Screening the Male Steve Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2012-09-10 Screening the male re examines the problematic status of masculinity both in Hollywood cinema and feminist film theory Classical Hollywood cinema has been theoretically established as a vast pleasure machine manufacturing an idealized viewer through its phallogocentric ideological apparatus Feminist criticism has shown how difficult it is for the female viewer to resist becoming implicated in this representational system But the theories have overlooked the significance of the problem itself of the masculine motivation at the core of the system The essays here explore those male characters spectators and performers who occupy positions conventionally encoded as feminine in Hollywood narrative and questions just how secure that orthodox male position is Screening the Male brings together an impressive group of both established and emerging scholars from Britain the United States and Australia unified by a concern with issues that film theorists have exclusively linked to the feminine and not the masculine spectacle masochism passivity masquerade and most of all the body as it signifies gendered racial class and generational differences Steel and Lace Adriane Leigh, 2013-04-22 From the moment their eyes locked across a crowded room he recognized something in her that he needed Something that was impossible to resist Enigmatic and sexy Carter Morgan is a wealthy CEO and playboy who keeps a model on his arm and the walls around his heart high His dangerous good looks and seductive charm gets him whatever he wants whenever he wants it That is until he meets Eva When smart and spirited fashion editor Evangeline Austin encounters Carter Morgan sparks fly and worlds collide Her every instinct tells her to run yet she can't deny the overwhelming effect he has on her They embark on a passionate affair that threatens to consume them They try to defy the odds by making their own rules and surrendering completely to the exquisite power of their passion but when unforeseen forces threaten to tear them apart Carter and Eva must decide if the moments of exquisite perfection are worth the intense pain The bestselling erotic romance series from Adriane Leigh is now available in one volume Consular Reports, 1908 Le Follet, 1863 Report Upon the Commercial Relations of the United States with Foreign Countries United States.
