The Smithsonian Institution Smithsonian Institution,1879 Explorations and Field-work of the Smithsonian Institution in 1917 Smithsonian Institution,1918 The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects Richard Kurin,2013-10-29

The Smithsonian Institution is America s largest most important and most beloved repository for the objects that define our common heritage Now Under Secretary for Art History and Culture Richard Kurin aided by a team of top Smithsonian curators and scholars has assembled a literary exhibition of 101 objects from across the Smithsonian s museums that together offer a marvelous new perspective on the history of the United States Ranging from the earliest years of the pre Columbian continent to the digital age and from the American Revolution to Vietnam each entry pairs the fascinating history surrounding each object with the story of its creation or discovery and the place it has come to occupy in our national memory Kurin sheds remarkable new light on objects we think we know well from Lincoln s hat to Dorothy s ruby slippers and Julia Child's kitchen including the often astonishing tales of how each made its way into the collections of the Smithsonian. Other objects will be eye-opening new discoveries for many but no less evocative of the most poignant and important moments of the American experience. Some objects such as Harriet Tubman's hymnal, Sitting Bull's ledger, Cesar Chavez's union jacket and the Enola Gay bomber tell difficult stories from the nation's history and inspire controversies when exhibited at the Smithsonian. Others from George Washington's sword to the space shuttle Discovery celebrate the richness and vitality of the American spirit. In Kurin's hands each object comes to vivid life providing a tactile connection to American history. Beautifully designed and illustrated with color photographs throughout, The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects is a rich and fascinating journey through America's collective memory and a beautiful object in its own right.
