Step-daughters of England Jane Garrity, 2003 By reading the work of the British modernists Dorothy Richardson Sylvia Townsend Warner Mary Butts and Virginia Woolf through the lens of material culture this text argues that women's imaginative work is inseparable from their ambivalent complicated relation to Britain's imperial history Material Spirituality in Modernist Women's Writing Elizabeth Anderson, 2020-03-19 For Virginia Woolf H D Mary Butts and Gwendolyn Brooks things mobilise creativity traverse domestic public and rural spaces and stage the interaction between the sublime and the mundane Ordinary things are rendered extraordinary by their spiritual or emotional significance and yet their very ordinariness remains part of their value This book addresses the intersection of spirituality things and places both natural and built environments in the work of these four women modernists From the living pebbles in Mary Butts's memoir to the pencil sought in Woolf's urban pilgrimage in Street Haunting the Christmas decorations crafted by children in H D's autobiographical novel The Gift and Maud Martha's love of dandelions in Brooks's only novel things indicate spiritual concerns in these writers' work Elizabeth Anderson contributes to current debates around materiality vitalism and post secularism attending to both mainstream and heterodox spiritual expressions and connections between the two in modernism How we value our spaces and our world being one of the most pressing contemporary ethical and ecological concerns this volume contributes to the debate by arguing that a change in our attitude towards the environment will not come from a theory of renunciation but through attachment to and regard for material things A Companion to Virginia Woolf Jessica Berman, 2019-04-15 A Companion to Virginia Woolf is a thorough examination of her life work and multiple contexts in 33 essays written by leading scholars in the field Contains insightful and provocative new scholarship and sketches out new directions for future research Approaches Woolf's writing from a variety of perspectives and disciplines including modernism post colonialism queer theory animal studies digital humanities and the law Explores the multiple trajectories Woolf's work travels around the world from the Bloomsbury Group and the Hogarth Press to India and Latin America Situates Woolf studies at the vanguard of contemporary literature scholarship and the new modernist studies The Oxford Encyclopedia of British Literature David Scott Kastan, 2006-03-03 From folk ballads to film scripts this new five volume encyclopedia covers the entire history of British literature from the seventh century to the present focusing on the writers and the major texts of what are now the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland In five hundred substantial essays written by major scholars the Encyclopedia of British Literature includes biographies of nearly four hundred individual authors and a hundred topical essays with detailed analyses of particular themes movements genres and institutions whose impact upon the writing or the reading of literature was significant An ideal companion to The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature this set will prove invaluable for students scholars and general readers For more information including a complete table of contents and list of contributors please visit www.oup.com/us/ebL British Boarding Houses in Interwar

Women's Literature Terri Mullholland, 2016-10-04 Embraced for the dramatic opportunities afforded by a house full of strangers the British boarding house emerged as a setting for novels published during the interwar period by a diverse range of women writers from Stella Gibbons to Virginia Woolf To use the single room in the boarding house or bedsit Terri Mullholland argues is to foreground a particular experience While the single room represents the freedoms of independent living available to women in the early twentieth century it also marks the precariousness of unmarried women's lives By placing their characters in this transient space women writers could explore women's changing social roles and complex experiences amateur prostitution lesbian relationships extra marital affairs and abortion outside traditional domestic narrative concerns Mullholland presents new readings of works by canonical and non canonical writers including Stella Gibbons Winifred Holtby Storm Jameson Rosamond Lehmann Dorothy Richardson Jean Rhys and Virginia Woolf A hybrid of the modernist and realist domestic fiction written and read by women the literature of the single room merges modernism's interest in interior psychological states with the realism of precisely documented exterior spaces offering a new mode of engagement with the two forms of interiority

A Space of Their Own Katie Baker, Naomi Walker, 2023-03-31 This collection explores how nineteenth and twentieth century women writers incorporated the idea of place into their writing Whether writing from a specific location or focusing upon a particular geographical or imaginary place women writers working between 1850 and 1950 valued a space of their own in which to work The period on which this collection focuses straddles two main areas of study nineteenth century writing and early twentieth century modernist writing so it enables discussion of how ideas of space progressed alongside changes in styles of writing It looks to the many ways women writers explored concepts of space and place and how they expressed these through their writings for example how they interpreted both urban and rural landscapes and how they presented domestic spaces A Space of Their Own will be of interest to those studying Victorian literature and modernist works as it covers a period of immense change for women's rights in society It is also not limited to just one type or definition of space Therefore it may also be of interest to academics outside of literature for example in gender studies cultural geography place writing and digital humanities

Durée as Einstein-in-the-Heart Candice Lee

Kent,2024-03-29 Dur e as Einstein in the Heart traces the trajectory of modernist interaction with Bergson and Einstein through the works of Virginia Woolf 1882 1941 and Mary Butts 1890 1937 It presents an overview of critical approaches that focus on time in Woolf s novels and that foreground Bergson in their analyses of Woolf It then examines how Woolf s formal experimentation and theorisation of time in Jacob s Room 1922 and Mrs Dalloway 1925 relates to Bergson s temporal theories This is followed by a discussion on the role Bergson s thinking played in the early formulation of Butts s ideas of time and an analysis of how Bergson s ideas emerge in the short story Angele au Couvent 1923 concluding by highlighting points of contrast in the engagements of Woolf and Butts The book then documents the growth of Butts s interest in Einstein s ideas and shows how she amalgamates these with Bergson s thinking in her journals and in the most intense of her fictional engagement with Einstein s ideas the novel Death of Felicity Taverner 1932 It discusses Butts s responses to the popular science genre and examines the important role played by J W N Sullivan and Arthur Eddington in the development of her understanding and interpretation of physics It concludes with a discussion of Butts s antisemitic characterisation of Kralin as purveyor of corrupted science in contrast with the Taverners who are conscious of dur e and delight in the abstractions of scientific truth intersection of feminism and reconstruction Chapters range between Butts s writing techniques and forms her position in the modernist canon contested sites of feminism in her work critical reception of that work queer and post critical readings and the success of and the need for a feminist recovery of the author The collection aims to be a feminist engagement while asking questions of what this might look like why it is needed and how such an approach offers fresh insight into an erudite playful difficult contradictory and experimental body of work Ultimately the collection asks how should we reconstruct the author and her work for the contemporary reader      Unbelief in Interwar Literary Culture Suzanne Hobson,2022
