Still Point-Life Notes from a Kentucky Woman Sarah Cornett-Hagen,2010-04-16 Life Notes From a Kentucky Woman A Coal Camp first in a series of Life Notes books by Sarah Cornett Hagen a native of Letcher County Kentucky This story details the beginnings of a mountain woman a coal miner s daughter reared in the hills of eastern Kentucky It takes you deep into the heart of coal mining country to a town called Haymond and the ways and times of the people who lived there shortly before World War 2 The story carries you through Sarah s coming of age years in the early fifties and beyond as the author shares with you how she became a woman who knows Mountain roots run deep and tendrils of these roots are wrapped gently around her heart forever

The Third Way Louis M. Houston,2013 In this day and age people are challenged by an information rich environment that is filled with erratic and inconsistent concepts Added to the pre existing struggle to adhere to societal and physical laws we must struggle to control our own physical emotional and intellectual systems By projecting the basic structure of physics into a psychological framework we model disorganized behavior as a product of entropy or disorder As heat energy is highly entropic we propose that the exclusion of heat energy from our intellectual system reduces the intrinsic entropy in our thinking and promotes mental harmony We refer to this method as the third way Along with the exclusion of heat it includes a balance between positive and negative mental energy that is fundamentally related to meaning and abstraction This produces a still point and from the equilibrium of this still point emerges a positive overtone that we refer to as meta positivity The third way is so named in reference to the first way and the the second way Essentially the first way produces control of the physical system The second way produces control of the emotional system and the third way produces control of the intellectual system

Stillpoint Patricia Campbell Kowal,2005-10 The Heart of WATSU® Ingrid Keating,Harold Dull,2023-04-21 The first practitioner guide to clinical applications of WATSU this book combines research therapeutic assessments and practice models to show how to integrate a range of techniques for working with clients with PTSD chronic pain and neuromuscular disorders

String City Graham Edwards,2019-03-05 The Universe is made of string When the knots tighten the Cosmos quakes It s a tough job being a gumshoe in an interdimensional city full of gods living concepts and weirder things Good thing I m a stringwalker able to jump between realities It started when I was hired to investigate an explosion at a casino A simple heist I thought but it turned into a race to stop the apocalypse So I rolled the dice and now I m up against the ancient Greek Titans an interdimensional spider god and a mysterious creature known as the Fool I m going to need more than just luck to solve this one If I fail all things in all realities could be destroyed Just another day in String City

They Call Me Trusty Dudley C. Bynoe,2025-07-29 They Call Me Trusty A Black Firefighter s Fight for Social Justice is the compelling memoir of Dudley Trusty Bynoe a San Jose firefighter who dedicated his career to challenging the institutional racism entrenched in the fire service Faced with systemic barriers Trusty took unorthodox actions to force fire chiefs to confront inequities for Black firefighters other firefighters of color and women who served the city and the diverse communities that relied on them In his own voice Trusty shares the importance of strategy having a plan reading opponents understanding their weaknesses and fearlessly attacking injustice from multiple angles He mastered the rules and laws using them as weapons in the fight for equity Though some saw him as an angry Black man he was in truth a relentless advocate for fairness This memoir chronicles Trusty's victories and sacrifices and reveals his deep disappointments particularly the lack of generational reciprocity from Black firefighters who benefited from his work His story is one of resilience defiance and an unyielding commitment to justice offering an unfiltered look at the cost of change and the legacy of a man who refused to back down

Closure Hilary Lawson, 2005-07-05 For over 2000 years our culture has believed in the possibility of a single true account of the world Now this age is coming to a close As a result there is a deep unease We are lost both as individuals and as a culture In the new relativistic post modern era we have no history no right or moral action and no body of knowledge In their place is a plethora of alternative and sometimes incompatible theories from fuzzy logic to consilience proposing a theory of everything Closure is a response to this crisis It is a radically new story about the nature of ourselves and of the world Closure exposes the central questions of contemporary philosophy language and meaning of the individual and identity of truth and reality but it is also philosophical in the broader everyday sense that it enables us to make sense of where and who we are A central principle the process of closure is shown to be at the heart of experience and language As a theory of knowledge it has dramatic consequences for our understanding of the sciences involving a reinterpretation of what science does and how it is able to do it It similarly proposes a profound shift in the role of art and religion But above all it reshapes our understanding of ourselves and the organisation of society our goals and our capacity to achieve them A superb new account of how order is created out of disorder Closure is an exhilarating work of conceptual geography

