Snows Gone By New Uncollected Poems1964:

Snows Gone by James Koller,2004 from the Author s Note When I put a book of new poems together I go through the poems to determine whether their direction is consistent Those that are out of line are left behind The poems collected in Snows Gone By were written over a thirty eight year period from 1964 2002 The older poems have in common the fact that they were left out of earlier books They were I thought then inconsistent with what was going on in my life or work in those periods Collected here I realize the poems together probably give a better idea of my total work than any of my other books have they present a life work that has been what it s been with little need for consistency The Francois Villon ballad that provided the title to this book from his Greater Testament is immediately preceded by lines that speak of the agonies of age death The ballad asks what has become of many famed beautiful women already gone in Villon s time each stanza ends with the refrain the answer to his question asking where the snows of yesterday have gone As Bill Brown once said I knew he was dead but I had to keep telling him the story I had to keep talking to him The Writers Directory ,2013 Hearing Things Angela Leighton,2018-05-07 Drawing on the writings of critics and philosophers and on the comments of poets and novelists who have pointed to the role of the ear in writing and reading Angela Leighton offers a reconsideration of literature as an exercise in hearing things and renews a call for criticism that is creatively attentive to sound s work in every literary text whole of Bishop's work this book opens a welcome new direction in Bishop studies specifically and in the study of women poets generally Ezra Pound and the Appropriation of Chinese Poetry Ming Xie, 2015-12-22 This book focuses on the relations between the translation and appropriation of classical Chinese poetry by Ezra Pound and some of his contemporaries and the development of Anglo American Imagist poetry and poetics It is concerned as much with critical aspects of this correlative relationship as with the question of historical influence and ascription The author places the early work of Ezra Pound in the context of works of Chinese translation by other contemporary poet translators such as Arthur Waley and Amy Lowell and examines the whole notion of an ideogrammic poetry as advocated by Ernest Fenollosa and Ezra Pound against an appropriately reconstructed historical and critical context of poetic theory and practice Closely linked to this is a discussion of Pound's use of personae and modulation of the elegiac in relation to the immediately preceding context of late Victorian elegiac lyricism and Brownianesque dramatic monologue Through a series of close readings of translations from the Chinese especially those by Pound the author shows how the critical problem of what is involved in translating a Chinese poem into a new English poem is closely linked to the particulars of early Modernist literary history In particular through tracing the trajectory of a number of central issues and notions such as absolute free floating metaphor metaphor as epiphanic image and its relation to syntax metaphor and parallelism experiments with rhythm and cadence the book explores some of the reasons for Fenollosa's and Pound's emphasis on the visual image the notion of phanopoeia and ideogrammic verbal action as the active perceiving of relations and closely examines the genesis and significance of Pound's ideogrammic method as well as the question of cultural misreading and vicarious envisagement and provides a critical overview of Pound's general engagement with translation Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, Nicole Christian, 1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company American Book Publishing Record, 2003

Jewess Pallas Athena Barbara Hahn, 2021-06-08 The Jewess Pallas Athena a line from a poem by Paul Celan It is a provocative phrase cutting across cultures and traditions But it poses questions How to reconstruct a culture that has been destroyed How to conceive of history after the catastrophes of the twentieth century This book begins in the mid eighteenth century with the first Jewish women to raise their voices in German It ends two hundred years later with another group of Jewish women looking back at a country from which they had been expelled and to which they would never want to return Among the many prominent female intellectuals and literary figures Barbara Hahn discusses are Hannah Arendt Gertrud Kantorowicz Rosa Luxemburg Else Lasker Sch ler Margarete Susman and Rahel Levin Varnhagen In examining their writing she reflects upon the question of how German culture was constructed with its inherent patterns of exclusion This is a book about hope and despair possibilities and preventions We see attempts at dialogue between Christians and Jews men and women Germans and Jews attempts initiated by these women that for the most part remained unanswered Finally the book reconstructs the changing notions of the Jewess a key word in modern German history with its connotations of salons beauty and esprit And yet a word that is also disastrous in which there culminated everything the dominant culture condemned as dangerous Reference Guide to American Literature Thomas Riggs, 2000 Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of American writers thinkers and cultural figures written by subject experts Philip Larkin J.
