to defend our beloved country and our very way of life Conservatism in the Black Community Angela K. Lewis, 2013-01-04

Conservatism in the Black Community examines the contemporary meanings of Black Conservatism and its influence on black political behavior providing a basis for understanding the impact this phenomenon has on black political behavior Lewis analyzes conservatism within the black ideological framework while also explaining the meaning of conservatism in the black community While scholars have argued that the level of support for conservatism among blacks is minimal because conservatism is antithetical to black interest there are a cadre of conservative political intellectuals and political elites in America Do their views influence those of the wider Black population Or does the media merely amplify their voices but with little support What part of contemporary Black conservatism has found a home in the Tea Party movement Focusing on what conservatism means to Blacks at the grassroots level and in what issue areas Blacks as a whole tend to have more conservative views this work neither critiques nor praises Black Conservatism The results of Lewis's mix of quantitative and qualitative methodologies will be of strong interest to students and scholars of Black politics Black studies and political behavior more generally Knowing Victims Rebecca Stringer, 2014-06-20 Knowing Victims explores the theme of victimhood in contemporary feminism and politics It focuses on popular and scholarly constructions of feminism as victim feminism an ideology of passive victimhood that denies women's agency and provides the first comprehensive analysis of the debate about this ideology which has unfolded among feminists since the 1980s The book critically examines a movement away from the language of victimhood across a wide array of discourses and the neoliberal replacement of the concept of structural oppression with the concept of personal responsibility In derogating the notion of victim neoliberalism promotes a conception of victimization as subjective rather than social a state of mind rather than a worldly situation Drawing upon Nietzsche Lyotard rape crisis feminism and feminist philosophy Stringer situates feminist politicizations of rape interpersonal violence economic inequality and welfare reform as key sites of resistance to the victim blaming logic of neoliberalism She suggests that although recent feminist critiques of victim feminism have critically diagnosed the anti victim movement they have not positively defended victim politics Stringer argues that a conception of the victim as an agentic bearer of knowledge and an understanding of resentment as a generative force for social change provides a potent counter to the negative construction of victimhood characteristic of the neoliberal era This accessible and insightful analysis of feminism neoliberalism and the social construction of victimhood will be of great interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender and women's studies psychology sociology politics and philosophy Race, Crime, and Criminal Justice Anita Kalunta-Crumpton, 2025-06-12 One of the most controversial topics on the subject of race crime and criminal justice is the disproportionate representation of Blacks in the criminal justice system as offenders and prison inmates Rather than portraying Blacks as perpetual victims of racism in which societal institutions are solely responsible for reform this book seeks to put the power of change in the hands of Blacks It focuses on the preventative role that Blacks might play and
