analysis includes case studies from the Eastern part of Germany Chemnitz Leipzig Poland d Kielce Katowice conurbation and peripheral urban centres from Eastern Poland Slovakia Bratislava Nitra the Czech Republic Olomouc Brno and from Hungary P cs The analysed urban areas have undergone far reaching political and socio economic changes in the last 30 years These changes began with the collapse of communism and the centrally planned economy system in the region of Central Europe The beginning of this period often referred to as post socialist transformation dates back to 1989 The consequence of the aforementioned political processes was the multifaceted socio economic and demographic changes that significantly affected urban areas in Central Europe This book presents an attempt to summarize the main long term processes of changes taking place in these urban areas and to identify contemporary and future trends in their socio economic development The book will be valuable to undergraduate and postgraduate students in human geography urban studies economy and city marketing especially with an interest in Central Europe Applied Geography Antoine Bailly,Lay James Gibson,2004-08-13 Applied Geography A World Perspective reviews progress in applied geography in different regions of the world It does this through the eyes of an international panel of highly regarded academic practitioners The book offers new prospects on the use of established approaches and explores exciting new territories Together the contributors provide a comprehensive picture of applied geography today This book is of relevance to faculty and graduate students in the fields of geography planning public policy regional science and other related social and behavioural sciences Budapest, Istanbul, and Warsaw Tuna Taşan-Kok,2004 Urban Inequality and Segregation in Europe and China Gwilym Pryce,Ya Ping Wang,Yu Chen,Jingjing Shan,Houkai Wei,2021-11-16 This open access book explores new research directions in social inequality and urban segregation With the goal of fostering an ongoing dialogue between scholars in Europe and China it brings together an impressive team of international researchers to shed light on the entwined processes of inequality and segregation and the implications for urban development Through a rich collection of empirical studies at the city regional and national levels the book explores the impact of migration on cities the related problems of social and spatial segregation and the ramifications for policy reform While the literature on both segregation and inequality has traditionally been dominated by European and North American studies there is growing interest in these issues in the Chinese context Economic liberalization rapid industrial restructuring the enormous growth of cities and internal migration have all reshaped the country profoundly What have we learned from the European and North American experience of segregation and inequality and what insights can be gleaned to inform the burgeoning interest in these issues in the Chinese context How is China different both in terms of the nature and the consequences of segregation inequality and what are the implications for future research and policy Given the continued rise of China s significance in the world and its recent declaration of war on poverty this book offers a timely contribution to scholarship identifying the core insights to be learned from existing research and providing important guidance on future directions for policy makers and researchers The re-emergence of co-housing in Europe Lidewij

Tummers,2017-10-02 Across Europe the number of co housing initiatives is growing and they are increasingly receiving attention from administrators and professionals who hold high expectations for urban liveability Is co housing a marginal idealist phenomenon or the urban middle class answer to the current housing crisis And has the development of theoretical insight and research kept up with the actual expansion of co housing as a practice These questions were raised during the first European conference on co housing research which took place in Tours France in March 2012 Both the conference and this book aim to move beyond case studies and to look more particularly at the implications and wider perspective of the current co housing trend Using the specific vocabulary of different disciplines and geographic regions the contributions to this book analyse the underlying thinking behind and the expectations projected on diverse models of collaborative housing The authors are aware of the qualities of contemporary co housing but they go beyond advocacy to investigate the conditions under which co housing can be successful as a strategy for housing provision can offer solutions for sustainable urban development or indeed can contribute to involuntary or intentional gentrification This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Urban Research and Practice Socio-Economic Segregation in European Capital Cities Tiit Tammaru, Maarten van Ham, Szymon Marcińczak, Sako Musterd, 2015-07-24 Growing inequalities in Europe are a major challenge threatening the sustainability of urban communities and the competitiveness of European cities While the levels of socio economic segregation in European cities are still modest compared to some parts of the world the poor are increasingly concentrating spatially within capital cities across Europe An overlooked area of research this book offers a systematic and representative account of the spatial dimension of rising inequalities in Europe This book provides rigorous comparative evidence on socio economic segregation from 13 European cities Cities include Amsterdam Athens Budapest London Milan Madrid Oslo Prague Riga Stockholm Tallinn Vienna and Vilnius Comparing 2001 and 2011 this multi factor approach links segregation to four underlying universal structural factors social inequalities global city status welfare regimes and housing systems Hypothetical segregation levels derived from those factors are compared to actual segregation levels in all cities Each chapter provides an in depth and context sensitive discussion of the unique features shaping inequalities and segregation in the case study cities The main conclusion of the book is that the spatial gap between the poor and the rich is widening in capital cities across Europe which threatens to harm the social stability of European cities This book will be a key reference on increasing segregation and will provide valuable insights to students researchers and policy makers who are interested in the spatial dimension of social inequality in European cities Chapters 1 and 15 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 3.0 license Development of the Settlement Network in the Central European Countries Tamás Csapó, András Balogh, 2011-10-08 This volume intends to summarize the most important changes in the Central European countries and their settlement network emphasizing the last 20 years since the collapse of the Iron Curtain

