Will, 2022 Still Life Before Still Life David Ekserdjian, 2018 A beautiful book that argues artists were fascinated by still life painting considerably earlier than previously thought This eloquent and generously illustrated book asserts that artists were fascinated by and extremely skilled at still life significantly earlier than previously thought Instead of the genre beginning in the early 17th century noted scholar David Ekserdjian explores its origins in classical antiquity and the gradual re emergence of still life in Renaissance painting The author presents a visual anthology of finely executed flowers fruit food household objects and furnishings seen in the background of paintings Paintings are reproduced in full and paired with detailed close ups of still life elements within the work Ekserdjian further examines both the artistic and symbolic significance of a chosen detail as well as information about each artist s career Featured works include radiant paintings from Renaissance greats such as Da Vinci D rer Holbein Michelangelo Raphael and Van Eyck as well as the work of less celebrated masters Barth lemy d Eyck and Ortolano The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne

Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public s ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently The History of Art A. N. Hodge, 2016-07-15 From the glories of the High Renaissance in Italy to the emotional visions of the Romantics and from the groundbreaking techniques of the Impressionists to the radical canvases of the Abstract Expressionists this book provides a fascinating look at the major movements in the history of Western painting A clear chronological structure allows the reader to see each movement in its historical context and to appreciate the patterns that emerge The historical framework shows the extent to which the powers of royalty religion and revolution have exerted their influence in the artistic sphere Inhospitable World Jennifer Fay,2018-03-01 While standard ecological criticism attends to the environmental crisis as an unraveling of our natural state this book looks to films and media theory to consider how they reflect upon the creation and destruction of artificial human environments What are the implications of ecological inhospitality And what role might cinema and media theory play in challenging our presumed right to occupy and populate the world As an art form cinema enjoys a unique relationship to the material elemental world it captures and produces Through it we may appreciate the ambitions to design an unhomely planet that may no longer accommodate us The Complete Drawing & Painting Course Parramon,2003 Overflowing with full color images that demonstrate techniques and illustrate the correct use of materials this is an art school in a book A team of experienced professionals furnishes the budding painter with all the tools to finish a project invaluable instruction in color theory and composition the basics of drawing and painting from strokes to perspective and meticulous coverage of each medium from pencil to wax crayon Detailed exercises cover still lifes nudes landscapes self portraits impressionist techniques and more The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon,2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies The History of Evil in the Early Modern Age Daniel Robinson,2018-06-14 The third volume of The History of Evil encompasses the early modern era from 1450 1700 This revolutionary period exhibited immense change in both secular knowledge and sacred understanding It saw the fall of Constantinople and the rise of religious violence the burning of witches and the drowning of Anabaptists the ill treatment of indigenous peoples from Africa to the Americas the reframing of formal authorities in religion philosophy and science and it produced profound reflection on good and evil in the genius of Shakespeare Milton Bacon Teresa of Avila and the Cambridge Platonists This superb treatment of the history of evil during a formative period of the early modern era will appeal to those with interests in philosophy theology social and political history and the history of ideas Dynamic Form Cara L.

Lewis, 2020-07-15 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950. Considering literature alongside painting, sculpture, photography, and film, Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative, movement, contribute to plot events, and configure poetry and memoir. As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another, and back again, modernism shows its obsession with form, and even at times becomes a formalism itself. But as Lewis writes, that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for. Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter, nor can we consign it to ignominy, opposite historicism, or political commitment. As a structure or scheme that enables action, form in modernism can be plastic, protean, or even fragile, and works by Henry James, Virginia Woolf, Mina Loy, Evelyn Waugh, and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form's operations. Revising three major formal paradigms: spatial form, pure form, and formlessness, and recasting the history of modernist form, this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category, as a kind of doing. Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies, and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media.

Dynamic Still Life for Artists, Sarah Sedwick, 2022-11-15 Dynamic Still Life for Artists takes a modern approach to a classic genre of drawing and painting, a gateway genre that's accessible to beginners and offers more experienced artists a way to show their skill at depicting a variety of light and surface effects.