Rewriting/Reprising Georges Letissier, 2009-10-02 This volume comprises sixteen essays preceded by an introductory chapter focusing on the diverse modalities of textual and more widely artistic transfer Whereas the first Rewriting Reprising volume coord by C Maisonnat J Paccaud Huguet its subversive potential is perceptible notably through its many attempts at emancipating the genre from the ideological fetters of gender Over the past two decades Victorian literature and culture has become an inescapable field of investigations to any study on intertextuality in the English speaking world In a second part diversity has been preferred to any single specific angle to approach the Victorian neo Victorian tropism The purpose is to provide as complete a spectrum as is reasonably possible in such a volume The practice of rewriting in the Victorian age is thus studied alongside contemporary appropriations of the Victorian canon The question is raised of whether literary fetishism may not result in a form of counterfeit classicism while the more challenging neo Victorian rewritings would make a claim for the need to choose one's literary heritage and ancestors This is where the post colonial agenda comes in Precisely the third part investigates the question of rewriting reprising as a way of writing back The myth of Frankenstein's creature bent on wreaking vengeance on his creator is of course seminal as it offers a myth of transgression which in its turn becomes a foundation myth Not only are post colonial responses to their disclaimed parent texts highly theory informed but they also evince an awareness of such contemporary issues which are direct consequences of the colonial past In the last section of this volume the scope of what comes within the range of intertextuality per se is widened to cover artistic dialogism In the exchanges between theatrical texts reprise may be construed as a metaphor standing for the pleasure inherent in the process of recreation The interaction between embedded paintings and the embedding canvas offers yet another variation on the reprise motif as does the meta aesthetic discourse of the critic on the work of art What begins as mere repetition is soon colored by the personal inflections of the interpreter In operatic performances updating a classical text to make it suitable to contemporary audiences and in close harmony with the role assigned to music is liable to spur on the creativity of recreation

Choreographing Problems Bojana Cvejic, 2016-04-29 This book illuminates the relationship between philosophy and experimental choreographic practice today in the works of leading European choreographers A discussion of key issues in contemporary performance from the viewpoint of Deleuze Spinoza and Bergson is accompanied by intricate analyses of seven groundbreaking dance performances

The Late Voice Richard Elliott, 2015-10-22 Popular music artists as performers in the public eye offer a privileged site for the witnessing and analysis of ageing and its mediation The Late Voice undertakes such an analysis by considering issues of time memory innocence and experience in modern Anglophone popular song and the use by singers and songwriters of a late voice Lateness here refers to five primary issues chronology the stage in an artist's career the vocal act the ability to convincingly portray experience afterlife posthumous careers made possible by recorded sound retrospection how voices look back or anticipate looking back and the writing of age experience lateness and loss into song texts There has been recent growth in research on ageing and the experience of later stages of life focusing on physical health lifestyle and psychology with work in the latter field intersecting with the field of memory studies The Late Voice seeks to connect age experience and lateness with particular performers and performance traditions via the identification and analysis of a late voice in singers and songwriters of mid late twentieth century popular music