Residential Segregation in Comparative Perspective Kuniko Fujita, 2016-04-08 We know very little about variations in urban class and ethnic segregation among nations and even less about differences among cities in different regions of the world Spatial organization places and neighbourhoods matters significantly in some cities in reproducing class relations and ethno racial hierarchies but may be much less important in others The degree and the impact of segregation depend upon contextual diversity By emphasizing the importance of contextual diversity in the study of urban residential segregation the book questions currently popular urban theories such as global city neoliberal urbanism and gentrification These theories tend to dissociate cities from their national and regional context and thus ignore their history culture politics and institutions The aim of this book is to introduce the significantly different urban experiences in social and spatial segregation patterns and rationales which exist among the world's regions and to demonstrate that urban theory needs to draw systematically upon this wide range of experiences The cities selected Athens Beijing Budapest Copenhagen Hong Kong Madrid Paris São Paulo Taipei and Tokyo were chosen in order to achieve geographical spread to maximise the diversity of types of socioeconomic regulation This volume is thus able to avoid the interpretative limitations and misconstructions resulting from universalizing the Anglo American experience

Residential Change and Demographic Challenge Annett Steinführer, Sigrun Kabisch, Katrin Grossmann, 2016-04-08 Going beyond the assumption that East Central European cities are still in transition this book draws on the postsocialism paradigm to ask new questions about the impact of demographic change on residential developments in this region Focussing on four second order cities in this region it examines Gdansk and Łódź in Poland and Brno and Ostrava in the Czech Republic as examples and deals with the nexus between urban development and demographic change for the context of East Central European cities It provides a framework for linking urban and demographic research It discusses how residential areas and urban developments cope with changes in population development household types and different forms of in and out migration and goes on to explore parallels and differences in comparison with broader European patterns This book will be useful to academics of urban planning and development especially in transition areas Central and Eastern European studies demographics and population studies and sociology social exclusion

The Routledge Handbook to Regional Development in Central and Eastern Europe Gábor Lux, Gyula Horváth, 2017-07-06 Twenty five years into transformation Central and Eastern European regions have undergone substantial socio economic restructuring integrating into European and global networks and producing new patterns of regional differentiation and development Yet post socialist modernisation has not been without its contradictions manifesting in increasing social and territorial inequalities Recent studies also suggest there are apparent limits to post socialist growth models accompanying a new set of challenges within an increasingly uncertain world Aiming to deliver a new synthesis of regional development issues at the crossroads between post socialism and post transition this book identifies the main driving forces of spatial restructuring in Central and Eastern Europe and charts the different regional development paths which take shape against the backdrop of post crisis Europe A comparative approach is used to highlight common development challenges and the underlying patterns of socio economic differentiation alike The issues investigated within the Handbook extend to a discussion of the varied economic consequences of transition the social structures and institutional systems which underpin development processes and the broadly understood sustainability of Central and Eastern Europe s current development model This book will be of interest to academics and policymakers working in the fields of regional studies economic geography development studies and policy

