The Housekeeper's Tale Tessa Boase, 2014-05-19 Working as a housekeeper was one of the most prestigious jobs a nineteenth and early twentieth century woman could want and also one of the toughest A far cry from the Downton Abbey fiction the real life Mrs Hughes was up against capricious mistresses low pay no job security and gruelling physical labour Until now her story has never been told The Housekeeper's Tale reveals the personal sacrifices bitter disputes and driving ambition that shaped these women's careers Delving into secret diaries unpublished letters and the neglected service archives of our stately homes Tessa Boase tells the extraordinary stories of five working women who ran some of Britain's most prominent households There is Dorothy Doar Regency housekeeper for the obscenely wealthy 1st Duke and Duchess of Sutherland at Trentham Hall Staffordshire There is Sarah Wells a deaf and elderly Victorian in charge of Uppark West Sussex Ellen Penketh is Edwardian cook housekeeper at the sociable but impecunious Erddig Hall in the Welsh borders Hannah Mackenzie runs Wrest Park in Bedfordshire Britain's first country house war hospital bankrolled by playwright J M Barrie And there is Grace Higgins cook housekeeper to the Bloomsbury set at Charleston farmhouse in East Sussex for half a century an era defined by the Second World War Revelatory gripping and unexpectedly poignant The Housekeeper's Tale champions the invisible women who ran the English country house
