Fitz-Gibbon, 2000-01-01 In the World But Not of the World explores the threefold tension among Alasdair MacIntyre's prognosis for Western society the desires of some for a social transformation with a Christian moral vision at the sacred centre and a baptist understanding of Christianity as essentially voluntary non sacralist discipleship Andrew Fitz Gibbon uses five contemporary Christian social thinkers from different traditions as conversation partners Through his examination of these thinkers Fitz Gibbon explores how the church may continue to truthfully narrate the Christian story in the midst of the moral tensions of late capitalist Western society His creative conclusion is that the church at the beginning of the twenty first century can move toward a resolution of the central tension of being in the world but not of the world through a synthesis of the believers church tradition and an affirmation of communitarian liberal democracy 60 Days of Prophecies Dr. David Jeremiah, 2025-05-06 Are you seeking insights into today's world events. Finding the Plot Roger Standing, 2012-03-16 Preaching at its best is truth on fire The real quality of this book is that it has been created from the author's own experience of the local pastorate and is concerned with practical insights and realities I warmly recommend it David Coffey Moderator of the Free Churches and General Secretary of the Baptist Union For some the phrase finding the plot suggests a stroll through a graveyard which is much like their view of preaching But Roger Standing uses the phrase to describe narrative preaching an approach that helps preachers accomplish their essential task to raise the dead Marshall Shelley Vice President Christianity Today International and editor of Leadership This book from a seasoned practitioner and an able thinker will provide the signposts required by many either for transforming their preaching style in mid career or for setting off on the right foot Nigel G Wright Principal of Spurgeon's College London Roger Standing breezily shares his enthusiasm for narrative preaching He combines theory about narrative and its cultural relevance with practical advice and preaching examples A helpful stimulus to any preacher to branch out into narrative preaching Michael Quicke Charles Koller Professor of Preaching and Communications The Preacher as Storyteller Austin B.