Employment Deconcentration in European Metropolitan Areas Eran Razin, Martin Dijst, Carmen Vázquez, 2007-09-06 European metropolitan areas have experienced a marked reorganization associated with the processes of globalization and the European integration of economic activities on various spatial scales Much of this change is particularly evident at the edge of central cities further away at suburban locations and on the fringes of expanding metropolitan areas These spatial processes of urban expansion sprawling development and employment deconcentration present constant challenges to urban quality of life raising concerns about excessive consumption of land and energy traffic congestion and so forth These concerns prompt the formulation of public policies at various levels of government European Union agencies national and sub national public authorities The challenges posed by the spatial reorganization of economic activities within European metropolitan areas and their implications for the quality of life inspired the research project sponsored by the European Commission 5th Framework entitled Spatial Deconcentration of Economic Land Use and Quality of Life in European Metropolitan Areas SELMA The primary goal of SELMA was to design urban planning and management strategies to ensure the maintenance of the quality of life in European metropolitan areas To this end three broad activities were defined The first focused on the identification and analysis of the driving forces and dynamics behind the process of economic land use deconcentration in metropolitan areas An analysis of the impacts of these processes on urban quality of life formed the heart of the second activity

reflect over half a century of socialism and are marked by the Marxists vision of a utopian landscape Architecture urban planning and the visual arts were considered to be powerful means of expressing the people s power However since the velvet revolutions of 1989 this urban scenery has been radically transformed by new forces and trends infused by the free market democracy and liberalization This has led to landscape cleansing and recycling as these former communist nations used new architectural functional and social forms to transform their urbanscapes their meanings and uses Comparing case studies from different post socialist cities this book examines the culturally conditional variations between local powers and structures despite the similarities in the general processes and systems It considers the contemporary cultural landscapes of these post socialist cities as a dynamic fusion of the old communist forms and new free market meanings features and democratic practices of global influences and local icons The book assesses whether these urbanscapes clearly reflect the social cultural and political conditions and aspirations of these transitional countries and so a critical analysis of them provides important insights

Twin Cities John Garrard,Ekaterina Mikhailova,2018-10-03 This dynamic international collection provides a comprehensive overview of twin cities on administrative and international borders across the world Drawing on contemporary and historical examples it documents constant and changing features of twinned communities over time The chapters explore a variety of urban formations including independent cities located side by side cities that have merged over decades or even centuries and those projected to merge cities partitioned by treaties and cities duplicated in pursuit of better security intensified trade or both between neighbouring countries From Europe to Africa North America to the Middle East South America to Asia this book focuses on relationships between cities citizens and municipal international borders A cartographical contents and editorial commentary guide readers through diverse contributions The authors ask how far cities are changing or remaining constant in the context of conurbanisation Europeanisation and globalization The book provides a glimpse into the variety of roles twin cities can play globally from laboratories of integration and para diplomatic actors to economic and cultural brokers This is a valuable engaging resource for researchers in the fields of geography urban studies border studies international relations and global development It will be of great use to individuals involved in twin city initiatives and general readers

German Annual of Spatial Research and Policy 2009 Heiderose Kilper,2009-09-18 Preface Introduction 1 Heiderose Kilper New Disparities in Spatial Development in Europe several topics are included in both the title and theme of the German Annual of Spatial Research and Policy for the Year 2009 We are first of all concerned with the concept of spatial disparities which has its roots in national spatial planning and spatial development policy Regional development as interregional equalisation policy for example is well anchored in the German constitution through fundamental legal standards and the division of powers among the respective federal states The establishment of uniform living conditions within the federal territory and securing the uniformity of living conditions beyond the borders of any single federal state Section 72 Paragraph 2 of German Basic Law GG are expressly specified as aims of government action in the constitution of the Federal Republic of Germany With the major reform of Germany's financial system in 1969 and incorporation of the joint task Improvement 1 of the Regional Economic Structure in Section 91a of German Basic Law GG interventions on the part of the federal government and the wealthy federal states for the benefit of states and regions with less economic success were legitimised in constitutional terms as well All of this would be inconceivable without the concept of spatial disparities Europe Since 1980 Ivan T.
