Gerds,Patricia Trenton,2003-11-10 Presenting interpreting and celebrating the world renowned and the lesser known California artists who have uniquely defined and redefined the still life this volume offers an exploration of the sensual pleasures the aesthetic challenges and the intellectual and perceptual associations of a century of art through the prism of a single genre BOOK JACKET The Life and Work of Martin Johnson Heade Theodore E. Stebbins,Janet L. Comey,Martin Johnson Heade,Karen E. Quinn,2000-01-01 Martin Johnson Heade was one of the most significant American painters of the nineteenth century creator of portraits history and genre pictures still lifes ornithological studies landscapes and marines and his own unique orchid and hummingbird compositions This book brings a perspective to Heade and his works presenting him as one of the most original and productive painters of his time Theodore Stebbins builds on his acclaimed 1975 study of Heade drawing on several newly discovered collections of Heade s letters and the painter s own Brazilian journal Stebbins tells of Heade s training and early career as an itinerant portraitist and discusses his move to New York where under the influence of Frederic E Church he began painting landscapes and seascapes He examines Heade s relationships with patrons and dealers writers and scientists and he sheds new light on Heade s trips to Brazil to the Central American tropics and to London And he describes Heade s move to Florida in 1883 which marked not his retirement but a final period of creativity that lasted until his death in 1904 The book includes not only an examination of Heade s life and works but also reproductions of all his 620 known paintings including nearly 250 that have been discovered since 1975

American Art Annual ,1923 Impressionism John I. Clancy,2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet C zanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history s most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes

John Moore John Moore, 2009 Industrial landscape paintings by John Moore executed over the last three decades focus on sites from Conneaut Ohio to Waterville Maine including Coatesville Pennsylvania a locale that has inspired such American Modernists as Charles Demuth and Ralston Crawford Moore has revisited places in Coatesville and throughout the rustbelt that he painted twenty years ago and his most recent paintings depict changes that have occurred there since One of his subjects Paradise Pennsylvania 13 miles west of Coatesville is Amish farmland a place that is the rural antithesis of industrial life in America Moore is often described as one of the one of the leading realist painters of his generation and many of his paintings resemble places where he grew up While the images appear immediately recognizable the paintings are in fact partial composites based on specific sites but also incorporating formal concerns and oral history as told by individuals with ties to the regions The Thirteen Miles from Paradise catalogue is drawn from the exhibition of the same name at the Arthur Ross Gallery of the University of Pennsylvania where Moore has been Gutman Professor of Fine Arts and chair of the Department of Fine Arts since 1999 The catalogue includes contributions by Alexi Worth a senior critic in the Department of Fine Arts at the University of Pennsylvania and by Debra Bricker Balken an independent curator and writer
