The Huge Hunter:

The Huge Hunter: The Steam Man of the Prairies Edward Sylvester Ellis, 2020-09-28 There was good cause for these exclamations upon the part of the Yankee and Irishman as they stood on the margin of Wolf Ravine and gazed off over the prairie Several miles to the north something like a gigantic man could be seen approaching apparently at a rapid gait for a few seconds when it slackened its speed until it scarcely moved Occasionally it changed its course so that it went nearly at right angles At such times its colossal proportions were brought out in full relief looking like some Titan as it took its giant strides over the prairie The distance was too great to scrutinize the phenomenon closely but they could see that a black volume of smoke issued either from its mouth or the top of its head while it was drawing behind it a sort of carriage in which a single man was seated who appeared to control the movements of the extraordinary being in front of him No wonder that something like superstitious have filled the breasts of the two men who had ceased hunting for gold for a few minutes to view the singular apparition for such a thing had scarcely been dreamed of at that day by the most imaginative philosophers much less had it ever entered the head of these two men on the western prairies Begorrah but it s the ould divil hitched to his throttin waging wid his ould wife howlding the reins exclaimed Mickey who had scarcely removed his eyes from the singular object That there critter in the wagon is a man said Hopkins looking as intently in the same direction It seems to me he added a moment later that there s somebody else a sit ting alongside of him either a dog or a boy Wal naow ain t that queer Begorrah begorrah do ye hear that What shall we do At that instant a shriek like that of some agonized giant came home to them across the plains and both looked around as if about to flee in terror but the curiosity of the Yankee restrained him His practical eye saw that whatever it might be it was a human contrivance and there could be nothing supernatural about it

The Huge Hunter Edward S. Ellis, 2014-10-14 The Huge Hunter by Edward S Ellis The Huge Hunter Edward S. Ellis, 2005 The Huge Hunter Edward Sylvester Ellis, 2015-04-26 The Huge Hunter from Edward Sylvester Ellis American author 1840 1916 The Huge Hunter Edward S Ellis, 2016-10-14 The Huge Hunter by Edward S Ellis A book you would love to read An insight of the book There was good cause for these exclamations upon the part of the Yankee and Irishman as they stood on the margin of Wolf Ravine and gazed off over the prairie Several miles to the north something like a gigantic man could be seen approaching apparently at a rapid gait for a few seconds when it slackened its speed until it scarcely moved Occasionally it changed its course so that it went nearly at right angles At such times its colossal proportions were brought out in full relief looking like some Titan as it took its giant strides over the prairie The Huge Hunter; Or, The Steam Man of the Prairies Edward Sylvester Ellis, 2022-09-15 In The Huge Hunter Or The Steam Man of the Prairies Edward Sylvester Ellis invites readers into an exhilarating blend of adventure and science fiction Set against the vast backdrop of the American frontier the narrative follows the exploits of a steam powered mechanical man showcasing Ellis s inventive approach to storytelling through vivid imagery and engaging dialogue This work emerged during the late 19th century a period marked by rapid industrialization and burgeoning technology thus reflecting the cultural fascination with progress and the mechanization of life while cleverly intertwining themes of exploration and survival in the untamed wilderness

Edward Sylvester Ellis a prolific author and educator was deeply influenced by the American spirit of adventure and the technological advancements of his time His extensive background in teaching and his exposure to the young readers of the era particularly boys interested in tales of daring quests shaped his narrative style and thematic choices Ellis s fascination with innovation is evident in his creation of the steam man a compelling symbol of the era s ambitions and anxieties about progress and its implications for humanity The Huge Hunter stands as a significant contribution to early American science fiction literature appealing to both enthusiasts of adventure tales and those fascinated by technological evolution Ellis s engaging prose and imaginative premise not only entertain but also provoke thoughtful reflections on the intersection of humanity and machinery making it a must read for lovers of speculative fiction and frontier narratives The Huge Hunter