A History of Artists' Film and Video in Britain, David Curtis, 2019-07-25 In recent years, the use of film and video by British artists has come to widespread public attention. Jeremy Deller, Douglas Gordon, Steve McQueen, and Gillian Wearing all won the Turner Prize in 2004, 1996, 1999, and 1997 respectively for work made on video. This fin de siècle explosion of activity represents the culmination of a long history of work by less well-known artists and experimental film makers. Ever since the invention of film in the 1890s, artists have been attracted to the possibilities of working with moving images, whether in pursuit of visual poetry, the exploration of the art form's technical challenges, the hope of political impact, or the desire to reinvigorate such time-honoured subjects as portraiture and landscape. Their work represents an alternative history to that of commercial cinema in Britain, a tradition that has been only intermittently written about until now. This major new book is the first comprehensive history of artists' film and video in Britain. Structured in two parts, Institutions and Artists and Movements, it considers the work of some 300 artists, including Kenneth Macpherson, Basil Wright, Len Lye, Humphrey Jennings, Margaret Tait, Jeff Keen, Carolee Schneemann, Yoko Ono, Malcolm Le Grice, Peter Gidal, William Raban, Chris Welsby, David Hall, Tamara Krikorian, Sally Potter, Guy Sherwin, Lis Rhodes, Derek Jarman, David Lauder, Steve Dwoskin, James Scott, Peter Wollen, and Laura Mulvey, Peter Greenaway, Patrick Keiller, John Smith, Andrew Stones, Jaki Irvine, Tracy Emin, Dryden Goodwin, and Stephanie Smith, and Ed Stewart. Written by the leading authority in the field, A History of Artists' Film and Video in Britain 1897-2004 brings to light the range and diversity of British artists' work in these mediums, as well as the artist-run organisations that have supported the art form's development In so doing it greatly enlarges the scope of any understanding of British cinema and demonstrates the crucial importance of the moving image to British art history Dutch Art Sheila D. Muller,2013-07-04 An illustrated feast for the eye and intellect Dutch Art explores developments in art art history art criticism and cultural history of the Netherlands from the artists workshops for the Utrecht Dom in 1475 to the latest movements of the 1990s it is lavishly illustrated with 147 black and white photographs and 16 pages in full color More than 100 internationally recognized scholars museum professionals artists and art critics contributed signed essays to this monumental work including historians sociologists and literary historians Year Book ,1929 A Concise History Of American Painting And Sculpture Matthew Baigell,2018-02-23 This clear thorough and reliable survey of American painting and sculpture from colonial times to the present day covers all the major artists and their works outlines the social and cultural backgrounds of each period and includes 409 illustrations integrated with the text Although some determining factors in American art are considered Matthew Baigell views the rich and diverse achievements of American art as the result of the efforts and talents of a pluralistic society rather than as fitting into a particular mold This edition includes corrections and revisions to the text an updated bibliography and 13 new illustrations Wanley Penson; Or, the Melancholy Man: a Miscellaneous History, in Three Volumes. ... Robert Sadler,1792 A hand-book of the history of the Spanish and French schools of painting, intended as a sequel to 'Kugler's Hand-books of the Italian, German and Dutch schools of painting'. sir Edmund Walker Head (8th bart.),1848 The Netherlands: A History Derek B. Lange,2018-07-27 Here in this stirring vivid book historian Derek B Lange uses The Hague as the focal point for a sweeping panoramic history of the Netherlands One seventeenth century visitor called The Hague the mightiest village in Europe an epithet that could still be used today to describe this seat of Dutch government and home to its royal family That same visitor also called it one of the most beautiful villages in Europe no less correct for the same circumstances that rendered The Hague mighty despite its size also rendered the Netherlands wealthy The Netherlands owed its vast riches to the sea and it used that wealth not only to attain power but also to attract artistic talent As the country came to be a leader on the world stage the so called Golden Age of the Netherlands encouraged the production of art and architecture of remarkable allure that is still on display today The history and people of this small country are explored through its rise to international prominence and then its development into one of the most tolerant and progressive countries in the world
