Temple Gairdner Of Cairo:

Temple Gairdner of Cairo Constance E. Padwick,1928 Temple Gairdner of Cairo Constance Evelyn Padwick,1929
To Islam I Go I. Smith,1939 Abiding Mission Dick Brogden,2016-07-06 Abiding Mission presents the discipline of abiding as the first priority of the Christian and the base methodology of mission Based on an exegesis of John 15 Abiding Mission illustrates the definition of abiding by examining the abiding mission lives of seven key pioneers in mission to Muslims in North Africa including Daniel Comboni Catholic Samuel Zwemer Presbyterian Oswald Chambers YMCA Pentecostal League Lillian Trasher Assemblies of God Lillias Trotter Algerian Missions Band Douglas Thornton Anglican CMS and Temple Gairdner Anglican CMS The work continues by looking at the operationalization of abiding as developed from interviews from current missionaries to Muslims in North Africa Unveiling God: Martin Parsons,2005-06-01 Muslim responses to Christianity down the ages have been shaped by diverse factors One of the primary stumbling blocks has been Muslim misperceptions of Christian core beliefs about the person of Jesus and the nature of God This study includes a practical example of contextualization which should provide great insights to Christians who are trying to explain their faith to Muslims in diverse contexts Peter G Riddell Professor of Islamics Director Centre for Muslim Christian Relations

Christian Mission in the Twentieth Century Timothy Yates,1994 Offering an essential historical overview of the chief developments in Christian mission this should become a standard textbook Biographical Dictionary of Christian Missions Gerald H. Anderson,1999 The book also features cross references throughout a bibliography accompanying each entry an elaborate appendix listing biographies according to particular categories of interest and a comprehensive index

BOOK JACKET Christian Witness Between Continuity and New Beginnings Martin Tamcke,Michael Marten,2006 Missions to from and within the Middle East have shaped the region in multitudinous ways since the 19th century This collection of essays from a range of international scholars explores this immensely significant subject using a range of disciplines including theology history and geography This interdisciplinary approach helps to provide a thorough overview of the often complex and multi layered topic of missions and the Middle East in contemporary research and will be of interest to all who seek to improve their understanding of the role of religion in the Middle East Among the Copts John H. Watson,2002-09-01 This work explores all the important themes of the Copts from the earliest moments of Christian history to the present day achieving a balance between a critical re examination of Coptic history and research It contains small biographies to show the Coptic experience as it is lived Routledge Library Editions: Christianity Various Authors,2022-07-30 Originally published between 1926 and 1986 the books in this series provide an extensive exploration of Christianity covering a wide range of different perspectives and topics including the relationship between Christianity and other religions the history and development of Christianity Christian theology and philosophy the presence of Christianity across the world women and the Church approaches to the study of Christianity and poetry inspired by religious architecture

The Church Quarterly Review Arthur Cayley Headlam (Bishop of Gloucester),1929 Muslims and the Gospel

Roland E. Miller,2005 The author s five decades of personal experience leads him to conclude that it is possible to be a witness to the Gospel and be a friend to Muslims at the same time The author outlines key factors in the Muslim understanding of the Gospel examines some bridges and defines the art of sharing He concludes by assessing the possibilities of such a mission The British in Egypt Lanver Mak,2012-02-28 Egypt during the British occupation 1882 1922 was a strategically important site for securing British interests in the region Most studies of Britons in Egypt during the occupation focus on the lives and activities of law abiding British military and political elites Using a variety of primary sources this book deepens our understanding of the hidden British community beyond these elites the lower and working classes and those engaged in crime and misconduct by bringing to light their demographic profile socio occupational diversity criminal activities and varying responses to the crises represented by World War I and the revolutionary period of 1919 1922 It will be essential reading for historians of British imperialism Egypt and the Middle East The Copts of Egypt Vivian

