treatment of short fiction writing and chronicles its development in Britain and Ireland from 1880 to the present Provides a comprehensive treatment of the short story in Britain and Ireland as it developed over the period 1880 to the present Includes essays on topics and genres as well as on individual texts and authors Comprises chapters on women s writing Irish fiction gay and lesbian writing and short fiction by immigrants to Britain The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane,Andrew Carpenter,Angela Bourke,Jonathan Williams,1991 The Realist Short Story of the Powerful Glimpse Kerry McSweeney,2007 An aesthetic perspective on the short fiction of Chekhov Joyce Hemingway O Connor and Carver Taking a distinctively aesthetic approach to the genre of realist short fiction Kerry McSweeney clusters the work of five masters Anton Chekhov James Joyce Ernest Hemingway Flannery O Connor and Raymond Carver to offer a poetics of the form for students and scholars At the center of this argument is the notion that the realist short story is a glimpse powerful and tightly focused into a world that the writer must precisely craft and in which the reader must fully invest Selecting writers from different generational national and cultural backgrounds McSweeney chooses writers based on their commitment to the realist representation of experience and their shared belief in the importance and efficacy of the short story form By considering their efforts in tandem he develops a means to assess the strategies and claims of realist short fiction McSweeney demonstrates that when the comments these writers have made about their work are assembled and critically scrutinized the result is an aesthetic critical model as opposed to more interpretative models that focus attention on the determination or indetermination of meanings He suggests that a fully adequate reading of a realist short story involves the integration of three components the enjoyment and contemplation of the story in and of itself affective receptivity or a response to the story s emotional content and cognitive activity or the reflective consideration of the story s conceptual implications In individual chapters on Chekov Joyce Hemingway O Connor and Carver this presentational model is applied to widely known and often anthologized readings from each writer McSweeney brings into sharp focus the distinctive features of each piece makes qualitative discriminations and assesses the profitability of other critical models He concludes with an invitation to test the mettle of his approach in reading other realist short story writers *E.