The Poems of T. S. Eliot, Volume I T. S. Eliot, 2018-12-04 The first volume of the first paperback edition of The Poems of T S Eliot This two volume critical edition of T S Eliot's poems establishes a new text of the Collected Poems 1909 1962 rectifying accidental omissions and errors that have crept in during the century since Eliot's astonishing debut The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock. In addition to the masterpieces The Poems of T S Eliot contains the poems of Eliot's youth which were rediscovered only decades later, poems that circulated privately during his lifetime and love poems from his final years written for his wife Valerie. Calling upon Eliot's critical writings as well as his drafts, letters and other original materials, Christopher Ricks and Jim McCue have provided a commentary that illuminates the imaginative life of each poem. This first volume respects Eliot's decisions by opening with his Collected Poems 1909-1962 as he arranged and issued it shortly before his death. This is followed by poems uncollected but either written for or suitable for publication and by a new reading text of the drafts of The Waste Land. The second volume opens with the two books of verse of other kinds that Eliot issued: Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats and Anabasis, his translation of St John Perse's Anabase. Each of these sections is accompanied by its own commentary. Finally, pertaining to the entire edition, there is a comprehensive textual history that contains not only variants from all known drafts and the many printings but also extended passages amounting to hundreds of lines of compelling verse.

Presence Activism Lynne Sedgmore, 2024-08-30 In this book, author Lynne Sedgmore integrates presence, climate activism and the alleviation of climate anxiety in an innovative and unique synthesis and new term, Presence Activism. By offering a profound solution with new perspectives, Presence Activism: A Profound Antidote to Climate Anxiety is steeped in a presence that moves activism beyond metaphors of war, enemies and destruction, as well as the illusion of separation into the visceral knowing of presence and interconnection, thereby making presence an important part of the way forward for current and future activism. Presence Activism: A Profound Antidote to Climate Anxiety introduces new processes of the Presence Flower and the Anxiety Flower to solve the anxiety issues we face and to develop and expand our own personal internal coping mechanisms, responses and capacities. This book is a compendium of different perspectives and experiences of presence as well as a powerful conceptual and thoughtful analysis of the fields of presence, climate anxiety and climate peril.

Religion, Neuroscience and the Self Patrick McNamara, 2019-12-23 The purpose of this book is to use neuroscience discoveries concerning religious experiences, the Self and personhood to deepen, enhance and interrogate the theological and philosophical set of ideas known as Personalism. McNamara proposes a new eschatological form of personalism that is consistent with current neuroscience models of relevant brain functions concerning the self and personhood and that can meet the catastrophic challenges of the 21st century. Eschatological Personalism, rooted in the philosophical tradition of Boston Personalism, takes as its starting point the personalist claim that the significance of a self and personality is not fully revealed until it has reached its endpoint, but theologically, that end point can only occur within the eschatological realm. That realm is explored in the book along with implications for personalist theory and ethics. Topics covered include the agent, intellect, dreams and the imagination, future orientation and eschatology, phenomenology of Time, social ethics, Love, the challenge of AI, privacy and solitude and the individual ethic of autarchy. This book is an innovative combination of the neuroscientific and theological insights provided by a Personalist viewpoint As such it will be of great interest to scholars of Cognitive Science Theology Religious Studies and the philosophy of the mind American Modernism (Re)Considered Robert C. Hauhart, Jeff Birkenstein, 2025-08-07 What exactly is modernism and who are modernist writers What distinguishes American modernism from its European counterpart American Modernism Re Considered questions the principal distinction between modernism and other genres movements styles in literature through new critical readings of canonical modernist texts alongside texts which pose a problem for modernism due to their ambiguous if not marginal relation to some of its predominant tenets It asks Is modernism characterized principally by a transition from older forms like naturalism and realism to a style that is new innovative and experimental Is it found in shared understandings and alignments regarding the nature and purpose of art Is it identifiable by modernists treatment of various central themes including as a reaction to modernity as a response to the Boer and World wars as an interrogation of Britain s empire and its dissolution and how these events fragmented modern life Or is it all of the above Contributors discuss a wide range of texts by authors such as Nella Larsen Willa Cather Charlotte Perkins Gilman Anne Carson Wallace Stevens Am rico Paredes Richard Wright Ernest Hemingway and T S Eliot to challenge the aesthetic social and temporal boundaries of modernism in America Through original close readings of these texts American Modernism Re Considered subjects modernism to new interrogations and offers new answers to questions that remain contemporary even as they harken back to its height of popularity and interest in the mid 1920s
