So Close Hélène Cixous, 2009 In So Close the internationally renowned writer Hélène Cixous recounts a return to her native Algeria after a more than thirty year absence Before she can decide to go she must sift through large parts of her past in a land where she never felt at home and from a young age knew she must leave Above all she must confront the depths of her mother's rejection of the country that had rejected her despite years of devotion to the poor women of Algiers As she is struggling with this decision she receives a message from Zohra Drif with whom she has had no contact since their school days which was just before Zohra joined the Algerian FLN and become a heroine in the uprising against French rule in her homeland They meet in Paris for the first time in more than fifty years and soon afterward the narrator departs for Algiers The latter part of the narrative brings a rush of sensations impressions memories and new encounters as the narrator revisits sites from her past in Algiers and especially in Oran the city of her birth the city of the family's happiness before her father's death when she was a young girl The quest to find his grave again in the overgrown Jewish cemetery of Algiers leads to a startlingly moving scene that closes the voyage and the book

Shot Through The Heart Linda Porter, 2008-07 Linda Porter the author of Angels Beings of Light has returned along with her merry band of angels known as Us This time the tale is so mystical so seemingly mythological that you would swear it is a fictional account But it is not It is a story about finding the Light in unexpected places and in unexpected faces a chronicle of one woman's journey further into the Light than she could ever have imagined When describing her unusual journey Linda says I believe that God creates the path that is best suited to each of us I acknowledge that God frequently has to take me off the beaten path and even though I don't always understand the ways of others I try to honor them Who am I to disagree Join her as she chronicles her ongoing spiritual journey with entries as varied as Wrestling with Angels Speaking from the Heart Vampires as a Path to God The Light Moving Beyond the Pain The Dalai Lama and more Most are accompanied with angelic commentaries of course This story could not have been written without them You might want to fasten your seat belt The angels have promised a wild ride but a safe and loving journey Enjoy Indulge Learn Cover design by Matt Porter For more information please email info@mathewporter.info
