Edward Brennan, 2019-01-25 This book explores the question of how society has changed with the introduction of private screens Taking the history of television in Ireland as a case study due to its position at the intersection of British and American media influences this work argues that internationally the transnational nature of television has been obscured by a reliance on institutional historical sources This has in turn muted the diversity of audience experiences in terms of class gender and geography By shifting the focus away from the default national lens and instead turning to audience memories as a key source A Post Nationalist History of Television in Ireland defies the notion of a homogenous national television experience and embraces the diverse and transnational nature of watching television Turning to people's memories of past media this study ultimately suggests that the arrival of the television in Ireland and elsewhere was part of a long term incremental change where the domestic and the intimate became increasingly fused with the global Good Night and Good Riddance David Cavanagh, 2015-09-29 Goodnight and Good Riddance How Thirty Five Years of John Peel Helped to Shape Modern Britain is a social history a diary of a nation's changing culture and an in depth appraisal of one of our greatest broadcasters a man who can legitimately be called the most influential figure in post war British popular music Without the support of John Peel it's unlikely that innumerable artists from David Bowie to Dizzee Rascal Jethro Tull to Joy Division would have received national radio exposure But Peel's influence goes much deeper than this Whether he was championing punk reggae jungle or grime he had a unique relationship with his audience that was part taste maker part trusted friend The book focuses on some 300 shows between 1967 and 2004 giving a thorough overview of Peel's broadcasting career and placing it in its cultural and social contexts Peel comes alive for the reader as do the key developments that kept him at the cutting edge the changes in his tastes the changes in his thinking Just like a Peel show Goodnight and Good Riddance is warm informative and insightful and wears its enthusiasm proudly Harry H. Corbett: The Front Legs of the Cow Susannah Corbett, 2011-11-30 Harry H Corbett rose from the slums of Manchester to become one of the best known television stars of the 20th century Having left home as a 17 year old Royal Marine during the Second World War he fought in the North Atlantic and the jungles of the Pacific and witnessed first hand the devastation wrought by the Hiroshima bomb On his return home he wandered into the local theatre company and landed a starring role The Front Legs of the Cow Soon becoming a leading light in Joan Littlewood's Theatre Workshop and a widely respected classical stage actor his life was changed forever by the television comedy Steptoe and Son Overnight he became a household name as the series drew unparalleled viewing figures of over 28 million with fans ranging from the working classes to the Royal Family Naturally shy and a committed socialist fame and fortune didn't sit easily on his shoulders and for the next twenty years until his untimely death at the age of only 57 he had to learn how to be Arold Written by his daughter Susannah Corbett an actor herself this is the first biography of Harry H Corbett the man who was once described as being the English Marlon Brando The Secrets to Writing Great Comedy Lesley Bown, 2011-04-29 The Secrets to Writing Great Comedy will show you how to unlock your inner anarchist and write fantastic comedy using a combination of practical exercises and creative inspiration Whatever your preferred genre from sitcom to sketch show you will find guidance on everything from wordplay and visual humour to plots characters and different styles There is even detailed coverage of how to submit copyright and most importantly get your work noticed Report of cases determined by the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia ,1909 Current Biography Yearbook ,1973 The A to Z of African-American Television Kathleen Fearn-Banks,2009-08-04 From Amos n Andy to The Jeffersons to Family Matters to Chappelle s Show this volume covers it all with entries on all different genres animation documentaries sitcoms sports talk shows and variety shows and performers such as Muhammad Ali Louis Armstrong Bill Cosby and Oprah Winfrey Additionally information can be found on general issues ranging from African American audiences and stereotypes through the related networks and organizations This book has hundreds of cross referenced entries from A to Z in the dictionary and a list of acronyms with their corresponding definitions The extensive chronology shows who did what and when and the introduction traces the often difficult circumstances African American performers faced compared to the more satisfactory present situation Finally the bibliography is useful to those readers who want to know more about specific topics or persons
