titling the work Impressions of Kaunas he wanted to record all his impressions of this small city about which he actually knew very little. He started with negative impressions but he soon came to like it. He watched its growth with considerable sympathy. The diary's appeal lies in its picture of daily life in Kaunas as the provisional capital of a newly independent small state, the conditions of life in the city, the social life of the diplomats and backstage episodes in the life of the foreign diplomats. The diary records some unusual details about the family of Antanas Smetona, the ruler of Lithuania from 1926 to 1940, and it abounds in interesting commentary on the attitudes of both Lithuanians and foreigners. Alfred Erich Senn, the editor of the diary, is emeritus professor of history at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in the USA as well as Visiting Professor at Vytautas Magnus University in Kaunas, Lithuania. He has written extensively on the history of Lithuania in the twentieth century. His father, Alfred Senn, was professor of Lithuanian language at the University of Lithuania in Kaunas at the time Heingartner was working there.

Lily is determined to stop the catastrophe and she'll call on all her new friends to do it, from a boy who talks with birds to a woman who speaks with the dead and the enigmatic Lord Strangford whose ability to see into the darkest corners of Lily's soul threatens to tear their relationship apart. Together they're pulled into a web of lies that winds from the gutters of Limehouse to the champagne-soaked ballrooms of Saint John's Wood, where rumors of a mysterious white snake lead Lily to a choice that could cost her everything.
