The Hungry Years T. H. Watkins, 2000-09 Draws from oral histories memoirs local newspaper reports and scholarly texts to tell the story of America's Great Depression in the words of people who lived through it Literary History of the United States: History Robert Ernest Spiller, 1974 1 History 2 Bibliography The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1965

Literary History of the United States: Bibliography supplement II Robert Ernest Spiller, 1972 This survey covers the history of United States literature from prominent writers including Jonathan Edwards Benjamin Franklin Washington Irving James Fenimore Cooper Edgar Allan Poe Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Walt Whitman Longfellow Holmes Lowell William Dean Howells Sidney Lanier Emily Dickinson Mark Twain Henry James Henry Adams Edwin Arlington Robinson Theodore Dreiser and Eugene O'Neil Documenting Spain: Artists, Exhibition Culture, and the Modern Nation, 1929-1939, The news media have given us potent demonstrations of the ambiguity of ostensibly truthful representations of public events Jordana Mendelson uses this ambiguity as a framework for the study of Spanish visual culture from 1929 to 1939 a decade marked on the one hand by dictatorship civil war and Franco's rise to power and on the other by a surge in the production of documentaries of various types from films and photographs to international exhibitions Mendelson begins with an examination of El Pueblo Español a model Spanish village featured at the 1929 International Exposition in Barcelona She then discusses Buñuel's and Dalí's documentary films relating them not only to French Surrealism but also to issues of rural tradition in the formation of regional and national identities Her highly original book concludes with a discussion of the 1937 Spanish Pavilion where Picasso's famed painting of the Fascist bombing of a Basque town Guernica was exhibited along with monumental photomurals by Josep Renau Based upon years of archival research Mendelson's book opens a new perspective on the cultural politics of a turbulent era in modern Spain It explores the little known yet rich intersection between avant garde artists and government institutions It shows as well the surprising extent to which Spanish modernity was fashioned through dialogue between the seemingly opposed fields of urban and rural fine art and mass culture The Education of Carey McWilliams Carey McWilliams, 1979 Compilation of Records of Surface Waters of the United States Through September 1950, 1959 A breakfast for Bonaparte U.S. national security interests from the Heights of Abraham to the nuclear age Eugene V. Engineers,1947      A Low, Dishonest Decade Paul N. Hehn,2002-10-28 Almost all written histories of the period leading up to World War II stress political diplomatic and ideological conflicts Arguing that previous historians have confused effect for cause and have considered these conflicts without reference to the systemic problems that provoked them Paul Hehn focuses on the fierce rivalries among the Great Powers in the relentless search for markets during the world depression of the 1930s These rivalries were exacerbated particularly in southeastern Europe where Germany dominated the economies and trade arenas of its neighbors in a semi colonial manner In A Low Dishonest Decade Hehn surveys the five Major Powers and all the Eastern European countries from the Baltic to Turkey But he primarily canvases the economic situations in strategic locations like Czechoslovakia Hungary Poland Romania and Yugoslavia      Summaries of Tariff Information United States Tariff Commission,1948      Summaries of Tariff Information: pt.1.
