Through intimate conversations with journalist Jonathan Sale, some of Britain's leading personalities reminisce about their school and college days, revealing the portents, paths, and false starts that led them to where they are today. With poignant and hilarious anecdotes spanning everything from those very first days at school to receiving their dreaded O level, A level, and degree results, this book is brimming with recollections that every reader can associate with. Tributes are paid to the teachers who opened doors, whilst others tell tales on those who slammed them in their faces. And all credit to the teachers who were truly prophetic about their pupils. These personalities may be reticent with regard to their adult personal lives, but speak candidly about their childhoods, revealing fascinating insights into the role their formative years played in shaping them to become the people they are today. Telling Tales Out of School Christine Clack Lusk, 2000-07-20

In a life wrapped up in greed, ignorance, revenge, love, and deceit, the author takes you on a thrilling and exciting journey of various Kenyan characters who all board an express bus to Mombasa, the country's coast. Meet Mumbi, an eleven-year-old girl whose father, a Mungiki sect religious fanatic, wants to forcibly circumcise her, then marry her off to a sect member. Her seat mate is Sr Maria, the selfless nun who is determined to save the girl and who confronts the thugs that hijack the bus, but later has to plead for their lives when her fellow passengers vow to lynch them. Chege, the naive son of a remarkably poor polygamist, gets a second opportunity in life when he is sponsored to go to college, but in the bus, he meets Ndugu Musa, Brother Moses, a reformed jailbird who is eager to befriend him. After he learns that the over-trusting villager carries his college fees in cash, Kanini, a pregnant rebellious teenager, is on her way back home to make peace with her parents after eloping. Loud-mouthed Othis is a promiscuous megalomaniac taking his materialistic girlfriend to Mombasa on holiday, oblivious that there are hijackers within earshot of their conversation and that an uncompromising brownie teacher bearing him a grudge from the past is also onboard and that she will go to any length to even the score. Then there is Tony, a Kenyan home on holiday from America, who carelessly accepts a painkiller from a stranger in the bus. As they struggle through the rough road the heavy downpour and the hungry Tsavo man eaters can the pregnant girl make it through the journey and will the passengers who learn that they cannot trust each other all arrive in Mombasa on time and in one piece
