacy for women and minorities during her seven terms in the US House of Representatives National Women s History Museum Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen, 2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children s literature In Children s Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children s literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children's literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children's biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape African-American Orators Richard Leeman, 1996-08-28 This long needed sourcebook assesses the unique styles and themes of notable African American orators from the mid 19th century to the present of 43 representative public speakers from W E B Du Bois and Ida B Wells Barnett Martin Luther King Jr and Jesse Jackson to Barbara Jordan and Thurgood Marshall The critical analyses of the oratory of a broad segment of different types of public speakers demonstrate how they have stressed the historical search for freedom upheld American ideals while condemning discriminatory practices against African Americans and have spoken in behalf of black pride This biographical dictionary with its evaluative essays sources for further reading and speech chronologies is designed for broad interdisciplinary use by students teachers activists and general readers in college university institutional and public libraries Shirley Chisholm , 1988-05 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Agriculture United States. Congress House. Committee on Agriculture, 1977 Liberation and the Cosmos Barbara A. Holmes, 2023-02-28 The rich legacy of black critical thought creative expression and religious reflection come together in these creatively imagined conversations between the elders about the shape and conditions of Black liberation Barbara A Holmes has defined key issues of freedom and identity hypothesizing a meeting of the ancestors assembled on the other side to discuss them Imagine a conversation between Barbara Jordan and Thurgood Marshall on what freedom looks like in relation to law and politics Or between Tupac Shakur Nina Simone and James Baldwin on art culture and liberation Malcolm X and Harriet Tubman discuss freedom and wholeness while Audre Lorde Fannie Lou Hamer and George Washington Carver talk about liberated bodies These imagined dialogues open up rich reflection and insight and offer a unique vantage point for understanding the luminaries of liberation down through the generations An important resource for the contemporary task of Black liberation Economic Opportunity Amendments of 1971: May 12 and 19, 1971 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. Subcommittee on Employment, Manpower, and Poverty, 1971 An Angel's View Reginald E. Hicks, 2012-10 Throughout the ages and stages of American history grandmothers have been the guardians of the generations the dispensers of wisdom the instillers of pride and dignity the conveyors of important religious values the financial and emotional supporters of the family during times of need and the promoters of cultural standards and traditions From Maya Angelou to Martin Luther King Jr to Oprah Winfrey the success of many African Americans can be traced back to the love and support of a grandmother Author Reginald E Hicks is no exception For Hicks An Angel's View began as a labor of love to chronicle the life of his own beloved grandmother from her birth on the family farm in rural New Kent County Virginia in 1923 through her personal social and political trials and tribulations to her quickly approaching eighty ninth birthday However his humble commemoration eventually blossomed into an emotional story of love betrayal triumph and tragedy embedded in a riveting and dynamic Southern history Through this exceptional work Hicks makes a unique and valuable contribution to his family and to the world of black literature
