Slow Walks In Amsterdam:

Slow Walks in Amsterdam Michael Leitch, 1990 Slow Walks in Amsterdam Michael Leitch, Amsterdam André van Os, 1997 The Internet editor for the Netherlands Programme Service has compiled annotated entries on primarily English language works dealing with Amsterdam's history geography economy politics demographics and sociocultural aspects of daily living e.g. customs education literature the media religion including Jewish life and sports Includes a map of this cosmopolitan village and useful addresses Indexed by author title and subject Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Walking as Embodied Research Christian Ernten, Nick Shepherd, 2024-09-30 In recent years walking has emerged as a methodological tool and as a conceptually exciting point of departure across a range of disciplines and practices This volume explores walking as a form of embodied research practice that offers fresh perspectives on key contemporary debates and areas of interest These include the climate emergency and the debate around the Anthropocene decolonial thinking and the struggle for social justice feminist and queer walking methodologies and the notion of the infraordinary and practices of everyday life Contributions to this volume are by scholars artists and practitioners drawn from a wide range of disciplines and fields and from across the Global South and North An overarching theme of the volume is the manner in which the act of walking brings the body into presence as a material part of the research process and the forms of attentiveness that this encourages Another theme is the intimate connection between the act of walking and the act of writing As familiar landscapes change under the weight of Anthropogenic environmental change walking becomes an act of witnessing and a spur to action Rather than being a singular activity walking itself is understood as a socially economically and politically constructed and contested act This volume will serve as a source of inspiration to readers from across the arts humanities and social sciences who are interested in walking methodologies and in new and sustainable research practices

Walking as Artistic Practice Ellen Mueller, 2023-10-01 Walking as Artistic Practice lays out foundational information about the history of walking and its development as an artistic practice making it accessible to readers of all backgrounds It also provides guidance on how to analyze and discuss walking artworks with vocabulary support over three hundred examples and over seventy five exercises The chapters offer a variety of topical approaches allowing readers and instructors to craft an experience most suited to their interests and needs Themes include observational and sensory experience leading versus following who walks where identity and positionality rituals place activism connections to drawing and embodiment Appendices include information on documentation sample syllabi readings and resources brainstorming tips community engagement guidance and tips for travel based study Instructors will appreciate this text because it has so many resources to direct students to when they have questions about analysis history community engagement or documentation approaches It is the type of book that students will hang onto long after the course is done because it is so practical and useful Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Walk of Ages Jim

Reisler,2015-02-01 On his seventieth birthday in 1909 a slim man with a shock of white hair a walrus mustache and a spring in his step faced west from Park Row in Manhattan and started walking By the time Edward Payson Weston was finished he was in San Francisco having trekked 3 895 miles in 104 days Weston s first epic walk across America transcended sport He was everyman in a stirring battle against the elements and exhaustion tramping along at the pace of someone decades younger Having long been America s greatest pedestrian he was attempting the most ambitious and physically taxing walk of his career He walked most of the way alone when the car that he hired to follow him kept breaking down and he often had to rest without adequate food or shelter That Weston made it is one of the truly great but forgotten sports feats of all time Thanks in large part to his daily dispatches of his travails from blizzards to intense heat rutted roads bad shoes and illness Weston s trek became a wonder of the ages and attracted international headlines to the sport called pedestrianism Aided by long buried archival information colorful biographical details and Weston s diary entries Walk of Ages is more than a book about a man going for a walk It is an epic tale of beating the odds and a penetrating look at a vanished time in America
