Tempest Classics Of World Literature:

The Classic and Creativity Jiang Zhuyu, 2025-09-04 This book explores the complex dialectical interplay between the classic and creativity through a unique comparative lens that bridges Chinese and Western literary traditions The interplay between the classic and creativity has been a fundamental question in literary criticism although readers may be more familiar with discussions from the Western literary tradition such as T S Eliot s seminal essay Tradition and the Individual Talent In this comparative study the author examines the parallel discussions in both Chinese and Western literary traditions highlighting the inherently dialectical relationship between classics and creativity She introduces the rich traditions of poetry and poetics from ancient China to modern times equally illuminating is her commentary on Western literary critics such as Alexander Pope William Wordsworth T S Eliot and Oscar Wilde Her engagement with literary works such as Shakespeare s The Tempest and the Book of Poetry and with literary practices such as adaptation and commentary is also remarkable as she addresses the contemporary challenges of studying the classics in an age of world literature Clear and accessible this work in East West comparative poetics will be valuable to scholars and students of literary theory comparative literature and world literature

The Classic and the Beautiful from the Literature of Three Thousand Years Henry Coppel, 1898 The Routledge Concise History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2013-03 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to and overview of World Literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism to postmodernism this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation and postcolonial studies and anyone with an interest in these or related topics The Classic and the Beautiful from the Literature of Three Thousand Years Henry Coppel, 1894

On the Horizon of World Literature Emily Sun, 2021-04-06 On the Horizon of World Literature compares literary texts from asynchronous periods of incipient literary modernity in different parts of the world Romantic England and Republican China These moments were oriented alike by world literature as a discursive framework of classifications that connected and re organized local articulations of literary histories and literary modernities World literature thus provided and continues to provide a condition of possibility for conversation between cultures as well as for their mutual provincialization The book offers readings of a selection of literary forms that serve also as textual sites for the enactment of new socio political forms of life The literary manifesto the tale collection the familiar essay and the domestic novel function as testing grounds for questions of both literary aesthetic and socio political importance What does it mean to attain a voice What is a common reader How does one dwell in the ordinary What is a woman In different languages and activating heterogeneous literary and philosophical traditions works by Percy Bysshe Shelley Lu Xun Charles and Mary Lamb Lin Shu Zhou Zuoren Jane Austen and Eileen Chang explore the far from settled problem of what it means to be modern in different lifeworlds Sun s book brings to light the disciplinary historical impact world literature has had in shaping literary traditions and practices around the world The book renews the practice of close reading by offering the model of a deprovincialized close reading loosened from confinement within monocultural hermeneutic circles By means of its own focus on England and China the book provides methods useful for comparatists working between other Western and non Western languages It establishes the critical significance of Romanticism for the discipline of literary studies and opens up new paths of research in global Romanticism and global nineteenth century studies And it offers a new approach to analyzing the cosmopolitan character of the literary and cultural transformations of early twentieth century China The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2011-09-14 In the age of globalization the category of World Literature is increasingly important to academic teaching and research The Routledge Companion to World Literature offers a comprehensive pathway into this burgeoning and popular field Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of World Literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of World Literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in World Literature including gender politics and ethics a global perspective on the politics of World Literature The forty eight outstanding contributors to this companion offer an ideal introduction to those approaching the field for the first time or looking to further their knowledge of this extensive field Blazing the Path Chima Anyadike, Kehinde A. Ayoola, 2012 Blazing the Path Fifty Years of Things Fall Apart is a collection of new perspectives on Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart a novel that was first published in 1958 and which has since become a classic of world literature Aside from opening up the novel to new interpretive strategies of well established literary critics and clarifying some past ones this collection of essays repositions Things Fall Apart as a literary piece with interdisciplinary and multidimensional appeal The volume fulfills the objective of using the novel to interrogate the colonial and pre colonial African past with Nigeria's post modern present and projects the country into a future that looks to literature for a deeper understanding of where Nigeria is as a citizen of an emerging global village Masterpieces of the World's Literature, Ancient and Modern ... interdisciplinary dialogue with translation history the third looks at translation history from the perspective of specific cultural and religious perspectives and the fourth offers a selection of case studies on some of the key topics to have emerged in translation and interpreting history over the past 20 years This Handbook is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of translation and interpreting history translation theory and related areas The School World ,1906

The Frame and the Mirror Thomas P. Brockelman,2001 If the postmodern is a collage as some critics have suggested or if collage is itself a kernel of the postmodern what does this mean for our way of understanding the world The Frame and the Mirror uses this question to probe the distinctive character of the postmodern situation and the philosophical problem of representation Brockelman s work is itself a collage of sorts using juxtapositions of critics and art historical figures to conduct a debate between such figures as Karsten Harries Gianni Vattimo Rosalind Krauss Immanuel Kant Jean Francois Lyotard Slavoj Žižek and Le Corbusier about issues such as truth in art perspectivism theatricality the sublime psychoanalytic theory politics and urbanism More than an introduction to the postmodern The Frame and the Mirror advances our understanding of the contemporary world by relating its features to the peculiar characteristics of collage Ultimately Brockelman shows how collage demands that we reinterpret modernity conceiving of it as suspended between a loss of certainty and a new kind of knowledge about the human condition In doing so his work challenges many of the claims made in the name of postmodernism and offers in their place a new and ironic view of the cultural space in which contemporary and historical events occur Dictionary Of World Literature - Criticism, Forms, Technique Joseph T

Shipley,2013-04-04 The dictionary of world literature criticism forms technique presents a consideration of critics and criticism of literary schools movements forms and techniques including drama and the theatre in eastern and western lands from the earliest times of literary and critical terms and ideas with other material that may provide background of understanding to all who as creator critic or receptor approach a literary or theatrical work The Pocket magazine of classic and polite literature.
