Joyce dramatists Brian Friel, Conor McPherson and Tom Murphy and prize winning contemporary fiction writers such as Edna O'Brien, Joseph O'Connor, William Trevor, Roddy Doyle and Colum McCann. Each chapter focuses on one significant representative piece of contemporary Irish fiction or drama by filling in its cultural, historical and literary background. Hallissy identifies a key theme or key event in the Irish past essential to understanding the work. She then analyzes earlier literary compositions with the same theme and through a close reading of the contemporary work provides context for that background. The chapters are organized chronologically by relevant historical events with thematic discussions interspersed. Background pieces were chosen for their places in Irish literature and the additional insight they provide into the featured works.

A History of Irish Theatre 1601-2000 Chris Morash, 2002. Chris Morash's widely praised account of Irish Theatre traces an often forgotten history leading up to the Irish Literary Revival. He then follows that history to the present by creating a remarkably clear picture of the cultural contexts which produced the playwrights who have been responsible for making Irish theatre's world wide historical and contemporary reputation. The main chapters are each followed by shorter chapters focusing on a single night at the theatre. This prize winning book is an essential, entertaining and highly original guide to the history and performance of Irish theatre.

Irish Theater in America John P. Harrington, 2009-02-28. For over 150 years Irish playwrights beginning with Dion Boucicault have been celebrated by American audiences. However, Irish theater as represented on the American stage is a selective version of the national drama and the underlying causes for Irish dramatic success in America illuminate the cultural state of both countries at specific historical moments. Irish Theater in America is the first book devoted entirely to the long history of this transatlantic exchange. Born out of the conference of the Irish Theatrical Diaspora project, this collection gathers together leading American and Irish scholars in addition to established theater critics. Contributors explore the history of Irish theater in America from Harrigan and Hart through some of the greatest and most disappointing Irish tours of America to the most contemporary productions of senior Irish playwrights such as Brian Friel and younger writers such as Martin McDonagh and Conor McPherson. Covering the complexity of the relationship between Irish theater and the United States, this volume goes beyond the expected analysis of plays to include examinations of company dynamics, analysis of audience reception and reviews of production history of individual works. Contents include Mick Moloney, Harrigan and Hart and Braham; Irish America and the Birth of the American Musical; Nicholas Grene, Faith Healer in New York and Dublin; Lucy McDiarmid, The Abbey; Its Helpers and The Field of Cultural Production in 1913; Christina Hunt Mahony, The Irish Play Beyond the Generic.

The New York Times Theater Reviews 1997-1998 Times Books, 2014-10-13. From the musical hits Lion King and Bring In da Noise, Bring In da Funk to important new off-Broadway plays such as Beauty Queen of Leenane and Wit, the latest volume in this popular series features a chronological collection of facsimiles of every theater review and awards article published in the New York Times between January 1997 and December 1998. Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous more neglected contemporary British Irish US Canadian and German writers Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies Janet Freud Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists the articles examine the narrative strategies structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non foundational non cognitive discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature trauma studies and literary theory