Ibrahim,2010-12-02 The Coptic Christians of Egypt have traditionally been portrayed as a beleaguered minority persecuted in a Muslim majority state and by the threat of political Islam Vivian Ibrahim offers a vivid portrayal of the community and an alternative interpretation of Coptic agency in the twentieth century through newly discovered sources Dismissing the monolithic portrayal of this community she analyses how Copts negotiated a role for themselves during the colonial and Nasserist periods and their multifaceted response to the emergence of the Muslim Brotherhood She examines reform within the Church itself and how it led to power struggles that redefined the role of the Pope and Church in Nasser s Egypt The findings of this book hold great relevance for understanding identity politics and the place of the Coptic community in the fast changing political landscape of today s Egypt Europe - Space for Transcultural Existence? Martin Tamcke,Janny de Jong,Lars Klein,Margriet van der Waal,2013 Europe Space for Transcultural Existence is the first volume of the new series Studies in Euroculture published by G ttingen University Press The series derives its name from the Erasmus Mundus Master of Excellence Euroculture Europe in the Wider World a two year programme offered by a consortium of eight European universities in collaboration with four partner universities outside Europe This master highlights regional national and supranational dimensions of the European democratic development mobility migration and inter multi and transculturality The impact of culture is understood as an element of political and social development within Europe The articles published here explore the field of Euroculture in its different elements it includes topics such as cosmopolitanism cultural memory and traumatic past s colonial heritage democratization and Europeanization as well as the concept of European identity in various disciplinary contexts such as law and the social sciences In which way have Europeanization and Globalization influenced life in Europe more specifically To what extent have people in Europe turned transcultural The trans is understood as indicator of an overlapping mix of cultures that does not allow for the construction of sharp differentiations It is explored in topics such as immigration and integration as well as cultural products and lifestyle The present economic crisis and debt crisis have led as side result to a public attack on the open cosmopolitan outlook of Europe The values of the multicultural and civil society and the idea of a people's Europe have become debatable This volume offers food for thought and critical reflection

Religion Versus Empire? Andrew Porter, 2004-10-29 This is the only book that addresses the relations between religion Protestant missions and empire building linking together all three fields of study by taking as its starting point the early eighteenth century Anglican initiatives in colonial North America and the Caribbean It considers how the early societies of the 1790s built on this inheritance and extended their own interests to the Pacific India the Far East and Africa Fluctuations in the vigor and commitment of the missions changing missionary theologies and the emergence of alternative missionary strategies are all examined for their impact on imperial expansion Other themes include the international character of the missionary movement Christianity's encounter with Islam and major figures such as David Livingstone the state and politics and humanitarianism all of which are viewed in a fresh light

Roland Allen Steven Richard Rutt, 2018-12-31 Roland Allen 1868 1947 is remembered as one of the foremost missionaries of the last century Throughout his life Allen travelled the world following his vocation and building his missionary methods centred on a theology of indigenisation From his early days as a Chaplain in China during which Allen was forced to flee to the British Legation in Beijing through to his continued mission to India Canada and South Africa he developed as man missionary and theologian The first of two volumes Roland Allen A Missionary Life is an intellectual biography which explores the people and ideas that influenced Allen while tracing the ways in which his missionary ecclesiology evolved during his life Through extensive examination of unpublished archival papers including lesser known letters and sermons Steven Richard Rutt has uncovered the growth of a forthright morally indefatigable churchman who was also a loving family man with close and long running friendships Rutt unpacks Allen's Church centred missionary ecclesiology and missiology of indigenisation which were based on Allen's knowledge gained from experience Roland Allen A Missionary Life and Roland Allen A Theology of Mission explore the thought of a Christian whose writings provided farsighted clarity on global Christian missionary work that is still relevant today

The Routledge Research Companion to the History of Evangelicalism Andrew Atherstone, David Ceri Jones, 2018-07-11 Evangelicalism an inter denominational religious movement that has grown to become one of the most pervasive expressions of world Christianity in the early twenty first century had its origins in the religious revivals led by George Whitefield John Wesley and Jonathan Edwards in the middle decades of the eighteenth century With its stress on the Bible the cross of Christ conversion and the urgency of mission it quickly spread throughout the Atlantic world and then became a global phenomenon Over the past three decades evangelicalism has become the focus of considerable historical research This research companion brings together a team of leading scholars writing broad ranging chapters on key themes in the history of evangelicalism It provides an authoritative and state of the art review of current scholarship and maps the territory for future research Primary attention is paid to English speaking evangelicalism but the volume is transnational in its scope Arranged thematically chapters assess evangelicalism and the Bible the atonement spirituality revivals and revivalism worldwide mission in the Atlantic North and the Global South eschatology race gender culture and the arts money and business interactions with Roman Catholicism Eastern Christianity and Islam and globalization It demonstrates evangelicalism s multiple and contested identities in different ages and contexts The historical and thematic approach of this research companion makes it an invaluable resource for scholars and students alike worldwide The Sum of All Heresies Frederick Quinn, 2008 Quinn traces the Western image of Islam from its earliest days to recent times It establishes four basic themes around which the image of Islam gravitates throughout history in this portrayal of Islam in literature art music and popular culture The Missionary Review of the World ,1929
