Modest_Witness@Second_Millennium. FemaleMan_Meets_OncoMouse Donna J. Haraway,Thyrza Goodeve,2018-06-27 One of the founders of the posthumanities Donna J Haraway is professor in the History of Consciousness program at the University of California Santa Cruz Author of many books and widely read essays including the now classic essay The Cyborg Manifesto she received the J D Bernal Prize in 2000 a lifetime achievement award from the Society for Social Studies in Science Thyrza Nicholas Goodeve is a professor of Art History at the School of Visual Arts The Active Catholic Gabriel Palau,1984-06 Written as Christ speaking to His disciples who engage in the active life Short powerful one sentence messages Profound inspiring sobering and insightful Truly unusual and great Menstruation and Procreation in Early Modern France Cathy McClive,2016-03-03 Early modern bodies particularly menstruating and pregnant bodies were not stable signifiers Menstruation and Procreation in Early Modern France presents the first full length discussion of menstruation and its uncertain connections with embodied sex gender and reproduction in early modern France Attitudes to menstruation are explored in three inter linked arenas medicine moral theology and law across the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries Drawing on a wide range of diverse sources including court records and private documents the author uses case studies to explore the relationship between the exceptional corporeality of individuals and attempts to construct menstrual norms reflecting on how early modern individuals lay or otherwise grappled with the enigma of menstruation She analyzes how early modern men and women accounted for the function recurrence and appearance of menstruation from its role in maintaining health to the link between other physiological and bodily processes including those found in both male and female bodies She questions the assumption that menstruation was exclusively associated with women by the second half of the eighteenth century arguing that whilst sex related menstruation was not sex specific even at the turn of the nineteenth century. Menstruation remains a contentious topic today. This book is not therefore simply a study of periods in early modern France but is also of necessity an exploration about the nature and constitution of historical evidence particularly bodily evidence and how historians use this evidence. It raises important questions about the concept of certainty and about the value of observation testimony expertise the nature of language and the construction of bodily truths about the body as witness and the body as evidence.

Isis Unveiled (Vol.1&2) Helena Blavatsky, 2023-12-03 In Isis Unveiled Helena Blavatsky presents a comprehensive examination of the mystical and esoteric traditions that underpin both Western and Eastern spiritual thought. Written in a dense yet poetic style the text is heavily intertextual drawing on a variety of sources from ancient texts to contemporary philosophical discourses. Blavatsky challenges the materialistic orthodoxy of her time and advocates for the perennial wisdom found in theosophy asserting a deep interconnection between science and spirituality. The dual volumes function as both a critique of contemporary religion and an invitation to explore a more universal spiritual understanding employing rich allegory and intricate symbolism to present her arguments compellingly. Helena Blavatsky a prominent figure in the 19th century occult revival co founded the Theosophical Society and was instrumental in reintroducing Eastern philosophies to the Western world. Her own eclectic background spanning Russia Europe and the Far East along with her dedication to exploring and synthesizing different spiritual traditions greatly informed her philosophical outlook and writings. In Isis Unveiled Blavatsky articulates her vision of a unified spiritual framework revealing her keen insights into metaphysics and spiritual truths. This seminal work is essential reading for those interested in the intersections of spirituality philosophy and science as well as for scholars studying the development of esoteric thought. Blavatsky's profound reflections encourage readers to question the limits of conventional knowledge and to seek a deeper more holistic understanding of existence. Isis Unveiled promises to be both intellectually stimulating and spiritually enriching for anyone drawn to the complexities of human thought and the mysteries of the universe.

The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman, 1889

There Are No Accidents Robert H. Hopcke, 1998-07-01 A woman is set up on a blind date with the same man twice years apart on two different coasts. A singer's career changes direction when she walks into the wrong audition. A husband gives his wife an unexpected gift after she repeatedly dreams about that very same item. It was Carl Jung who coined the term synchronicity for those strange coincidences when events seem to conspire to tell us something to teach us to turn our lives around. They are the strange plot developments that make us feel like characters in a grand mysterious story. How do we identify these coincidences as something special? How do we recognize their significance and use them as turning points toward a more meaningful life story? In There Are No Accidents Jungian psychotherapist Robert Hopcke explores the nature of the human consciousness and the role of synchronicity teaching us to examine our own stories and tap into its power to strengthen our work love and spiritual lives.

The SAGE Handbook of the Philosophy of Social Sciences Ian C Jarvie, Jesus

Zamora-Bonilla, 2011-02-17 what is the relationship between the social sciences and the natural sciences where do today's dominant approaches to doing social science come from what are the main fissures and debates in contemporary social scientific thought how are we to make sense of seemingly contrasting approaches to how social scientists find out about the world and justify their claims to have knowledge of it In this exciting handbook Ian Jarvie and Jesús Zamora Bonilla have put together a wide ranging and authoritative overview of the main philosophical currents and traditions at work in the social sciences today Starting with the history of social scientific thought this handbook sets out to explore that core fundamentals of social science practice from issues of ontology and epistemology to issues of practical method Along the way it investigates such notions as paradigm empiricism postmodernism naturalism language agency power culture and causality Bringing together in one volume leading authorities in the field from around the world this book will be a must have for any serious scholar or student of the social sciences
