The Research Basis for Autism Intervention Eric Schopler, Nurit Yirmiya, Cory Shulman, Lee M. Marcus, 2007-05-08 As the past President of the Israel Society for Autism it gives me great pleasure to congratulate Professor Schopler and his colleagues on the publication of their new book concerning the relationship between scientific research and treatment When we in Israel began our specifically structured education program for young children with autism our work was based on slim to scarce knowledge and information and with no experience whatsoever Whatever information we could gather was mostly from psychological educational centers in the U S One of the most important and significant connections was established between the TEACCH program of North Carolina led and conducted by the two important scholars Professor Eric Schopler and Professor Lee Marcus and our Israel Society for Autism During our many encounters seminars and conferences we profited enormously from all their accumulated expertise and scientific research while perhaps it was also an important experience for them to see how a young society with very limited means was eventually shaping its educational program and arriving at some excellent results We ofcourse have the highest esteem for Governor Hunt who has been following this program with so much attention and support and we still remember his visit to Israel with distinguished representatives of the TEACCH Program I wish the new book every success I know it will be an enormous contribution to all those who must cope with a difficult and painful issue autism for whom there is no end to the need for research and continuously improving methods of care and education
