As such this book has two audiences in mind first those men and women professionally transitioning from their military commitments to the civilian sector and second civilians who want to learn more about the many benefits former military professionals can offer private organizations. Utilizing the innovative information shared within these pages you will soon discover traits you did not know you possessed. In so doing you will uncover the secret to having a successful military transition and a rewarding civilian career. You are encouraged to measure your progress however remember that snagging an interview is not the only barometer of a successful plan. Being offered a job for your preferred position at your desired salary with your ideal company will be the ultimate reward for persistence and your ability to stay focused and self directed.
