Stepping Into The Ring:

Stepping into the Ring Nicole Johnson, 2011-10-17 Using the story of her breast cancer diagnosis Nicole Johnson offers her readers insights for dealing with major losses of all kinds while extending genuine hope to those stuck in despair Finding out I had cancer was like going to sleep in my own bed and suddenly waking up in the middle of a boxing ring Out of the clear blue I am standing toe to toe with the Heavyweight Champion of the World the crowd is looking on and I am in my pajamas and don't even know how to throw a punch Stepping into the Ring is the 2002 Women of Faith drama sketch by Nicole Johnson possibly her most powerful piece of writing to date Women have always had a unique fellowship of suffering Nicole says Where is the woman old or young who will not shed a tear and silently scream in her heart as she walks in these pages through the diagnosis of breast cancer and the devastation that ensues This is a must read for breast cancer patients and their loved ones

Stepping Into the Ring Nicole Johnson, 2008-10-01 Johnson hasn't had cancer but she has experienced it through the countless women whose courageous stories are the basis for this dramatization of one woman's struggle with the formidable disease Walk with this character this everywoman through the denial the anger and despair Share her pain as she faces friendly fire from well meaning acquaintances offering bumper sticker inspiration Feel the deep injustice as she confronts the loss of a breast and what feels like the loss of her womanhood Then finally experience the strength and grace she discovers as she embraces Hope As we see her take it on the chin and being hit below the belt we cheer as this strong woman prevails in the toughest fight the fight for her spirit Illus Compact size

The Mask of Masculinity Lewis Howes, 2017-10-31 This is one of the most important topics today that seemingly no one is talking about how men can take care of their emotional health in a 21st century that demands it Crucial reading for any young or struggling man Mark Manson 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Subtle Art of Not Giving a F ck At 30 years old Lewis Howes was outwardly thriving but unfulfilled inside He was a successful athlete and businessman achieving goals beyond his wildest dreams but he felt empty angry frustrated and always chasing something that was never enough His whole identity had been built on misguided beliefs about what masculinity was Howes began a personal journey to find inner peace and to uncover the many masks that men young and old wear In The Mask of Masculinity Howes exposes The ultimate emptiness of the Material Mask the man who chases wealth above all things The cowering vulnerability that hides behind the Joker and Stoic Masks of men who never show real emotion and The destructiveness of the Invincible and Aggressive Masks worn by men who take insane risks or can never back down from a fight He teaches men how to break through the walls that hold them back and shows women how they can better understand the men in their lives It's not easy but if you want to love be loved and live a great life then it's an odyssey of self discovery that all modern men must make This book is a must read for every man and for every woman who loves a man

One Step in a Poppy Field Bronwyn

Royce, 2025-08-05 A deeply moving and profoundly important account not only of one soldier's survival but of optimism courage of a dogged determination to succeed whatever it takes and of the enduring power of love between a mother and her son. The lessons for us all in this book are immeasurably powerful. It offers hope to the many whose lives have been changed forever directly or indirectly be that as a result of war or through accident. I am so very grateful to have read it. Major General David Rutherford Jones CB. This is an astonishing true story that no work of fiction could ever match. A brave soldier is blown up by the Taliban losing both legs part of his left hand and his lungs are crushed. There is seemingly no hope of survival. Except that death hadn't reckoned on the fortitude and resilience of Cayle Royce underpinned by the all embracing love and dedication of his remarkable mother Bronwyn. The book is told by both of them and might be the most moving and joyous account of determination against all odds you will ever read. A triumph of the Human Spirit. Alan Frame. Author. A story of fortitude and courage from the perspective of both a mother and son. From the depths of despair of a near death experience through to an amazing recovery with a row across the Atlantic as skipper of an all amputee crew of ex servicemen four guys with three legs between them. Brigadier Chris Dick CBE. Thousands of miles away from where her son was deployed a powerful premonition is devastatingly confirmed by a knock on the door from two faceless strangers bearing the news that her son had stepped on an improvised explosive device in the poppy fields of Afghanistan. He had lost both of his legs and suffered multiple other injuries including partial amputation of all the fingers of his left hand. For 48 days she stood at his bedside praying and willing him to pull through. Not only did he survive against all odds but in time he began to test the limits of his new capabilities and undertook the first of what would prove to be many physical challenges. Just 18 months after injury and as part of a team of four servicemen he rowed across the Atlantic Ocean for the first time Told mostly from a mother's perspective with contributions from Cayle the genesis of the book was in the diary she kept while he was in a medically induced coma It is the story of an extraordinarily brave man who has been through the agonies of rebuilding his life with the encouragement of family and friends This was never meant to be another book about war or Afghanistan it is a message of how love and hope can overcome adversity If even just one reader takes inspiration from this story then mission accomplished
