Sunday at Home ,1883 The Syren & Shipping Illustrated ,1902 Digby and the Dope and-or The Acts of Daniel Digby Martin Zottola,2025-06-17 After Daniel Digby stumbles upon a gold of pot he has to decide whether to peddle the contraband for a pot of gold or dump it in the Rogue River and forget the trouble it could cause But the potential payoff from a sale could help save an old woman from dire circumstances a woman who happens to be related to someone he realizes he loves So as he and his friend Paddy MacNaughton who could also use the money nobly try to live their daily blue collar lives in the engulfing smoke of a wildfire raging in the nearby mountains a threatening conflagration over which they have no control Digby wrestles with his choices about breaking the law his quixotic notions and his desire to console and love the enchanting Esperanza Milagro Cursed with a curiosity about human nature that persistently asks why constantly prodded to piece together into some semblance of order the chaotic and seemingly random events that constitute his life and torn between his desire to escape society and his need to participate in it Digby works runs plays Tetris and contends with God about theodicy life s absurdities and free will En route to a solution to the challenges he faces Digby encounters the diverse citizens of Greenwood in all their personal failings and glory characters who could be from any town anywhere characters who call into question his own beliefs life philosophy and faith Daniel Digby like so many people is just a guy trying to get by the best he can trying to make the most of what he s given trying to live a decent life The Nazi Ghost Train Drac Von Stoller, It was 1944 and it wouldn t be long before World War II was over and the Germans would be defeated by the United States and the help of other allies War is hell and the haunting memory of the atrocities that went on with innocent people in the concentration camps would go unpunished for many SS Nazi soldiers But some of that would not be the case when they boarded a train and headed back to their homes to their families There was laughter smoking and plenty of beer to celebrate even though they lost the war These soldiers were just glad it was over and ready to put this horrid memory behind them all and lead healthy life with their families when they got back home As for this bloodthirsty cold as ice SS soldiers this train ride was bound for hell Somehow ten minutes into the trip the engineer suffered a massive heart attack and didn t have time to slow the train down to a complete stop So the train was running full speed ahead on a course for self destruction None of the soldiers had a clue that moments later they would all be dead The soldiers were too absorbed in the moment of laughter and drunkenness to notice that something went wrong If the engineer were still alive he would have slowed the train down Then quickly made the turn around the curve but since he isn't the train jumped the track and all the rail cars broke apart sending all the SS Nazi soldiers to their deaths When the train never arrived at the train station the families of the soldiers knew something was wrong and notified the police to investigate immediately

Chapter 1 The Descent into Madness The fluorescent lights in Laboratory 7 flickered with an ominous hum as Dr Marcus Frances stared at the rejection letter with trembling hands The paper was crisp clinical just like the words that shattered his life's work into a thousand pieces We regret to inform you that your submission for the Pulitzer Prize in Scientific Achievement has been declined The letter crumpled in his white knuckled fist as a low growl escaped his throat Twenty years Twenty years of sleepless nights failed experiments and social isolation all for nothing The cure for the Marburg Ebola hybrid virus his masterpiece was dismissed as incomplete research by a panel of bureaucrats who wouldn't know groundbreaking science if it bit them in their pompous faces The laboratory around him seemed to pulse with malevolent energy Glass beakers caught the dying light casting twisted shadows across the walls lined with specimen jars Inside those jars suspended in formaldehyde were the remnants of his early test subjects rats then rabbits then other things Things that shouldn't have survived as long as they did Frances stumbled toward the locked cabinet where he kept his most dangerous creations His reflection in the steel surface was gaunt hollow eyed a man consumed by obsession If the world wouldn't recognize his genius then perhaps it was time to show them what true power looked like With shaking hands he withdrew two syringes filled with viscous dark liquid The Necro Pathogen as he'd privately named it was a weaponized combination of the Marburg and Ebola viruses genetically modified to attack the nervous system while keeping the host ambulatory The second syringe contained his enhancement serum a cocktail of stimulants and neural inhibitors designed to suppress higher brain function while amplifying aggressive instincts If I can't be celebrated as a savior he whispered to his reflection then I'll be remembered as a god of destruction The first injection burned like liquid fire as it entered his bloodstream The second followed and immediately his vision began to blur His heartbeat thundered in his ears a drum of war announcing the beginning of the end

The Mysterious Disappearance of The Sara Ann Drac Von Stoller, It was one of the happiest days of Sara Ann's life it was spring break and her father bought a new boat He wanted to surprise his daughter and take her on her first trip on a boat in the ocean Sara lost her mother a few years ago to cancer and her father took it hard and knew in his heart no other woman could ever fill that hole in his heart so he just focused on his only daughter Sara Ann and made sure she never did without and always put her first because Sara was very close to her mother and he had not always been around because of working so many hours at his job and decided to do the best he could to raise her in a loving home so she could grow up and be the best person she could like her mother Sara's father bought the boat so he could spend more time with his daughter and let her see the beauty of the ocean even though it was short lived Sara's father blindfolded his daughter and took her to his barn where he hid the boat from Sara for a surprise When Sara entered the barn her father took off the blindfold and Sara said It's beautiful father Then her father said I've got another surprise and he took her by the hand around the other side of the boat and said You can open your eyes now Sara cried tears of joy and said That's my name Her father chimed in and said I named the boat after you because when you were born it was the happiest day of your mom and I lives Sara gave her dad a hug and thanked him Her father said Why don't we take it for a spin Sara said That would be so cool I can only be gone for an hour because I promised my friends I would go with them on our spring break Her father replied That's fine I know you're excited about going on this trip and there will always be more trips on the boat in the days to come Remember I was young once too and I could not wait to go on spring break with my friends so no big deal Sara's father hooked up the boat to his truck and the two drove happily to the dock and set sail in the ocean on a clear beautiful sunny day Even though Sara's father read the stories about the Bermuda Triangle he just thought they were all explainable and not mysterious disappearances as were written about in many books

Retrospective Alice Maria Dougan, Margaret Furlong, 1966 Digest, 1917 The British Cinema Book Robert

Murphy, 2019-07-25 The new edition of The British Cinema Book has been thoroughly revised and updated to provide a comprehensive introduction to the major periods, genres, studios, film makers and debates in British cinema from the 1890s to the present. The book has five sections addressing debates and controversies: industry, genre and representation, British cinema 1895-1939, British cinema from World War II to the 1970s, and contemporary British cinema. Within these sections, leading scholars and critics address a wide range of issues and topics, including British cinema as a national cinema, its complex relationship with Hollywood, film censorship, key British genres such as horror, comedy and costume film, the work of directors including Alfred Hitchcock, Anthony Asquith, Alexander Mackendrick, Michael Powell, Lindsay Anderson, Ken Russell and Mike Leigh, studios such as Gainsborough, Ealing, Rank and Gaumont, and recent signs of hope for the British film industry such as the rebirth of the low budget British horror picture and the emergence of a British Asian cinema. Discussions are illustrated with case studies of key films, many of which are new to this edition, including Piccadilly (1929), It Always Rains on Sunday (1947), The Ladykillers (1955), This Sporting Life (1963), The Devils (1971), Withnail and I (1986), Bend It Like Beckham (2002) and Control (2007), and with over 100 images from the BFI's collection. The Editor, Robert Murphy, is Professor in Film Studies at De Montfort University and has written and edited a number of books on British cinema, including British Cinema and the Second World War (2000) and Directors in British and Irish Cinema (2006).
